a quart. Veal and beef at six cents.—The weather is said to be far too cold for garden vegetation and young grain.

New Settlement—A steam-boat left Cincinnati for Louisville on the 21st ult. mo. with upwards of 36 passengers on board, citizens of Cincinnati, on their way to Harmony, Indiana, to join the establishment of Mr. Owen, who has lately purchased that village for the commencement of his system of civilization. "Shoemakers (says Zion's Advocate) have thrown by their awls, blacksmiths their anvils, and men of no occupation with those of mechanical and professional acquirements, have all mingled together to assist Mr. Owen, of Lenark, in establishing the means which are completely to overturn all former systems of society, whether under republican or monarchical governments—a system that is to be productive, if not to others, at least to themselves, of happiness, health, intelligence, virtue, and——WEALTH.

The following novel advertisement appears in the last Northern (Vermont) Spectator:

Take notice.—Whereas my son, Barnabas Russel, a boy in his seventeenth year, appears determined to take to himself a wife, without my consent or approbation; and he being destitute of the means of supporting a family, I hereby forbid the civil and ecclesiastical authorities, both in this state and in the state of New York, from joining him in marriage with any girl whatever. I further forbid all persons harbouring or trusting him on my account, or employing him, without notifying me of the same. JONATHAN RUSSEL.
Castleton, April, 24, 1825.

Enterprize.—An expedition to the interior provinces of Mexico, is about setting out from Huntsville, Alabama. We are told that the company is to be composed of 70 or 80 young and middle aged men, and that nearly that number is already raised, most of whom, from habit of experience, are well fitted to endure the fatigues and hardships incident to such a journey. About 80,000 dollars are already invested in dry goods which are to be transported to Santa Fe, their place of destination, and there exchanged for specie. The scheme is truly an enterprising one, and we wish the undertakers success, tantamount to the magnitude of the undertaking.

New York.—A correct idea of the advertising business of New York may be formed from the fact, that in seven days commencing on the 14th of April, and ending the 21st. eleven hundred and fifteen new advertisements were published in the New York Gazette. The extraordinary number of 213 new advertisements appeared in the New York Gazette of the 26th of April, and the Editors were obliged to postpone 23 more new ones that were offered.

Who reads an American Book? asks the editor of the Charleston Courier, and then by way of comment proceeds to state, that in a late number of the London Evening Mail, the semi-weekly issue of the Times, there appeared under the editorial head, four closely printed columns, taken, without any acknowledgement or reference whatever, from the work on Mexico, of our enlightened fellow citizen, Mr. Poinsett.

Desha.—The case of this person, and the difficulties and embarrassments relative to his trial, are well known to the public. In a late Kentucky Reporter, a letter is published, signed L. Baker, the brother of the deceased, from which we make the following extract:

"For my own part, having found the legislative, executive and the judicial branches of the government all wanting, and a state of anarchy in fact prevailing, it appears to me I have nothing left but an appeal to the people, believing there is virtue there, and that it is indicated by the verdict of a jury. Their Governor's son has deprived me of a brother, in a manner I shall never be able to think of without shuddering; and I must not cease to knock at their doors for justice, with confidence that they will frown into insignificance those unworthy servants of their creation, who have so basely betrayed the trusts reposed in them; and who have well nigh produced a state of things under which each one must of necessity avenge himself, or the next akin of him.

Young Napoleon.—A letter from a person of rank at Vienna, gives the following particulars relative to the Ex-King of Rome, who will be fourteen years of age on the 20th of next month. It is not true, as has been said, that his education is neglected, or merely such as would fit him for the ecclesiastical state. On the contrary, it is on a much more liberal plan, and more likely to render him a military character. Besides reading books of general instruction, great care is taken to perfect him in all manly and robust exercises. His countenance, though handsomer than that of his father, has still that character of expression.—His constitution is strong and his health uninterrupted; he possesses for his age, a rare degree of sagacity. The Emperor sees him frequently, and seems to take much delight in him; he indulges him in all his boyish fantasies. He has already, though so young, read the greater number of the memoirs relative to his father, but through a fineness of tact, extraordinary at his age, he never mentions the name of his father. Lately, the Emperor made him a present of a little Horse, which happened to resemble a favourite Arabian Horse of Napoleon's called Le Visir. The Emperor asked him what name he should give to his horse; "I wish to call him," said the child, with great animation, "Le Visir, because"—here he hesitated for a moment, and then added, "because somebody that I loved very much had a horse of the same name."

Murderers Convicted.—Three brothers by the name of Thayer, were a few days since found guilty of the murder of John Love, near Buffalo, N. Y. in December last. They subsequently confessed the crime and are condemned to be executed the 17th June. Love was an acquaintance and went home to spend the night with the Thayers, who had deliberately conspired his death. One of the brothers shot him through a window as he set by the fire, whilst another dispatched him with an axe. They then buried him not far from the house and divided the contents of his pocket-book. Afterwards, they forged a power of attorney to enable them to get hold of his property.—But "murder will out." The father of the Thayers is likewise in prison, not as an accomplice, but as an accessary after the fact.

Newspaper Borrowers.—One of the subscribers to a Connecticut newspaper, who has long been in the habit of furnishing his neighborhood with his papers, because they could'nt afford to take them, lately addressed his editor as follows:—Mr. BARBER—Please send me until further orders, six papers weekly, so that I may be able to serve five of my rich neighbors at once, and have one paper for myself.

From the Baltimore papers of 17th inst.

CREEK INDIANS.

Extract to the editor of the Baltimore Patriot dated Fayetteville, N. C. May 10.

General WILLIAM McINTOSH, the brave Indian warrior, was attacked and murdered at Aiken Bluff on the 30th ult. by hostile Creek Indians; the cause of this outrage was, his activity in forwarding the Indian treaty. His son Col. McIntosh, narrowly escaped with his life; from him I have just obtained the particulars. Himself in company with three other chiefs, departed this morning for Washington, to lay the affair before the government.

General Gaines and aid, (Col. Butler) passed through this place on Monday, for St. Augustine, for the purpose of reviewing the fortifications on the route.

From the Recorder of the 3d inst. published at Milledgeville, Geo. we copy the following:

"We stop the press to announce the distressing intelligence of the murder of the Indian Chief Gen. WM. McINTOSH, and the Chief of Cowetau, TUSTONNUGGEE TOMME, which was brought to the Governor yesterday evening by Chilly McIntosh, the General's son, and five Chiefs of the Nation, who made their escape from the massacre. The mischief was perpetrated last Saturday by a large body of Indians supposed to be four hundred, who attacked Gen. McIntosh in his own house, on the very day he had appointed to set off at the head of a mission to explore the country west of the Mississippi for the future residence of the nation. There is too much reason to fear, that white men were the instigators of this horrid butchery."

Mr. Secretary CLAY left Washington on Saturday week, on a visit to his family in Kentucky.

The merchants of France are endeavouring to push the French Cabinet, as the English have done theirs, by main force, into an acknowledgement of South American independence. Brokers and merchants have presented a memorial to the French monarch, stating that their property, to a vast amount, is not safe in South America without such recognition. This is speaking in language, very much like that of dictation, notwithstanding it is done in the form of humble remonstrance.

The consequences of the acknowledgement of the independence of South America are already apparent. We learn from Upper Hesse alone, of ten thousand persons preparing for emigration.

Cuba, Mexico and Colombia.—Don Vives, it is rumoured, is to be recalled from the government of the island of Cuba. Can the following intelligence from the Democratic Press have any bearing on this subject:

We have no doubt that whatever movements are made by Mexico, are in conjunction with Colombia; and we have reason to believe, that, for more than two years, those states have kept up an active correspondence, and had a perfect understanding with that portion of the people of Cuba who sigh after independence. Agents from Mexico and Colombia, have for three or four years, been traversing Cuba and had extensive and confidential intercourse with the people. We know also, that occasionally, influential inhabitants of Cuba, under cover of commercial business, have been at Colombia and Mexico, and had free and frequent intercourse and a good understanding with the governments of those states.—That all these measures and proceedings have been strongly suspected and provided against by the constituted authorities of the Island, we can readily believe—but of this we may be quite certain, that no positive information has been given by any of the parties concerned. If such a thing had happened, it would have been known. The fact is worth reverting to, as an evidence of the fidelity and union of the Independents in Cuba.

Emigration to Hayti.—A friend has put into our hands, a file of Port au Prince papers to the 17th ult. inclusive. In one of them we find an official publication dated the 12th of April, which states that after the 15th of June next, the government will not pay any expenses whatever for the passages, &c. of emigrants, of which all owners and masters of vessels are desired to take particular notice.

The Societies established in this country to promote the cause of emigration to Hayti, are also informed by this publication that the government will not, after the abovementioned date, allow any sum to assist in the transportation of emigrants who may wish to come to Hayti. They will only hereafter be allowed four months rations and pieces of land, of which they shall have the exclusive right after paying the proper value.

These measures have been adopted by the government, in consequence, as is said, of the base speculations which have been carried on, not only by some of the emigrants themselves, but also by foreign agents of vessels.—N. Y Gaz.

Minister to St. James.—The N. York Mercantile says:—We understand the Hon. Mr. KING, Minister to England, will embark from this city shortly in one of the Liverpool Packets. It is reported that he has engaged passage in the ship Pacific, which sails on the 1st of June.

Another turn out.—We understand that there has been a general turn out for higher wages among the journeymen cabinet makers in Baltimore; and that in some instances, the jobs in hand were left in an unfinished state in the workshops. The increase of wages demanded, we learn, is twenty-five per cent on the existing prices.

Married,

On Sunday evening last, by the Rev. D. Shean, Mr. Nathaniel Lock, of Baltimore, to Mrs. Mary Lane Reed, of Somerset county, Md.

Died,

On the 11th instant, after an illness of a few hours, at his late residence in Denton, Caroline county, (in the 44th year of his age,) George A. Smith, esq. late Register of Wills for said county. By the death of this valuable and worthy citizen, the public has sustained an irreparable loss. As a friend he was candid and sincere, as a husband affectionate and kind, as a parent mild and indulgent, as a citizen obedient to the law, and hospitable to the distressed, and as a public officer, he was firm in his integrity, stern in his duty, attentive to his business, and obliging to all. In short, most of the qualities necessary to render a man useful to society, were combined in this once valuable man. He has left a large circle of family connections to mourn his death, and a grateful public to regret their loss.

In Easton on Monday week, Samuel Harwood, in the 18th year of his age.

Suddenly on Monday week, at her residence near Chestertown, Mrs. Ariana, consort of Wm. R. Stewart, esq. President of the Senate of this State.

Worcester County Court, May Term, A. D. 1825.

Josiah Bayly, for the use of the President, Directors and Company of the Bank of Pennsylvania, complainant vs.

Severn E. Parker, & Catharine his wife, defendants.

The bill in this case states, that John G. Purnell being indebted to the President and Directors of the Farmers' Bank of Somerset and Worcester, in the sum of two thousand dollars with interest, on the 3d of August, 1814, by deed mortgaged to them, a tract of Land, called "Rochester" to secure the payment of the said sum of money and interest; that the complainant is entitled to the said mortgage land by purchase at a sheriff's sale, under a writ of fieri facias against the said Farmer's Bank of Somerset and Worcester: That the said John G. Purnell, by deed conveyed the said land to a certain Lemuel Purnell in fee: That the said Lemuel Purnell, by his will, devised the same land in fee to Catharine G. Purnell his sister, who was afterwards married to the said Severn E. Parker; that the said Severn E. Parker and Catharine his wife, the defendants, reside in Northampton county, in the commonwealth of Virginia, out of the jurisdiction of this court, and beyond the reach of the process of the courts of Maryland: That the whole of the said mortgage money, with interest, is still due and remains unsatisfied. The object of this bill is to obtain a decree of foreclosure of the equity of redemption in the said land, or of a sale thereof to satisfy the mortgage debt. It is thereupon this 10th day of May, 1825, by Worcester county Court, and by the authority thereof, ordered and adjudged that the complainant give notice of the substance and object of the bill, by advertisements inserted in the Cambridge Chronicle and the Federal Gazette in Baltimore, once in each week for three successive weeks, before the 11th day of July next, warning the said defendants to appear in Worcester county court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 14th day of November next, to show cause why a decree should not be passed as prayed by the said bill, otherwise it will be taken pro confesso.
