Circular

Loyola College,
Baltimore, Md.,
Apr. 8th 1864.

Rev. & Dear Fr.

Whereas it has pleased God to call from this life Mr Andrew Carney of Boston; & whereas Mr. Carney, by most generous contributions, as well as by his influence, greatly relieved the pecuniary embarrassment of our Church & College in that city, Therefore, as a slight token of gratitude towards our liberal benefactor & pious friend, I hereby direct, that each Priest in our Province shall offer up two masses for the repose of his soul; and that each of those who are not Priests shall say two pairs of beads for the same intention.

Your Rev. will also inscribe in the book of benefactors the name of Mr A. Carney, as well as that of his estimable widow Mrs Pamelia Carney, that both may henceforth & forever have their share in the holy Sacrifices & prayers, which throughout the whole Society are offered up for our benefactors, whether living or dead.

This circular is to be read in the Refectory, & to be transcribed into the usual book.

Commending myself to your holy S.S.

I am,
Your Servt in X.t,
A. M. Varesce S.J.
