The diver dies without air to breathe. The consumptive dies without lungs to breathe the air, or of lungs rendered incapable of breathing by disease. The blood as it flows in and out of the lungs indicates the consumptive's progress. As the lungs grow weaker less oxygen is inhaled and the blood changes from scarlet to purple. Oxygen is the life of the blood as the blood is the life of the body.

The effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery upon weak lungs is to strengthen them, to enable the full oxygenation of the blood, arrest the progress of disease, and heal the inflamed tissues. Lung diseases have been and are being cured by "Golden Medical Discovery," in cases where deep-seated cough, frequent hemorrhage, emaciation, weakness, and night-sweats have all pointed to a fatal termination by consumption.

"Some years ago I was almost a helpless victim of that dread disease—consumption," writes Mr. Chas. Fross, P. M., of Sitka, White Co., Ind. "I was confined to my room for several months; my friends and neighbors had given up all hope of my recovery, until one day a friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and after I had taken the contents of the second bottle I began to improve. After taking six bottles I was, I honestly believe, delivered from the grave and entirely cured. I am now a strong and hearty man."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

UP-TO-DATE CATECHISM.

Q—What is the chief end of man?

A.—To get a living.

Q.—What do you understand by a living?

A.—Millions of dollars.

Q.—How shall these be obtained?

A.—If a man is not born to millions and can't marry them, he must make them by hook or by crook. If a girl is not born to them, she must marry them

Q.—What is the value of money?

A.—It is more precious than the souls of men.

Q.—By what rule should we govern our lives?

A.—The golden rule.

Q.—Will you repeat it?

A.—Do unto yourself whatsoever you would have others do unto you."

Q.—What should be our morning prayer?

A.—"Keep me this day from making a fool of myself."

Q.—What beautiful quality should be manifest in all the dealings of men?

A.—Unselfishness.

Q.—Define it, please.

A.—Unselfishness is that which we have a right to expect from others.

Q.—Should international marriages be encouraged?

A.—By all possible means.

Q.—What rule should govern these marriages?

A.—If you have a fat purse and no title, look for a title; if a title and no purse, look for a fat purse; if you have neither, don't look for either.

Q.—What can you say of a stylish woman?

A.—Her price is above rubies

Q.—How do men rate style?

A.—As something more to be desired than virtue.

Q.—What do we understand by the divine command that we have charity, one toward another?

A.—The posession of that kindly spirit which prevents our coming down too hard on the other, because we remember having done the same thing ourselves.

Q.—What is recorded of the successful?

A.—They shall be in everlasting remembrance.

Q.—What is required by those who would succeed in life?

A.—Absolute belief in one's infallibility; no consideration for others, and no act to a stranger that can be mistaken for courtesy.

Q.—Is gentle breeding a bar to success?

A.—Unquestionably.

Q.—Explain this, please.

A.—In a woman it is considered designing; in a man, improper.

Q.—Against what insidious vice should we constantly guard ourselves?

A.—The safety-pin habit—Chicago Record-Herald.

ROUND ABOUT MARYLAND.

The Port Deposit Press, referring to a recent society incident of more or less importance, says: "King Edward has been crowned king." Well, what should he have been crowned?

King Edward may now rest secure in the assurance that it was all properly done, for the Cumberland News says: "It was a very creditable coronation, in spite of the postponement."

The Cumberland Times says: "When Roosevelt was simply 'Teddy' he did so and so." Well, as Diogenes, or Mark Hanna, or somebody else said, tempus certainly does get up and fugit.

The Talbot Times wants to know whether the Easton Gazette "does its blackguarding with hope of reward or from pure cussedness." Really, conditions in Easton begin to warrant calling out the militia.

The Laurel Democrat, referring to a local trouble for investigation, concludes: "We call the attention of Gov. John Walter Smith to the matter." Aw! g'wan, now, and let Governor Smith alone. Can't you see he's busy?

The Ellicott City Times says: "Senator Platt is credited with dubbing the President 'His Strenuosity.'" Let us see—wasn't it Senator Platt who said a yellow dog could be elected Governor of New York this year?

The Hagerstown Mail has this bright bit of editorial fancy: "The surgeons have removed another bit of Genera Funston's anatomy. At this rate it will not take very long to whittle the little man down to a finish."

The Ellicott City Democrat says: "A New York woman admits that her husband has a right to spank her; but we'll bet he doesn't dare try to exereise the right." That's possible; the gentleman may be a left-handed genius.

THE MAN WHO DID.

All doctors in my town failed to relieve me of rheumatism. I have used about half a bottle of Nelaton and feel so much improved, that while I may not need it, I enclose P. O. order for $1 for one more bottle of the remedy that has been such a God-send to me. I cheerfully recommend Nelaton to anyone suffering with rheumatism.

ONCE IS ENOUGH TO SEE

Gustave Dore's portrait of Dante is worth seeing—once. But once is enough. Some such look you notice on the faces of those who have suffered, and still suffer, much physical pain; people subject to rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, periodic headache, lumbago, or pain from some old lesion. This pain-habit puts its marks on them, as the custom of handling ropes crooks a sailor's fingers; or as too much riding of a bicycle stamps a worried expression on certain faces. No wonder people said of the Italian poet as he passed along, "There goes

THE MAN WHO NEVER LAUGHS."

The complaints above named all yield to the action of Benson's Porous Plasters, and quickly too. Not only those, but colds and coughs, kidney and liver affections, all congestions and muscular strains, diseases of the chest, asthma and all ailments which are open to external treatment. It is frequently said that Benson's Plaster is Pain's Master. It cures when others are not even able to relieve. For thirty years the leading external remedy. The old-style plasters, as well as salves, liniments, oils, etc., have little or no efficacy as compared with it. Use it. Trust it. Keep it in the house. Ask for Benson's Plaster; take no other. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.
