WOODALL & RIGGIN, Georgetown, have purchased the property and good will of Mr. Jos. H. Steele at Bohemia bridge and will continue the freighting and coal business there.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., February 19, 1910.

DEAR SIR:—About two weeks ago, we called your attention to our special reduction sale of Suits, Overcoats and Separate Trowsers and have been waiting with the goods to show you. Although we have had liberal responses and very many pleased customers, still there's a good many who haven't bought yet. If you are one of them we advise an early call, for they have been coming from Sudlersville and Rock Hall, and we sold quite a nice bill to parties from Sassafras. So you see the best styles and values must necessarily soon be depleted. As stated before, this special sale at manufacturers prices, with an extra 5% off that, owing to some changes in our lines, is why; and the sale will continue during February and March only, with all alterations charged for.

Respectfully,
Directly Opp. Court House. MOODY & LUSBY.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., February 19, 1910.

DEAR MADAM:—Have you brought your boy in yet? Well, if you haven't, don't wait too long. We have a good range of styles and prices yet, but at the prices we are selling Boys' Suits and Overcoats they won't last long. We offer you the same discount as on Men's, and same discount off Underwear, Gloves, &c. Come in soon as you can while we have good assortment.

Respectfully,
Directly Opp. Court House. MOODY & LUSBY.
