CAMBRIDGE:

SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1834.

☞The Orphans' Court of this county will sit on Monday, 6th January.

The General Assembly of this State met on Monday last, a quorum appearing in both Houses; and on Tuesday each branch organized. In the Senate, B. S. Forrest was chosen President, and J. H. Nicholson, Clerk; and the other offices, generally, if not without an exception, are also respectively filled by those who held them last year.

In the House of Delegates, Thomas Wright, 3d, of Queen Ann's, was elected Speaker, by a majority of two—he having received 40 votes, and Hugh Ely, 38. [Mr. W. is understood to be a Jackson-Van Buren man; while his opponent, though a Jacksonian, is not quite so ultra.] Louis Gassaway, was chosen Chief Clerk, by a majority of four votes, over Mr. Brewer, the former incumbent. The names of the Committee Clerks, &c. &c. of the House, will be found in subsequent paragraphs, as will also, a more detailed account of the proceedings of the Legislature.

Edward P. C. Wilson, Esq., of Somerset, has been chosen by the Senate of this State, to fill the vacancy occasioned in that body by the resignation of the Hon. L. P. Dennis.

THE LEGISLATURE.

[We were fortunate enough to receive last afternoon, the journal of the House of Delegates for the three first days of the session; and are indebted for it to the polite attention of Dr. Martin, of Worcester, who had just arrived here from Annapolis. We are thus enabled to throw together and give below the substance of the journal for those days; or, rather, the substance of those parts of it which ould be likely to interest our readers.]

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Monday, Dec. 30, 1833.

This being the day appointed by the constitution and form of government for the meeting of the General Assembly of this State, seventy-six Delegates appeared and qualified, and then adjourned until the next day.

Tuesday, Dec. 31.

Every member was in attendance—the four absent the previous day appearing, as well as the seventy-six then present.

The House proceeded to ballot for a Speaker. Thomas Wright, 3d, Esq., of Queen Ann's received forty votes, and Hugh Ely, Esq., of Baltimore county, thirty-eight. Mr. Wright, of course, was declared duly elected, and took the chair.

For Chief Clerk, Louis Gassaway received forty-one votes, and George G. Brewer, (the late Clerk,) thirty-seven. Mr. G. was accordingly declared duly elected Chief Clerk, and qualified as such.

For Assistant Clerk, George W. Sharp received forty-one votes, and S. H. Taggart, thirty-nine. The former was consequently elected and qualified.

The House then proceeded to ballot for five Committee Clerks, (two of whom to be taken from the Western and three from the Eastern Shore.) And Thomas Johns and William B. Dorsey, for the Western Shore, and Levin Jones, Robert B. A. Tate and Henry Gale, for the Eastern Shore, were elected—and they severally qualified.

On motion of Mr. Sothoron, it was ordered that Gotleb I. Grammer, be appointed Serjeant-at-Arms, and John Quinn, Door-Keeper to the House for the present session—And they qualified as such.

A Message was received from the Senate, informing the House that that body had organized and was ready to proceed with the business of the session. Whereupon, as usual, the House similarly advised the Senate of its organization and readiness also to proceed to business. Each House proposed to sit from 10 A. M. until 3 P. M.

Wednesday, January 1, 1834.

Mr. Jones, of Somerset presented a petition of sundry citizens of Somerset county, praying for an additional election district in said county;

Read and referred to Messrs. Jones of Somerset, Long and Hyland.

Mr. Palmer obtained leave to bring in a bill to extend the powers of the court of Chancery, and the county courts as courts of equity;

Mr. Fassitt obtained leave to bring in a bill to be entitled, An act to change the manner of electing the Senate of Maryland;

Mr. Palmer obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, An act to alter and change the manner of electing the Governor of this state;

Mr. Wharton obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, An act to prevent the vending of medicines in this state, by any other than regularly established and licensed apothecaries;

Mr. Handy obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, An act concerning guardians and wards;

Mr. Berry obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, An act to abolish the Executive Council of Maryland;

Mr. Sifford obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, An act altering the present manner of electing Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States;

Mr. Ely, submitted the following order, which was read and adopted.

Ordered, That a committee of seven be appointed by the chair to take into consideration the present constitution of Maryland, what parts thereof should be abolished, and what improvements and amendments ought to be made therein, and report to this house by bill or otherwise.

The Governor and Council are to be elected next week—the former on Monday, and the latter on Tuesday. The occasion will call forth all the energies of the two leading parties in the Legislature, and fairly test their relative strength. Both are well marshalled, both entertain hopes of success and both will do their utmost to triumph. The result will of course be looked for with much interest.

We believe the Steam-Boat had not arrived at one o'clock last night, when this paper was put to press: But—the deuce take Morpheus—we could not satisfactorily ascertain the fact from any one passing in the street at the time.

All Lotteries are now abolished in the States of Pennsylvania and New York. The sale of tickets as well as the drawing of lotteries has been prohibited from and after the 1st instant, in both those States.

The steam-boat Missourian, while on her passage from St. Louis to New Orleans, collapsed one of her flues, on the 4th ult., by which accident fifteen persons were badly scalded, seven of whom have since died.

The Hagerstown Torch Light of the 26th ult., notices the fall of wheat on the preceding Thursday, from 97 to 85 cents, and again on a subsequent day, from 85 to 80 cents; and states it to be "in consequence of the scarcity of money, produced by the President's attack on the United States Bank, and not from any want of demand in the market." We pretend not to say whether these fluctuations are in fact the effect of the cause alleged by the Torch Light; but it is clear that a pressure in the money market is beginning to be sorely felt in Baltimore, as it has been in Philadelphia and New York, and it is, we beileve, generally admitted or thought to be the consequence of the course of the federal executive in regard to the Bank. We have understood, that, already, from fifteen to thirty per centum has been given, and may be had in Baltimore on deposites. There is too much reason to apprehend that the pressure will spread until it pervades the whole country, and increase until it becomes formidable and disastrous.

A man has been arrested and is now in Cecil County jail, under suspicion of being the person who perpetrated the violation and murder of a Miss Cunningham, several years ago, in that county. The Port Deposite Courant says that the circumstances which led to his arrest were developed in a very singular manner, and are calculated to fix a strong suspicion on the unhappy individual who stands charged with the crime. He has, for several years, been a resident of that county, and lately of the town of Port Deposite. At the time of the murder, he lived in the immediate neighborhood of the spot where the act was committed.

Judge Porter was on the 13th ult. elected Senator in Congress from the State of Louisiana, by a majority of two votes. The election was to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of Josiah S. Johnston, and the term will expire in 1837.

The House of Representatives of Ohio have passed a resolution disapproving of the Military Academy at West Point, as at present organized.

The Merchants of New York have pubchased for the Government, ten feet of ground adjoining the site for the New Custom House, in that city. They gave $20,000 for the ten feet.

The meteoric phenomenon, observed here in November, was also seen under like circumstances at Jamaica.

FROM LIBERIA.

By a late arrival we have received a file of the Liberia Herald from which we learn, with regret, the decease of Francis Devany, Esq. on the 11th September. He was a colored man—orig inally a slave, belonging to Langdon Cheves, Esq. of Charleston, S. C.—emigrated to Liberia at an early period of its settlement. For many years past he has been engaged in commerce, and had accumulated a handsome fortune by his industry, perseverance and enterprise, when his earthly career was arrested in the thirty-sixth year of his age. His disorder was consumption—and Liberia will have occasion to regret, in him, the loss of one of its most valuable citizens. He held, for some time, the office of High Sheriff of the Colony, and in the various relations of life sustained and deserved the reputation of an honest and honorable man. When in this country, a few years ago, he bore evidence, before a committee of the Congress of the United States, to the favorable prospects afforded to emigrants by the Liberia settlement.

A Challenge.—We learn from the Boston Centinel that a match to walk the distance of three thousand miles, has been entered into by a gentleman of Georgia, and the celebrated walker and water drinker, Col. Haskett. The match will "come off" on the first of June, over the road between Taunton and Boston. The challenger is to eat per day, as a minimum allowance, 1 lb. beef, 1 lb. bread, and to drink 3 glasses of 4th proof brandy, and a half pint Madeira. The parties are to be on the road on that day, or half forfeit. The challenger set forth the bet at $5000 to $20,000, but the money matters are to be adjusted in Carolina. The Col. is to eat per day his old allowance of bread and water. We shall have an opportunity of seeing the relative virtue of the bread and water, and beef and rum systems."

Liability of Partners.—It has been ruled by one of the New York Circuit Judges, that the endorsement of the name of the firm upon a promissary note, by one of the firm, in a negotiation not connected with the partnership business, is not binding on the firm, unless the express knowledge and assent of the other members of the firm is proved, or such strong circumstantial evidence given as to justify the jury in presuming express assent. The plaintiffs were non-suited, because they could not show such assent.

The manufacture of Salt, by solar evaporation, is about to be entered into at Key West, on a large scale. Owing to the favorable position of the Island, the process can be continued throughout the year, without interruption.

A New York paper says:—The long expected work, the "History of the Hartford Convention," as we are apprised by a morning paper, is for sale at Appleton's No. 182 Broadway. The subject of which it treats is of great public interest.

A Mobile paper received from Tuscaloosa some public documents, and without close examination published one of them as new. It turns out to be the last year's Bank report.

A Spanish Benedictine Monk, at the Convent of Sahagum, in Spain, named Pedro, who died in 1584, is the first person who is recorded to have instructed the deaf and dumb.

Franklin Coffee House, S. Calvert street, Baltimore.—Some weeks since the editors of the National Intelligencer and Alexandria Gazette discussed the relative excellencies of their market, and discoursed so tastily on the superior qualities of the substantials and delicacies afforded in each, that we almost fancied ourselves within scent of the savoury dishes. We might, indeed, have been induced to constitute ourselves arbiter of the dispute, and insist on having the requisite documents laid on the table, had we not luckily been attracted to the Franklin Coffee House yesterday, where we saw what we are sure would make our brothers of the District ashamed of their brag. There were a fine fat buck and doe suspended (different from what some politicians should be) by the legs, and wild and tame fowls without number, similarly slung. From the slight inspection we gave his larder, we are convinced that Mr. Elder is an older hand at providing than we imagined—for he appears to have "all things in season, both woodcock and pheasant," and if he do not give to customers a long life, he will at least afford them a merry one. He has not only all the substantials and delicacies, of which our District friends speak with such pride, but he has a room ninety feet long to munch them in, and a new machine which will send them under your nose in all their fragrant eloquence.

If we may act as umpire between our District friends, we shall decide, that their markets are both good, but that our's is better—and if they refuse to receive this decision, we are willing to hear further argument at the Franklin Coffee House.—Chron-

OBITUARY.

Departed this life, near Cambridge, on Monday, Dec. 23d, after a short and afflicting illness, Sarah Louisa, eldest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Tall.

The fairest form, the brightest eye,
Must lose their lustre, by and by.

"Pale death indiscriminately enters the palaces of kings, as well as the hovels of the poor." A few weeks only, since we saw her, the subject of these lines, in the bloom of youth and health; all gay and cheerful were the hours she passed with us, till the period arrived she thought of returning home. Her departure was both sad and joyous—sad to leave her old acquaintances and friends, yet joyous in anticipating the sight of mother, sister and brothers. She spent some weeks in our little seaport, and while there, was all animation—Ah! little did we think, when we bid adieu, it would be forever on this earth. Alas! thou art gone, far, far from the world of disquietude, to rest in happier climes. Friends afar weep for the loss.—Friends around the clay-cold corse, pour out their effusions of woe. E. M.

In Chancery,

18th December, 1833.

Achsah Goldsborough and others, vs. Angelina Robinson and others.

THE object of this bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of certain real estate of which Richard Goldsborough, late of Dorchester county, died seized, the same being too small for division.

The bill states that the said Richard Goldsborough died intestate, seized in fee and possessed of a small parcel of land, lying and being in Dorchester county, and leaving the complainants therein named, and the following persons, his heirs at law: that is to say:—Angelina Robinson, Richard A. Robinson, Goldsborough Robinson, Priscilla Robinson, Achsah Robinson, Mayill Robinson, William Mead Robinson, John McHenry Robinson, children of Catherine W. Robinson, and Maria C. Goldsborough, heir at law of Richard Y. Goldsborough, and that the said children of Catherine W. Robinson, reside out of the State of Maryland. It is thereupon ordered that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper in Dorchester county, once in each of three successive weeks before the 25th day of January next, give notice to the said absent defendants to be and appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, before the 23d day of May next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

PROSPECTUS.

Parley's Magazine

FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH.

THE design of the publishers, in this Magazine, is to offer to the public an entertaining work for children and youth; one that may become with them a favorite; one that will please and instruct them; one that they will regard not as a thing which they must read as a task, but which they will love to consult as a companion and friend; one, in short, the reading of which may be permitted to good children as a reward, but the denial of which may be felt as a punishment by those who are bad. It will consist chiefly of matters of fact, and the editors will endeavor to present truth and knowledge in a guise, as attractive to the youthful mind, as that in which fiction has generally been arrayed.

The title of the work is chosen, as an indication of what it is intended shall be its character. The style which the author of Peter Parley's Tales has chosen as a vehicle of instruction for youth, will be adopted in its pages, and Peter Parley, in his proper character of story teller and traveller, will often appear as a contributor. The work will comprise pieces adapted to all stages of the youthful faculties from childhood upwards. It may thus pass from hand to hand in the family circle, and the parents will not disdain to find amusement in what they are called upon to explain to their children; while the elder branches will be induced to try to lead on, by easy steps, their still younger companions to that enjoyment which they have already experienced themselves.

The contents of the work will be too various to be enumerated in this place; but in order to convey some idea of the intentions of the conductors, the following may be mentioned as forming a portion of the more prominent subjects.

I. Geographical Descriptions, of manners, customs, and countries.—II. Travels, Voyages, and Adventures, in various parts of the world.—III. Interesting Historical Notices and Anecdotes of each State, and of the United States, as well as of foreign countries.—IV. Biopraphy, particularly of young persons.——V. Natural History, as birds, beasts, fishes, &c.; as well as plants, trees, flowers, &c.—VI. A familiar description of the Objects that daily surround Children in the Parlor Nursery, Garden, &c.—VII. Original Tales, consisting of Home Scenes, Stories of Adventure, &c., calculated to stimulate the curiosity, exercise the affections, and improve the judgment.—VIII. An account of various trades and pursuits, and some branches of commerce.—IX. Cheerful and pleasing Rhymes, adapted to the feelings and comprehension of youth.

CONDITIONS.

The work will be issued every other Saturday, and 26 numbers will constitute the yearly volume. The price will be One Dollar a year, payable in advance.

To all who take six or more copies, a reasonable discount will be made.

LILLY, WAIT & CO.

Notice.

THE undersigned are desirous of purchasing from 40 to 50 negroes, for the use of their plantation in Louisiana. They would be preferred in families, and as many from the same plantation as possible. Persons having servants to dispose of, will receive fair cash prices, and satisfactory evidence that they are intended for our own use and that they will not be separated, by applying to us through the Post Office at Easton.
