TAILORING.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Cambridge and the public n general, that he has taken the shop, formerly occupied by J. Brown, in Race-street, near Mr. Ridgaway's tavern, where he is now prepared to carry on the

Tailoring Business

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS BRANCHES.

From his experience in the above business, he flatters himself that no person who may confide work to his care will be disappointed. He pledges himself to execute all orders in his line with dispatch, in the most elegant and fashionable style.—His attention to business and desire to give satisfaction, to all who employ him, will, he trusts, secure him a share of public patronage.

New and Late Fashions

Just received at Baltimore from London.

Mr. DEVENNISH,

TAKES the liberty to acquaint the citizens of Cambridge and the public generally, that he has removed to the house nearly opposite his old stand and next door to Mr. James W. Stewart's tavern, in the above named town, where he continues to carry on the TAILORING BUSINESS, in all its various branches. From his knowledge and experience in the above business, he pledges himself to execute their work with dispatch, IN THE MOST NEAT, FASHIONABLE AND ELEGANT STYLE. He hopes his devotion to business, and exertion to give general satisfaction, and having procured the latest fashions in Baltimore, which have been received in that city from London, will ensure him a continued hare of public patronage. may 28—tf

EDUCATION.

A SCHOOL was OPENED in New Market, on Monday the 8th of August, where are taught Geography, English Grammar, the Latin and Greek Languages, and all the branches of a liberal education, under the superintendance of T. DUFFY.

Forty Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber on the 16th inst. a Negro Girl, called KIT, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, stout made, dark complected, one glass eye, her clothes not recollected. She probably made for the Upper Camp Meeting on her way for the State of Delaware. Whoever apprehends said negro and delivers her to me, or secures her so that I get her, shall receive the above reward, if taken up out of this state, if taken up in this state, 30 dollars. THOMAS LUCAS,

Having removed to the shop next door to Dr. White's store, and opposite to Mr. Ridgaway's tavern,

Race-Street, Cambridge,

Takes this method of informing his old customers and the citizens generally, that he is prepared to execute all orders in his line, on moderate terms, with neatness and despatch. He will constantly keep on hand, materials of the first quality, and he flatters himself that the workmanship will bear comparison with any.—Those persons who may entrust him with their work may rely upon having it executed with fidelity.

TRUNKS, SADDLES, CAPS, and all kinds of HARNESS made and repaired at the shortest notice. tf

New Literary Institution.

The subscriber has established in Cambridge, a School of the first order. He has employed a teacher (Mr. Robt. B. Smith,) who has been for many years a successful instructor of youth, and whose testimonials for literary acquirement, and moral, as well as polite deportment, are derived from sources of the highest respectability.

The Latin, Greek, and French languages, Mathematics, and all the branches of an accomplished English education will be taught in this institution.

The subscriber has founded a sanguine hope of high gratification, from this costly undertaking, upon the exalted character of the gentleman whom he has employed, as well as upon the small number of pupils, which he will receive into it.

The terms of admission are 6 dollars and a half per quarter, for the classics and higher branches of Mathematics, and 5 dollars per quarter, for English and the minor branches.

The school will open on Monday the 12th of September, and 6 or 8 boys will be admitted by early application to
