NEW GOODS.

THE subscriber has just returned from Philadelphia and Baltimore with a fresh supply of NEW GOODS, adapted to the present and approaching season, which he will sell at a small advance for cash, or such articles in exchange as may suit—and invites his friends to call and examine for themselves.

He returns his grateful acknowledgements to his friends and customers generally, for past favours, and especially to that portion of them who have been good enough to furnish him with the one thing needful—to them accommodation will be extended cheerfully—But to that portion of his customers, who have neglected the needful supply, no further accommodation can or will be extended—He is compelled to this determination from a conviction, that in most cases, a want of means has not been the reason for non-payment—and that calculations are made on his disposition to indulge. However grateful he may be for past favors, this cannot release him from the obligation he owes to himself and family.

SAM'L: LECOMPTE.

april 29 w

Clock and Watch Maker.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his customers and the public, that he has returned to Cambridge, and is now prepared to attend to the business of his profession, at the house adjoining Mrs. Bradshaw's tavern, lately occupied by Thomas H. Hicks, Esq. He also takes this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to the citizens of Dorchester, for the very liberal encouragement he has experienced since settling among them. Having during his absence supplied himself (at Philadelphia) with an assortment of materials of the first quality, he hopes by his attention to business, and the manner in which his work shall be done, to give general satisfaction, and merit a continuance of that patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed.

WM. A. MARTIN.

N. B. Clocks in the country will be attended to by applying as above.

aug 12 w

SOLOMON DEVENNISH, TAILOR.

Respectfully informs the public that he continues the TAILORING BUSINESS, at the shop next door above the Post Office, in the town of Cambridge. The long experience he has had in cutting, warrants him in assuring those who may favor him with their orders, that he will furnish them with workmanship equal to any in the city of Baltimore or elsewhere, and he trusts that his punctuality and moderate charges will merit for him a share of public patronage.

He has made arrangements with a gentleman in Baltimore to be regularly supplied with any change of fashions.

The house is in a pleasant and public part of the town, and presents inducements and advantages to those who are in pursuit of pleasure or business, not surpassed by any public house in the town.

MR. JEFFERSON'S NOTES ON VIRGINIA.

JOHN S. GALLAHER proposes to publish a new edition of this work. The design has been for some time entertained, and Mr. J.'s death rendering it probable that almost every family not already supplied with it (at least in Virginia) will be desirous to obtain and preserve the book as a memorial of the author, and as a proud vindication of our country against foreign slanders; the proposer is induced now to offer it. If, however, any of Mr. Jefferson's family should claim a property in it, he will cheerfully relinquish the design, and lend his humble aid towards its patronage.

There will be added to the work by way of appendix, several of Mr. Jefferson's letters, and, if properly patronized, it will be embellished with a fine portrait of that great man.

It will contain between 300 and 400 pages, 12mo. neatly bound in leather, & be delivered to subscribers at $1 25 per copy.

REGISTER OF DEBATES IN CONGRESS.

VOL. II.

This volume will contain—

1. A full report of the principal Debates and Incidents of the Session of Congress which has just closed, chronologically arranged.

2. An Appendix, containing a complete List of the Members of the two Houses, with the Presidents Message to Congress, and other leading State Papers.

3. A complete copy of the whole body of the laws passed during the session.

4 A copious Index to all the matters contained in the volume.

The volume for this year will contain double the matter of the volume of last year, but will be offered to subscribers at the low price of five dollars. The number of extra large brevier pages which it will contain, is expected to exceed a thousand.

We shall not undertake to magnify the importance of a work of this description. We are more than content with the verdict which public opinion has passed upon the first volume. We will only add, that the second volume shall exceed the first, in typographical execution as well as arrangement, an entirely new type having been procured expressly for it. GALES & SEATON.
