ROCK HALL ITEMS

Sitting Bull Tribe No. 130, I. O. R. M. of this town, is one of the most progressive secret benevolent organizations to be found on the peninsula, as was fully demonstrated on Thursday evening of last week when their "Ladies Night Social" was held in K. of P. hall. The hall was profusely and tastefully decorated with bunting, garlands and illuminated by Japanese lanterns. On the platform were three tents, before which sat three savage-looking braves in mute silence and clad in Indian costume, and in lieu of tomahawk and scalping knife, they held fierce looking cudgels, and with war paint grimage, they gave the impression that they wanted it understood that they were on guard and meant business. The Hall was well filled with ladies. The Red Men and their invited male guests, who were in large number, had to occupy the rear of the hall, ante room and stairway.

Rock Hall has ever been noted for the beauty of its ladies, but all records of feminine beauty was broken on this occasion. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake was served in great abundance at 10 o'clock.

The following program was intellectually and joyously rendered: Opening Ode and prayer of the Order by the Red Men; Address of Welcome, Mr. Max Alexander in splendidly chosen remarks which made everybody feel perfectly at home; recitation by Miss Hattie Lewis in her usual brilliant style; Duet, by Misses Anna May Ayres and Lillian Taylor; Song, by Messrs. Wm. T. Downey, Chas. Judefind and A. W. Andrews; Recitation, by Miss Anna Leary, which brought down the house in vociferous applause; Select Reading by Prof. Greenhawk; Song, by Messrs. Downey, Judefind and Andrews; Legerdemain performance by Prof. Greenhawk, who proved a perfect adept in the same; Song and story with mandolin accompaniment, Mr. Max Alexander; Song, Messrs. Downey, Judefind and Andrews. After which the floor was cleared for tripping the light fantastic toe, to the delightful strains of Prof. Willson's stringed orchestra, which was participated in by quite a number.

The young men who engineered the make-up of the affair, are to be commended for their efforts. It certainly proved one of the most successful entertainments of the kind ever held here and all its parts was by home talent. The tribe numbers about 60 men and are standing shoulder to shonlder in the amelioration of the ills of life. It is the youngest but not the least of the six secret benevolent organizations of this place.

Mr. E. E. Leary, besides sending out many large consignments of building material to Kent purchasers, he is about to send to Mr. Harry Leary, of Anne Arundel county material for a large dwelling. Mr. L. is also getting himself in shape for a trip to Denton on a Sunday or so hence in his automobile. That will be a lovely 45 mile spin. Wonder if there's room for one more?

Election day passed off here as quietly as a day at the county fair. About 80 failed to cast a ballot in R. H. precinct and 30 at Edesville. Everybody is glad the thing is over, of course there is considerable regrets here and there, but of one thing many—both Democrats and Republicans are happy that our splendid ex-Gov. Smith won in the Senatorial primaries. The Democratic rooster is a happy bird, his crowing is loud and long.

Evangelist Clark has left us, but his revival interests here continue with unabated zeal. Rev. Mr. Burr has been assisted this week to some extent by Rev. W. V. Harris of Piney Neck church. There have been quite a number professed conversion mostly among the Sunday School children.

School Notes.—Miss Florence Jewell, who has been the efficient substitute at Worton school, has been elected principal in place of Miss Mary Nicholson, resigned.

The patrons of Rock Hall school regret to learn that Miss Maud Aldrich, the efficient assistant there, has resigned and will teach at Waverly, near Baltimore.

Miss Hanna L. Gooding, assistant teacher of Betterton, has resigned and Miss Lolla O. Crew, teacher at Coleman's school appointed to the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Gooding.

Miss Wilhemina Alochel, of Baltimore, was awarded the scholarship in the Maryland Institute due from Kent county.

Thanksgiving Day.—President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation, naming Thursday, November 28th, as Thanksgiving Day.
