LOCAL NOTES.

LOCAL dealers paid $4 per bushel for chestnuts this week.

THE six colored men convicted of playing crap were carried to the House of Correction Monday.

THE Rasin farm, near Still Pond, will be tenanted by Mr. Lloyd Dill, a step-son of Mr. Benson Dill.

TUESDAY, September 26th, was the anniversary of the big fire in Chestertown. May we never have another.

P. W. RUTH, of Crumpton, has sold his dwelling to Mrs. James H. Orem, of Millington, who will remove there.

THE new home of Prof. J. S. W. Jones, on Washington avenue, was turned over to him this week. It will be occupied by (?).

THE Centreville Opera House has been leased by J. S. Cahill, who had a number of amusements at Tolchester this summer.

THE Diamond State Telephone Co. are negotiating with Mr. A. M. Culp for quarters in the new building now being erected on Cross street.

IT is reported that the reason the recent show did not go to Rock Hall was because the elephant ate up all the coffee and they had no "grounds!"

IN another column will be found Vansant & Newsome's Ralston shoe adv. They claim big things for this shoe. They hope to be in their new room in ten days.

THE Town Relief Society will hold a "Bake" in the Eliason building, next door to the Savings Bank, on Saturday, Sept. 30th. Ice-cream and candy will also be for sale.

IT is said Robbins' show was not worth as much after it left Chestertown as when it arrived—because Mr. Charles S. Smith, manager of the Water Co., had "watered" the stock!

THE Newcomb store and dwelling, on Cross street, has been purchased by Mrs. Jos. Lewis & Son for $2,000. They will occupy same next year. J. Waters Russell made the sale.

ONE of the Bohemians at the cannery attracted considerable attention on Sunday by walking through town with a pig following at his heels. The animal seemed to be as docile as a dog.

THERE are 22 workmen employed on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, on Chester river. It will be one of the most beautiful residences in this section when completed.

COOLE'S ISLAND has furnished fine peaches this year. Mr. John F. Usilton, tenant, has shipped about 3000 baskets, for which good prices were gotten. His Salways and Lemon Clings are hard to beat.

THE Wild West show met with bad luck after leaving Chestertown. At Church Hill a man and woman in the Virginia reel stunt were seriously hurt, while at Centreville another woman was injured.

THE Chestertown baker is turning out double the quantity of bread formerly made here. This indicates a good article. He and his family have rented the Guest home, on Cross street, and will remain with us.

THE Strong home, on Grey's Inn Point farm, is being greatly improved. Leary & Son are furnishing the material, &c. Mrs. Rose V. Strong and her industrious "boys" are making a success of farming on this ideal place.

THE Moffett farm, near Ruthsburg, Queen Anne's county, containing 329 acres, bought by Saulsbury Brothers, of Ridgely, in 1899 for $4,000, and later sold for $6,500, and later purchased by Geo. T. Redden, of Denton, for $9,500, was sold last week to Washington parties for $28,000.

MR. WILLARD S. SMITH has sold his farm situated on the State road from Centreville to Church Hill, adjoining Clannahan Shops, to Mr. Mordecai P. Gibson, of Kent Island, for $10,500. Mr. Gibson will move to this farm next year, and Mr. Smith will occupy the C. H. Clash property, at Centreville Landing.

THE fine brick store and dwelling, owned by Mrs. Mary E. Smith, and located on High street, Chestertown, has been sold for $5,500. The reported purchaser is Mr. Walter T. Bramble, the present tenant. Mr. and Mrs. Estes, the tenants of the dwelling, expect to occupy the Kendall house, opposite the Voshell House.

DR. SANBORN shipped his ten hives of bees by train Thursday. Walter Wright superintended the shipment. The doctor said he was sure no one would dispute their right to the space they occupied in the car and was glad he did not have to buy a ticket for each one. They were Italian bees, raised by Dr. S., and the honey perfectly grand.

WERE you ever disappointed? If so, Mr. L. can sympathize with you. He had ordered some ice-cream for his Sunday dinner and anticipated an enjoyable treat, but when the can was opened not a drop of cream was in it! The ice was all nicely packed about the can, but the maker had failed to fill it. The mistake was rectified the next day.

AMONG the jurors drawn in Queen Anne's are the following:

First District—William Anderson, William R. Wilson, J. Frank Barwick, W. Royal Merrick, Frank N. Hardesty, Finley Roberts, R. Oscar Roe, Noah Peters.

Second District—William C. Hall, Charles W. Reeder, John B. T. Merrick, Enoch Coppage, D. Thomas Hurlock, William H. Welch.

Seventh District—Lambert Bowers, John T. Jester, James R. Jefferson, D. Frank Wilds, Cooper Tarbutton, Jerre Godwin.

SUBSCRIBERS to the Chestertown Public Library will please notice the change of schedule. The Library will be open next Tuesday, October 3rd, from 2 until 5 p. m.

Treating the Hog Cholera.—Dr. G. Allen Jarman, of Chestertown, has treated a number of hogs the past few days with serum to prevent hog cholera. On Monday the fine pen of 200-pound hogs of Mr. Andrew Wilson, in upper Kent, were treated. The serum costs about $1.25 per large hog. Dr. Jarman received $75 worth of the medicine one day last week. It is said to be very successful as a preventative.

Two Champions.—The world series of baseball games, which will be played between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants, will be of especial interest to people of this section, as two Eastern Shore boys will play the same position on their respective teams. Frank Baker, of Trappe, Talbot county, is playing third base for the White Elephants and Charlie Herzog, of Ridgely, Caroline county, is holding down the hot corner for the McGrawites. It is believed that the Pennsylvania Railroad will run an excursion to Philadelphia during the time these two clubs are playing there.

Wedding Notes.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Sutton announce the marriage of their daughter, Florence May, to Mr. Walter Francis, on Wednesday evening, October 18, 1911.

At the home of J. Heston Atwell, Wilmington, on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, Alvin E. Atwell, son of John and Catharine Atwell, of Townsend, and Miss Carrie S. Stevens, daughter of Thos. L. and Jennie Stevens, of Clayton, were married by the Rev. W. G. Koons, pastor of Scott M. E. Church. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends. After a short wedding trip they will live at Townsend.

The rectory of Old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church was the scene of a wedding Wednesday, when Miss Margaret G. Warfield, of Baltimore, became the bride of Mr. Addison Emory, of Centreville, Md. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Arthur B. Kinsolving, rector of Old St. Paul's Church. The wedding was a quiet one, and only members of the immediate family were present. Mrs. Emory is the daughter of the late Samuel and Elizabeth Warfield, of Howard county. She is 50 years old, while Mr. Emory is 65. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Emory left for a short trip North. They will return in about two weeks and make their home at Centreville.

PASSWATER—DAVIS.

Miss Jennie Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Davis, of Worton, was married to Mr. Charles Passwater, Wednesday, Sept. 27, at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of William St. Ind. Methodist Church by Rev. Thomas Lowe.

The bride wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth with hat to match while the groom wore the conventional black. Miss Mabel Lentz, of Baltimore, was maid of honor while her brother, Mr. John W. Lentz, Jr., was best man. After the ceremony a reception was given by her sister, Mrs. Bennetta Lentz, 1241 Battery Ave., followed by a theatre party. Those being present were: Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lentz, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abey, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Moore, Miss Mabel Lentz, Anna Parsons, Nellie Young, Marcella Sewell, Ida Lentz, Mamie Clayton, Messrs. Charles Moore, Raymond Abey, John Lentz, Harry Lentz, Tom Parsons, Geo. Lentz, Roy Parsons, Charles Clayton, John Pennington.

Relief Association.—The meeting called on Sept. 19th, for the purpose of organizing a society called "The Town Relief," was held at the home of Mrs. G. C. Rote and the following officers elected:

President—Mrs. G. C. Rote;
Vice-pres.—Mrs. G. F. Clark;
Sect'y.—Miss Daisy O. Barnes;
Treas.—Miss Mayme Thompson.

It was moved and carried that five members were to constitute a quorum and that the officers constitute a committee to act in many instances when impossible to call a meeting. The Society is strictly non-denominational and independent of the churches. Its object is to help the poor of the town when needed. The regular meetings are to be held the first Tuesday of each month. The President was granted the privilege of calling a special meeting whenever needed. The yearly dues are to be 25 cents. The following are the members thus far:

Mrs. S. A. Copper, Mrs. W. B. Copper, Mrs. J. C. Davis, Mrs. G. F. Clark, Mrs. Hoffecker, Mrs. G. C. Rote Mrs. A. P. Matthews, Mrs. Ed. Newsoms, Mrs. Arthur Joiner, Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter, Mrs. James Parrott, Mrs. A. W. Carmine, Miss Daisy Barnes, Miss Rose Vickers, Miss Mayme Thompson, Miss Annie Copper, Miss Lillian Matthews, Miss Lizzie Davis, Mise Rebecca Davis, Mrs. Cahall, J. B. McIntire, Miss Marghuerite Dodd,

We want more members of all the churches.

A Fine Play.—Under the auspices of the St. Paul's Social and Dramatic Club the comedy "My Uncle From Japan" was well played to a large and appreciative audience at Rock Hall on September 28th. Mr. L. D. Northam as "My Uncle" took his part exceptionally well and was ably supported by Miss Violet Beck as Mrs. Tolman. Mr. Walter Kenly as Mr. Tolman, the hen-pecked husband, was splendid. Mrs. Rackett as portrayed by Miss Marguerite Blackiston, was professionally rendered, while Mr. Wm. G. Smyth as Captain Rackett was indeed fine, as he always is. Miss Lucille Blackiston showed marked ability as Katy, the maid. Mr. Ringgold Strong as waiter and Mr. T. B. Kilbourn as Mr. Dalroy, each took their parts well. The monologue "A Virginia Justice" by Mr. L. D. Northam kept the house in an uproar. The quartette, Messrs. Maslin, Warner, Davis, Coleman rendered some fine music, while the Maslin-Greenhawk sketch was funny beyond expression. The music by the Rock Hall orchestra was as usual, all that could be desired.

THE Fall season at Jefferson Bros. is in full swing. They have a splendid line of millinery. Miss Holston, of Frederick, an experienced milliner is assisting them.

Millington High School will hold a festival in the Millington Town Hall, on Friday and Saturday evenings, October 5th and 6th. A special feature for Saturday evening will be "The Country Store. All are cordially invited.

THE festival at St. John's Church, Rock Hall, will take place to-day. If weather is bad, will take place Monday.

THE St. Paul Social and Dramatic Club wish to thank all those who so kindly helped them with their entertainment Thursday night.
