Mr. Irving. A Mr. Benson, who preaches in St. Giles' Church, is the fashion.—He is represented to be, in manner and style, a striking contrast to the Scottish apostle.

REVOLT IN CUBA.—By intelligence from Matanzas, it appears that about the 16th June, the negroes on several of the principal plantations in the Partido of St. Jose, about twenty miles from Matanzas, had revolted and murdered the proprietors thereof in the most shocking and cruel manner. Immediately on the receipt of this melancholy intelligence, the Governor despatched a large body of troops to quell them. It is added that they were pretty well subdued, after killing about sixty or seventy of them. The whole number collected was said to be about 300. They killed about fifteen or twenty whites, including one female, principally foreigners. Whole families were flocking into Matanzas for safety.

BUENOS AYRES.—A passenger on board the ship Hibernia, arrived last night from Buenos Ayres, states, that Gen Lavallija raised troops in Banda Oriental to the amount of 2000, and had been joined by Frutes Rivero, who had deserted from the Brazillian army.—Much consternation prevailed at Monte Video from the fear of an attack from this revolutionary party, who are not in any way connected with the government of Buenos Ayres. Markets for flour deplorably bad.—Balt. Amer.

KEY WEST.—The schooner Eutaw at New York, in six days from Matanzas reports that the sickness at that place had somewhat abated, the number of sick being reduced to about eighty.—The Constellation frigate had just arrived from Matanzas, all well. The U. S. sloop of war John Adams, and schooner Porpoise, where also at Key West, to sail in a day or two on a cruise. The officers and crew all well.

Letters from Dublin of the 21st May, in this city, state that such was the excitement throughout Ireland in consequence of the result of the Catholic question in the House of Lords, that the different mail coaches were dispatched with double guards, from the strong apprehension of disturbances.—Ib.

RIO JANEIRO.—The ship Phœbe Ann, captain Gardner, has arrived at New Bedford from Rio Janeiro, in 35 days passage. Captain G. states that six days previous to his sailing, a government brig, in 6 days from Montevideo, had arrived with despatches for the Brazillian Government, the purport of which was, that a revolt had taken place in that Province. The General who had assumed the command of the revolutionists, is the same that formerly commanded under Artegas; "he had planted his standard around Montevideo." The General commanding in the city, states that he has not 1000 men on whom he can depend. In consequence, the Emperor had laid an embargo at Rio, prohibiting the departure of all vessels bound to the south, and was embarking sixteen hundred troops for Montevideo.

A clergyman, named Augustus B. Reed, who is settled in Troy, Massachusetts, was a few days ago, subjected in 375 dollars damages, for breach of promise of marriage made to a young lady.—The defendant had pursued his theological studies with the plantiff's father, the Rev. Mr. Otis Thompson, of Rehoboth, during which he courted and promised her marriage. He has afterwards ordained; but instead of fulfilling his engagements with the plantiff, he married another lady, a member of his own congregation.
