CAMBRIDGE:

SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1835.

The French question.—The House of Representatives was engaged in arduous debate on the question of our relations with France, from 10 o'clock, on Monday morning, the 2d, until midnight. The result of the day's proceedings is gratifying. It was the unanimous adoption of Mr. Adams' resolution, modified, as follows:—

"Resolved, That, in the opinion of this House, the Treaty with France of the 4th of July, 1831, should be maintained, and its execution insisted upon."

A resolution reported by the Committee on Foreign Relations, to discharge that Committee from the further consideration of the subject, was also unanimously adopted.

And a resolution from the same Committee "That contingent preparation ought to be made to meet any emergency growing out of our relations with France," being ordered to lie on the table, the proceedings ended, and the House adjourned.

There were two hundred and ten members present, when the vote was taken on Mr. Adams' resolution. The Intelligencer says:—

The annunciation of this vote from the Chair was received with a loud and spontaneous burst of applause, which broke at once from the galleries, and was re-echoed from the floor, making the walls and dome of the chamber to resound with joy, while mutual congratulations passed in all directions.

France and the United States.—The Foreign news which we give to-day, the latest that has reached us, is not calculated to augment our hope that the difficulty between France and this country will be amicably adjusted. All, however, it is believed, will yet be well—The reception in France of the report of the Senate's Committee on the subject of this difficulty, and the unanimous vote by which that report was adopted by the Senate, will doubtless operate very beneficially, and soften the tone of the most violent of the opponents of the indemnity bill.

Since the above was placed in type, Paris advices to the 31st January, have reached us, through the papers of last evening's Steam Boat mail. The intelligence in relation to our affairs with France, though rather vague and unsatisfactory, wears a favorable complexion.

They had a grand Fancy Ball, at the Front street Theatre, Baltimore, on the 3d instant, probably the most splendid affair of the sort ever got up in that city. The number of persons present is estimated to have exceeded three thousand. They are raising there (as they are in some of the other principal cities,) a fund for the relief of disabled firemen and the indigent widows of firemen; and this ball was adopted as one of the means to promote the laudable purpose.

A similar ball, we observe, was to be held on the 11th, in aid of the school fund for the education of indigent children of deceased members of the Society of Odd Fellows. The Chronicle says, this Society has now about one hundred children dependent upon it for education.

Presentation of Swords.—On the 26th ult. Gov. Thomas presented, in the Senate Chamber, to Gen. Towson of the Army, and Capt. Gallagher, of the Navy, the swords which the Legislature of Maryland had directed to be prepared and delivered to them, as a testimony of the high sense entertained by their native State of their conduct and services during the late war with Great Britain.

The Hon. Edward Everett, has been nominated by the Anti-Masons and Whigs as a candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the election of Gov. Davis to the U. S. Senate.

Two papers, "The Appeal" and "The Sun," have been lately commenced at Washington, with the view to advance the claims of the Hon. Hugh L. White, of Tennessee, to the Presidency. They contain extracts from many papers in different parts of the Union, which speak in terms of high commendation of Judge White. The Judge is now fairly in the field, and is likely to be a very formidable candidate. He is, as the reader knows, a Jackson man, and has uniformly supported all the leading measures of the administration.

On the 28th, Gales & Seaton, were elected, on the 17th ballot, printers to the Senate. That ballot was, for Gales & Seaton, 27; Blair & Rives, 14; Duff Green, 3; scattering 2.

Four men were killed, and three or four others seriously injured, in Baltimore, on the night of the 25th, by the falling of a wall, at a fire at the corner of Howard and Saratoga streets. The deceased were firemen, and were buried with the pomp and ceremony of public benefactors.

The price of wood, at Philadelphia, on the 4th instant, was from 8 to $10 per cord.

The Steam-boat Kentucky was sold at public sale, in Baltimore, on the 5th instant, for $45,100—about one half her original cost.

MARRIED

On Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. J. L. Lenhart, Mr. James Straughn, to Miss Eliza Ann Willis—all of this place.

DIED,

On last Saturday night, Mrs. Ellen R. censort of J. W. Crisfield, Esq. of Princess Anne.

Communicated.

Died at his residence, in New Market, on Tuesday the 3d inst, Stephen Lecompte, of L, aged 38 years. The manner in which he passed his life, was unsuited to the display of those qualities that demand our admiration; but it is in the shade of retirement where all the gentler virtues, germinate—are nourished and matured: where integrity, benevolence, hospitality and affability find a congenial soil. That the deceased was honorable in his dealings, that his house was the home of orphans, that his friends were welcomed to his table and that he was sociable and condescending, none to whom he was known need be told.

He was endowed by nature with much of that wisdom which it is the highest aim of Philosophy to teach. He lived to see all his children, to whom he was fondly attached sink into their graves; yet he bore it with resignattion. His cheerfulness seldom forsook him, tho' his life was but a "long disease;" and he died with all the manly calmness that became one who had lived with honor.

I knew and esteemed him living, and I offer to his memory this last mournful tribute of affection. S. F.

Young Rat is a beautiful chesnut sorrel, six years old, got by Wilson's Rat out of a citizen mare; she by old Citizen, out of a Voigt-un mare. Citizen was got by Yorrick, his dam by Silver Legs; his grand dam was bred by Col Hodson of Yorkshire, and was got by Cab, son of old Fox; and the Warlike Gallaway, her dam, by Tersemond, son of Bolton Sterling, and Young Cady's dam; her grand dam by a Brother to Snip; her great grand dam by Mogull, brother to Babram; her g. g. grand dam by Sweepstakes, sire to the dam of Whistle Jacket; her g. g. grand dam by Bay Bolton, and sister to Stover; her g. g. g. g. grand dam by Curvin's bay Balbe. THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazines in the English Press, has led to preparations for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work honorable to its title, and acceptable to the American people.

He must, however, do so—duty to himself demands it—as he has but lately suffered by paying the money a grain without taking the receipt of deposite fraudulent advantage having been taken of his neglect in this respect.*

All persons (if any) having claims against the subscriber, are requested to come forward and exhibit them, as he is ready to pay all just demands. And all those indebted to him on open account, are advised that, unless they make payment on or before the first day of April next, they may expect their accounts will immediately thereafter be placed in the hands of officers for collection.

SECOND YEAR OF

Parley's Magazine.

THE unexampled success of this juvenile Work, which now circulates into every State and Territory of the Union, has encouraged the publishers to renewed exertions in making it all that judicious parents could reasonably expect for the amusement and instruction of youth.

It is important to remark, that this Magazine has become a great favorite in schools, and that judicious parents and teachers have discovered that its interesting matter, its spirited and appropriate engravings, its entire novelty, added to the circumstance of its coming every fortnight fresh from the press, in convenient and beautiful numbers, have all conspired to render it unusually attractive to young readers. It is read with avidity and pleasure; and the object of school education, so far as it relates to reading understandingly, acquiring at the same time valuable portions of knowledge, and an enduring taste for reading, is better accomplished by this interesting periodical, than by any means hitherto attempted.

There are now schools in every part of the country that take some twenty, some thirty, some forty, and some as many as sixty six copies of this Magazine; and the teachers, one and all, recommend its use and importance in the most unequivocal manner, and are exerting themselves to increase its circulation.

To such as are yet unacquainted with "Parley's Magazine," we would state some of the interesting topics that it presents.

I. NATURAL HISTORY—Of beasts, birds, fishes, reptiles, insects; plants, flowers, trees; the human frame, &c.

II. BIOGRAPHY—Especially of the young.

III. GEOGRAPHY—Accounts of places, manners, customs, &c.

IV. TRAVELS AND VOYAGES, in various parts of the world.

V. Lively Descriptions of the Curiosities of Nature and Art,—in each of the U. States and in other countries.

VI. LESSONS on objects that daily surround children in the Parlor, Nursery, Garden, &c.

VII. PARTICULAR DUTIES of the Young—to Parents, Teachers, Brothers, Sisters, &c.

VIII. BIBLE LESSONS and STORIES.

IX. NARRATIVES—Such as are well authenticated; Original Tales.

X. PARABLES, FABLES and PROVERBS, where the moral is obvious and excellent.

XI. POETRY—Adapted to the youthful capacity and feelings.

XII. INTELLIGENCE—Embracing Accounts of Juvenile Books, Societies and Remarkable Occurrences.

Many of the above subjects are illustrated by numerous and beautiful ENGRAVINGS, tprepared by the best Artists, and selected not only with a view to adorn the work, but to improve the taste, cultivate the mind, and raise the affections of the young to appropriate and worthy objects. We would make them better children, better brothers, better sisters, better pupils, better associates, and, in the end, better citizens.

This Magazine comes out every other Saturday, and is sent to every part of the U. States, by mail. Price, One Dollar a year, in advance.—6 copies for $5; twenty copies for $15; or twenty-five quarterly parts for $5. Postage, three-quarters of a cent, if under 100 miles; one cent and a quarter only for the greatest distance.
