ONICLE.

CAMBRIDGE:

SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1832.

☞ The Orphans' Court of this County will sit on Monday July 8th.

The Tariff Bill passed.—The Baltimore Patriot of Thursday, says, the House was in session late last evening on the Tariff Bill, when the time the Intelligencer was put to press. We learn, however, by the following endorsement upon the Washington Mail Way-Bill, (the stage having left after the adjournment,) that the "vexed question" has been settled. The endorsement is thus:

"The Tariff Bill has passed the House of Representatives by a majority of about forty votes."

It will now be taken up immediately in the Senate, and the U. S. Bank Bill in the House.

North Eastern Boundary.—The Portland Advertiser states that it had received intimations on which it could rely, of the refusal of the Senate to ratify the award of the King of Holland. The Portland Courier says that but eight members voted to accept the award.

Benjamin S. Forrest, Esq., of Montgomery county, has lately been appointed, by the Governor and Council, Agent to settle and adjust the claims of this state upon the General Government.

The Savannah Republican states, that a vessel arrived at Havanna on the 12th inst., from Omoa, with three commissioners for Guatamala, fully empowered to restore the Government of Central America to the King of Spain.

The Delaware Gazette, of the 22d inst., says:—"We understand that there is an unknown disease raging at an alarming rate in the western part of New-Castle county principally among children. In some instances two or three have been buried at the same time, out of one family.

A MASONIC CELEBRATION, by Cambridge Lodge, took place in this town on Saturday last, pursuant to notice. The weather was favorable, and the attendance of members of the craft quite general; whilst many other good folks from various sections of the county were duly on the spot to witness such of the ceremonies of the day as the uninitiated might. These, added to our townsmen, considerably thronged our streets, and the town wore an air of unusual liveliness. At 15 minutes past 10, A. M., the Fraternity quitted their Lodge room, and proceeded to the Methodist Meeting house, in the following order:

Music—(a Band from Baltimore)
Tyler, with drawn sword
Stewards, with white rods
Entered Apprentices
Fellow Crafts
Master Masons
Deacons
Secretary and Treasurer
Senior and Junior Warden
The Bible, Square and Compass, borne by an individual member
Chaplain and Orator of the Day
Past Masters
Master.

After the ceremonies at the Meeting House, which was completely crowded with ladies and gentlemen, and at which the Rev. Mr. Bell appropriately addressed the Throne of Grace, and William Browne, Esq., delivered an excellent Oration, (which we purpose publishing in our next,) the procession again formed and marched through the principal streets. The appearance of the members as they moved in procession was interesting—their neat uniformity of dress, their beautifully decorated aprons and rich sashes, their regalia of office and mystic emblems, their measured step and fraternal twine of the hand, the calm concern which they respectively seemed to feel, and the excellent order they maintained, were, altogether, decidedly imposing.

Subsequently, the brethren repaired to Mrs. Flint's tavern, and partook of a fine dinner specially served up for them. When, the cloth being removed, the annexed Toasts were offered and drunk, with demonstrations of approbation and of the flow of fellow-feeling, amidst hilarity and glee. The day passed we understand without the occurrence of any thing to mar or disturb the ceremonies or festivities of the occasion.

ONE DAY LATER FROM EUROPE.
RECALL OF EARL GREY.

The brig Sarah, Capt. Corner, from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 17th May, has arrived at New York. The editors of the Advocate have received the London Herald of the 16th May, and the Liverpool papers of the 17th. Although the re-appointment of Earl Grey and his colleagues is not officially announced, it is certain that it has taken place. The King had sent for his Lordship, and in consequence of this interview, adjournments were moved and agreed to, both in the House of Lords and Commons from the 16th to the 17th. It seems to be admitted on all sides, that the Duke of Wellington could not form an administration, although his efforts continued to the last. As late as the 15th, he and Lord Lyndhurst had audience with his Majesty. After which, Earl Grey was sent for, and empowered to re-establish his Ministry.

The excitement in the country had continued, and in Scotland it was exhibited by large meetings, at which the language corresponded with that formerly used at Birmingham and Manchester.

Two more tedious protocols have issued from the representatives of the allied sovereigns, one fixing the fate of the Belgian fortresses of Menin, Ath, Mons, Phillippeville and Marienbourg, which are ordered to be dismantled by the 31st December, 1833, at the expense of the contracting powers.

City—Tuesday evening.—The sole object of interest, the single absorbing topic of conversatien, with all classes in the city, is the state of the reform measure, and its consequences, suspended business, demand for gold, &c.

EXECUTION OF MINA.

The Philadelphia U. S. Gazette, of the 22d instant, says:—"Yesterday, about half past 9 o'clock, A. M., the culprit Mina was taken from his prison, in Doyleston, and conducted to the gallows. Very early in the morning Mina had a barber called, who shaved him, and dressed his hair in a fashionable style. He wore a handsome new black frock coat, black vest, and light pantaloons, and black hat. He walked with great composure to the gallows, where he remained more than an hour conversing with the sheriff, Mr. Morris, his council, Mr. M'Dowell, and a clergyman.

There was apparently no fear of death in the man, and he manifested scarcely less desire to appear at ease and stylish than if he were going to a ball room. At half past 11 A. M. the drop fell from under him, and Mina was launched into eternity.

It was thought that there were more than ten thousand persons present, among whom there was not the least disorder."

New Orleans, June 9.—CROPS.—We have information from sources the most respectable, conveying the unwelcome information that the Sugar crop this year will not yield half an ordinary crop. This failure is attributed to the very unprecedented drought for the last six weeks—operating more injuriously on the rattoon than cane of this year's planting.

MARRIED,

In this town, on Saturday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Bell, Mr. Hugh Lecompte, to Miss Leah Breerwood.

It is earnestly hoped they will be punctual in their attendance on this occasion, as it is proposed to submit to their consideration business of the utmost importance. June 30

BY HIS EXCELLENCY,
GEORGE HOWARD, Governor of Md.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is not only proper, but customary, for a people to humble themselves before Almighty GOD for the purpose of returning their thanks to Him for all mercies they enjoy, as well as to implore the continuation of his goodness. And whereas that dreadful scourge of nations, (the Cholera,) has appeared upon the borders of our country, and from natural causes, must be expected amongst us; and as mankind are too apt to ferget the Divine disposer of events in times of great prosperity, and as it is also natural for them to turn to Him in times of anticipated distress, we are at this time irresistibly drawn to seek succour from Him of whom only it can be effectually obtained. And whereas the approach of a day memorable in the annals of our country, presents a suitable occasion for us to return our thanks to the Almighty, for the great political liberty we have enjoyed, for all the mercies he has vouchsafed to us, as well as to offer up our prayers, for a continuance of the same, and that he may be graciously pleased to arrest or mitigate the threatened calamity.

Now, therefore, I, GEORGE HOWARD, Governor of the State of Maryland, have thought fit to issue this my PROCLAMATION, and do, hereby recommend to the people of this State that the 4TH DAY OF JULY next, be set apart for the purpose above mentioned; and I do further recommend to the Reverend Clergy throughout the State, to have this Proclamation read in their respective Churches, upon the Sabbath preceding the above mentioned day, and that they endeavor to impress upon the congregations committed to their charge, the propriety of observing the same.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland this twenty-fifth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and of the independence of the United States the fifty-sixth.

L. S.

By the Governor,
GEORGE HOWARD.

THOS. CULBRETH, Clerk of the Council.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY,

WHEREAS by an act of the last General Assembly of this State, passed at the last session, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled an act to reduce into one the several acts of Assembly, respecting Elections; and to regulate said Elections, the Governor is directed, (in the event of this state, on the new apportionment of Representatives, being entitled to but ten Electors,) so soon as the Congress of the U. S. shall have fixed the apportionment of Representation under the census last taken, of the people of the United States, to issue his Proclamation setting forth the number of Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States to which the state of Maryland, according to such apportionment, shall be entitled." And whereas I have received an authentic copy of an act of Congress of the United States fixing the apportionment of Representatives under the census aforesaid, by which it appears that this State will be entitled to but TEN Electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, under the said apportionment—Now, therefore, I GEORGE HOWARD, Governor of Maryland, do, by this my PROCLAMATION, declare and make known, that by the apportionment of Representatives, by the Congress of the U. States, under the late census, this state will, in the ensuing Election for President and Vice-President of the United States, be entitled to but TEN Electors:—to be elected as prescribed in and by the before recited supplementary act.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, this twenty-fifth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and of the Independence of the United States the fifty-sixth. L. S.

By the Governor,
GEORGE HOWARD.
