Special Notice to Ladies

Our large purchase of Ladies' Suits for this season are now completed and the final lots have arrived, and are ready for selling. These Suits are just what you are looking for. Our strong argument is that you get them just a "little cheaper" than elsewhere. These specials should sell at sight.

Prettiest Wash Fabrics

We say prettiest, for surely there never were any prettier Wash Fabrics than these we are showing. Organdies, Dimities, Batistes, French Ginghams, Lawns and Voiles crowd each other for room, and when you consider that the prices are so very low the goods become very tempting.

Embroideries : An Endless Variety

There are All-Overs, Edgings and Insertions—baby width, medium widths and flounce widths. Patterns from a fraction of an inch to a half yard, with unusually liberal margins. The designs are beautiful, artistic and diversified. Neat exquisite effects for baby clothes and women's lingerie, dainty styles for trimming waists and showy elaborate combinations for flounces and ruffles.

HOT OLD TIMES AT WORTON

On Friday the old Worton track resembled the old days, when about 800 people braved the heat to witness the best matinee racing in this part of the country for some time.

There were four races on the card, the first being called promptly at 2 o'clock, and it was very near 6 o'clock when the last heat was finished.

In the second heat of Class A, the fast race, the best heat of the day was traveled in 2.21¼ by Queen Marie, which established a record for the track. The time was about 10 seconds faster than the record of the old track made by Cyclops at the time he defeated John Hines' Smuggler at the Worton fair grounds in 1887.

The first was a dead heat between Queen Marie and Bellboy, and every heat was a race.

John F. Mallalieu, trainer at the track, certainly deserves a great deal of credit for bringing together such good fields and mapping out an afternoon of such good sport, and the attendance at the matinees this season surely shows that the public appreciates his efforts.

The officials were: Starting judge, Dr. William H. Schwatka; associate judges, James Merrick, Jr., Joseph B. Hossinger and Harrison D. Massey; timers, H. P. Skipper, J. E. Ferguson and R. Oscar Roe; clerk, James G. Beck, and marshal, Harry D. Massey. Summary;

Stock Notes.—Mr. John E. Morris lost a fine mule one day this week. The animal got into his corn field and killed himself eating new corn.

Mr. Richard Groves had to kill a big fine mare a few days ago, the animal having gotten her leg broken during the night while out in the field with other horses. It is supposed she was kicked by one of the other horses.

Mr. Robert Olson, of the "Woodring Farm" near Starkey's Corner, lost a valuable driving horse last Saturday by an accident. Mr. Olson had a sale of the greater part of his personal property on that day, and the horse, with a number of others, was being driven in from the field when it turned and attempted to go back. Running at a swift pace, the animal struck a page-wire fence and was knocked down by the force of the impact, breaking its neck. It got to its feet, however and walked 150 yards to the stable where it died a few minutes later. Mr. Olson did not intend to offer the animal at the sale as he preferred keeping it for driving purposes.

BACKWARD, turn backward, O time in your flight, and give us a maiden dressed proper and right. We are so weary of switches and rats, Bill Burke clusters and peach-basket hats. Wads of jute hair in a horrible pile, stacked on their heads to the height of a mile. Something is wrong with the maidens, we fear. Give us the girls as they used to appear. Give us the girlies as we once knew of yore, whose curls didn't come from a hair-dressing store. Maidens who dressed with a sensible view. And just as Dame Nature intended them to. Give us a girl with a figure her own and fashioned divinely by Nature alone. Feminine style's getting fiercer each year—oh, give us the girls as they used to appear.
