HARBOR NOTES.

Mr. Leonard Rawleigh launched his new boat Saturday. It was a disappointment at first but after changing the stern somewhat the boat made excellent speed and gives satisfaction.

Six young men and two boys from Wilmington arrived at Millington last week equipped with canoes. Starting at the head of the Chester river they began their novel journey home all the way by water.

They had with them four canoes, with the old fashioned Indian paddles, tents and cooking utensils with sufficient rations to last during their journey. Two men occupied each canoe and paddled to Chestertown and spent a few hours sight seeing. After visiting all the points of interest they resumed their journey down the river until night-fall when they would go ashore and pitch their tents to spend the night. The trip, they say, will take about ten days.

Mr. W. W. Hubbard has had a new engine installed in his launch.

An effort has been made this week to get Secretary Taft to compel the widening of Chester river draw so that the B. S. Ford can get to Crumpton. Mr. C. W. Clements, of Crumpton, accompanied a delegation to Washington this week for this purpose. Secretary Taft will not act before hearing the Commissioners' side of the case.

ROCK HALL ITEMS

The attack of appendicitis recently suffered by little Vernon Ashley son of Dr. W. O. Selby was one of the most interesting cases of the kind in the history of the Maryland General Hospital, in that it was a most aggravated case. The patient was the youngest, four and a half years, to undergo an operation for appendicitis at the institution and the operation was one of the most successful ever performed there. Dr. Warfield, one of the most skilled manipulators of the surgical knife in the hospital fraternity, performed the operation and has caused a lasting debt of gratitude to possess Dr. Selby and family. Little Vernon is nearly ready to assume his usual routine of every day life with the rest of the family. It is proper to state that one of the features to help bring about the successful result of this case was the prompt action of Dr. Selby. As soon as he discovered the nature of the attack he carried the patient to the hospital, if all doctors not fully able to cope with the disease and the family of the sufferers, would act as wisely, no doubt, less fatalities would occur from the diseases. Dr. Warfield, is a relative of the honored Governor of our State. He sails for Europe on the 20th to enjoy a vacation well earned.

The good people for whom Rev. Mr. McCaslin is Shepherd having granted him a generous vacation. He is enjoying the same at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leary, Greys Inn.

A number of our residents who have been attending the S. D. A. Camp meeting at Gardenville have returned home much enthused with the good they have seen, heard and felt and are now ready to enter energetic campaign of soul winning.

Our friend J. W. Joiner complains because the hack business is not so good as in former seasons. It does not seem reasonable to complain if we may judge from his last Sunday's work, he had 22 passengers from here to Tolchester, other hackman, no doubt, did as well. It took 17 hacks to convey the people, arriving here from Baltimore, last Saturday, to their various destinations and many hacks are daily seen going to and fro between the Summer boarding houses and steamer. So to an onlooker the hack business is booming.

Leary's basket department at the Grey's Inn factory has closed down for the season and the basket makers are now in other pursuits.

A new porch has been erected on the West side of Mr. Nick Wilkin's dwelling which adds improvement to the dwelling and much comfort to the family.

One of the happiest events of the season was the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Merser, which occured on the 3d instant, at their home near Rock Hall. Many of the relatives, friends and neighbors of the happy couple were present. Among those from Baltimore Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Poole, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Slitz and Miss Nannie Moody. Many useful and valuable presents were received. The large gathering and many of the citizens here, together with the Kent News, wishes them continued bliss and success as the years roll on until they reach the golden anniversary of their marriage.

Miss Emma U. Hain, of Baltimore, is for three weeks the guest of Mrs. Mollie Wheat' of South Rock Hall.

Mr. Augusta Ayres has accepted a position at Annapolis.

Misses Marguerite Hersch and Anna Mae Ayres have returned home after spending a few weeks with their aunt, Mrs. A. B. Coburn, of Havre de Grace.

Live Local Notes.

Accidents.—Mr. Joshua Galloway, on Mr. Isaac Gibbs' farm near Massey, was severely hurt last week. While out cutting wood with some colored men one of the men accidentally hit his shoulder with the axe making a painful wound. Dr. Latimer, of Galena, attended him and he is getting along very well.

Sale of Property.—Col. Wm. J. Vannort has sold to Mrs. Harry Moore the James Butler farm in Sandy Bottom for $600 cash. The farm contains 30 acres and is now occupied by John Walley.

Mr. Charles Hodgkins has purchased of J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, the Nelson house on Kent street.

Mrs. Rachel Lee has purchased of Mr. J. W. Russell, real estate broker, the Zenker property at Fairlee where she will reside next year.

Weddings.—Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Hattie Gray of Galena, to Mr. William Merchant, of Denver, Col., Mr. and Mrs. Merchant will make their home at Fort Morgan, Col. Miss Gray is a daughter of Mr. H. J. Gray, of Galena. Mr. Merchant is a son of Mr. Frank Merchant of the same place. Both young people are well-known in Kent society circles.

Mr. Abe Cohen will close his store next Tuesday to attend the wedding of Mr. Louis Kirsh in Baltimore.

Betterton Wins.—Betterton had little trouble in defeating the strong Chesapeake City team at Betterton Base Ball Park, Wednesday afternoon. The game was not as snappy as usual, several costly errors being chalked against both teams. Betterton's infield being loose at critical stages gave Chesapeake their only runs and it was only by the masterful pitching of Horsey that their run column was not larger. He struck out fifteen men wearing Chesapeake uniforms and letting them down with three scattered hits. Taylor was injured sliding to second base in fifth inning but was able to finish the game. The strong Catonville Country Club plays at Betterton Saturday, Aug. 10th, and a good game is promised.

WONDERFUL BARGAINS AT HOCHSCHILD KOHN & CO., BALTIMORE.

Baltimore's Best Store—so well known by many of the readers of this paper—was never more inviting to thrifty folks than it is at this time.

There are bargains—all over the store. Best kinds of summer merchandise are marked down to prices that will insure quick selling, and that means very substantial savings to all who make purchases.

It is true that most of the lots are small, and that in some instances assortments are not entirely complete. But it is also true that dollars will do almost—or quite—double duty at Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s just now.

The large advertisements of this firm are to be found in our columns almost every week in the year, and are always interesting.

To the Needy.—Anyone in need of clothing or furnishings would do well to visit J. D. Lucas' annual clearance sale. Mr. Lucas gives away many dollars each year to economical buyers in the way of reductions, during these sales.

Another Serious Trouble.

Another stumbling block in the way of reviving Eastern Shore trade with Baltimore, in addition to the grading of grain, is mentioned in our local columns today. It is the mismanaged and inadequate terminal facilities for river and bay grain freights. We have it from an Eastern Shore captain that at this writing there are in Baltimore harbor no less than 100 vessels loaded with wheat, all of which have been there from one to seven days awaiting the slow arrival of their turn to unload their cargoes and return to the farms of the Eastern Shore for more grain. They are kept there for unreasonably long periods for no apparent reason other than the dilatory mismanagement of the grain elevator service.

The positive result of the mismanagement is twofold.

First—Every day the grain remains in the vessels it deteriorates in quality, gets tough and musty. Frequently grain that on arrival would grade No. 2 red, after laying in the harbor several days grades steamer or lower, which naturally dissatisfies the Eastern Shore shipper, and he consequently seeks a market not so affected, and his grain goes by rail to Philadelphia or New York, and not to its natural market in Baltimore.

Second—The other effect is that the tide-water farmer who has engaged his threshing outfit for a certain day and engaged a vessel to carry his grain to Baltimore on that certain day is disappointed to find the vessel tied up in Baltimore indefinitely with his neighbors' wheat aboard. The farmer is compelled to hustle to the nearest railroad station and engage cars and naturally directs his shipment to Philadelphia, for it is a fact that no Eastern Shore grain goes to Baltimore by rail.

Now, as to the mismanagement of the elevators. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has two elevators at Locust Point called B house and C house. About 10 days ago at the beginning of the wheat season it was announced that C house would be closed for repairs for about ten days. It is still closed and we are informed it would be closed for at least three weeks longer, or, in other words, it will be closed until the wheat season is over. This has been the custom for ten years past, and in 1905 vessels were held up for as long as two weeks awaiting a chance to unload while so-called repairs were moving slowly along and nearly 200 vessels accumulated in the harbor.

The only other elevator handling bay grain is No. 3 house, out on the Patapsco river; though why the Northern Central elevator, at Canton, has never handled bay grain has never been explained.

A remedy for the existing evil would be the compulsion of the elevator owners to run their houses 24 hours instead of about 10 hours and to handle all grain promptly on arrival, giving each vessel its proper turn.

The Annapolis municipal tax rate is ninety cents on the hundred dollars. In Chestertown it is only thirty.

This has been an unprecedented season in our Millinery Department. Our trimming room has been taxed to the utmost night and day. The styles never were more attractive and charming, the trimming never more varied and beautiful, and the prices never so paltry and pleasing. Yet with the vast number of hats that have been turned out, we have a plentiful supply for the unfortunate ones—those who have as yet been unable to buy. We are showing the daintiest things in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Sailors, and a gorgeous array of Trimmings, such as Flowers, Ribbons, Plumes, Grass, Feathers, etc.
