"SALUS POPULI SUPREMA EST LEX."

DAVID P. HOGE--EDITOR.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 4, 1837.

☞The Orphans' Court of this county sit on Tuesday, 14th inst.

The alterations proposed to be made in Constitution of Maryland relative principally to the mode of electing the Governor and members of the Senate. If the Bill which has been reported should pass, and be firmed at the next session of the Gen Assembly, it will then be a part of the damental law of Maryland. This Bill poses that the Governor be elected by people for a term of three years, alternate from the Eastern and Western Shores—the Council be abolished, and a Secretary State be substituted in its place—that county shall send one Senator, and that principle of representation in the House Delegates be altered, so as to give a great number of representatives to the larger ties and to Baltimore city. Dorchester w continue to send four. Other changes proposed, or will be attempted.

The conduct of the great expunger on floor of the U. S. Senate, on the occasion the obliteration of the Journal of that bo is said to have been truly ludicrous. T Secretary in fulfilment of the requisition Benton's resolution, was proceeding to form the duty imposed upon him, of dra black lines around a certain portion of Senate's record, when the indignation of lookers-on in the gallery burst forth loud and continued hissing. The grave reverend Senator from Missouri was furi he rose from his seat and denouncing th as a set of "hired Bank ruffians," orde the sergeant at arms to seize them. seizure of one was effected, and the per being brought before the Senate was not p mitted to say a word in his defence, but ignominiously thrust out of the door, a cries from the Van Buren Senators of rem him, remove him. This is the way the ri of an American citizen are respected, by exclusive democrats of these days; and the mode, in which men are condemned heard, to be disgraced, by those who af such a holy regard for justice and fair d ing. What a figure the dignified Sen must have cut, jumping up to his pl pointing to the galleries, and vociferat "Bank ruffians!" Verily the President will have a decent and able set of supp ters!

From a statement made by Mr. Wharton Texan agent now in Washington, it app that the Legislature of Texas did not re the resolution in relation to the liberation Santa Anna, which the President had turned to the two Houses with his objection Mr. W. was a member of the Senate time, and of course ought to be acquai with the whole transaction. This is gi fying intelligence, as the account which been given of the affair, was calculated nav. no good effect upon the cause of new Republic.

California, another of the Mexican pr inces, following the example of Texas, declared her independence. Such is the port—and if it be true, Mexico will h trouble enough on her hands, especially the present Government of that coun should be mad enough to plunge into a with the United States. Santa Anna, said, has been out-lawed.

A bill has lately been before the Virg Legislature, proposing to tax bachelors, has met with the fate which similar atte in other quarters have experienced—a ure. The proposition, we presume, made with a view of affording in an discussion to the good people of Richm The Witenagemote of the Ancient D ion might be better employed.

The following gentlemen compose committee appointed, in pursuance of resolution of Mr. Wise, for investigating condition of the various executive de ments: Messrs. Wise, Pearce, of R Muhlenburg, Cambreleng, Hannegan, P Lincoln, Mann, of N. Y., Chaney.

Gen. Scott commenced his defence be the military court of inquiry, at Freder on the 20th ult. His defence occupied than five hours. The court, it is said, exonerated the General from censure decided that the failure of the campa Florida is not to be attributed to him.

It is stated in some of the New York papers, (with how much truth we know not) that one or two of the New York Van Buren electors are not qualified, by reason of their holding offices under government. This is also said to be the case with respect to some persons on the Virginia and New Hampshire electoral tickets. If these statements are true, the electoral vote of those three States, it is presumed, would in contemplation of law be worth nothing, because of the failure on their part to elect "entire tickets," which the law requires. If the law provides that entire tickets shall be chosen, and if persons not qualified to serve have been elected, it is manifest that the requisition is not complied with. And if the requisition is not complied with, the vote is illegal, and ought not to be counted. But of what use are laws and constitutions in these days? Or rather we should ask, why talk of the requirements of law and the positive injunctions of constitutions? If it was as clear as the light of noonday, that every New York elector held an office under the government, it would be decided by the party that the ticket was good because a majority of the people, a tremendous majority had said so; and the votes would be counted, maugre all the hindrances of justice and the prohibitions of law.

It will be perceived by the news from Mexico, that there is some danger of a rupture between that Republic and the United States. The Minister of the United States has returned, and, as is reported, without his passports. It will be recollected that the Mexican Minister, Mr. Gorostiza, left the U. States, in consequence of the occupation of the territory of his country by the troops under the command of Major General Gaines. Mr. Ellis, our Minister to Mexico, being dissatisfied with the answers of the government there, to some demands of his in behalf of the U States, determined to follow the example of Mr. Gorostiza; and accordingly he demanded his passports, which not being given him, he came away without them.—This is the foundation of the rumor, that Mexico intends to declare war against the United States. It is probable, however, that the two Governments can understand one another better without the aid of their respective Ministers, and that the whole affair will end in an amicable adjustment of differences, and a re-establishment of friendly relations.

Indiana still erect.—The vacancy in the Indiana delegation occasioned by the death of Mr. Kinnard, has been filled by the election of Wm. Herod. The vote stood

The Whitney Investigation.—The Charlottesville (Va.) Advocate says—"We understand Mr. Garland has been astonished at the investigation. Before he commenced the examination he thought all was right but has been compelled to change his opinion.—Extraordinary disclosures are anticipated."

Shipwrecks—Loss of Lives.—A letter from Kingston, Jam. of the 15th of December, announces the loss of the Medusa, which sailed from Port Morant last August, eleven cabin and seven steerage passengers perished; also thirteen of the crew. A steerage passenger named Doherty, having lashed himself to a spar, was saved on the Coast of Cuba.

The brig William and Joseph, from Jamaica, for New York, with pimento, went ashore on the night of the 15th, at Nantucket shoals, lighters were sent down to relieve her.

Latest From Texas.—The arrival of the Hon. M. Hunt, Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary at the S. W. Pass on the 15th inst. is announced in the New Orleans papers of the 17th inst. He is on his way to Washington.

"Glory and Reform."—Our's is really a magnificent Government. We now have two Ministers Plenipotentiary residing in Spain! Mr. Van Ness is at Madrid and Maj. Eaton at Cadiz, both drawing pay at the rate of $9,000 a year. This, we suppose, is carrying out the principles of "retrenchment," which brought Gen. Jackson into power.—Albany Journal.

Mr. Editor,—Please insert in your paper the following statement of a round of extra meetings which we are about to hold together, and you will greatly oblige us.

Friday night & Sat. morning, February 10 & 11 at Speddin's Saturday night & Sunday morning, 11 & 12 at Beckwith's. Tuesday 14, morning and night, at Antioch. Thursday 2, morning and night, at Airey's. Sunday 5, " " " at Cambridge.

We expect to have a love feast at each of the above places, (except Back Town,) to commence at 9 o'clock, A. lately occupied by Mr. John Bradshaw, (which will in future be styled the "DORCHESTER HOUSE,") where he designs keeping a first rate establishment for the accommodation of all, and every person, who may favor him with their patronage. His TABLE will at all times be furnished with the best the market will afford. His BAR is now, and will continue to be, stocked with pure and unadulterated Liquors, of every variety; to attend in which he has procured the valuable services of Mr. Thomas Smith, who will always be ready to administer to the comforts of visiters. To attend his STABLES he has careful and experienced Ostlers, which, together with his personal knowledge of the character and habits of that most valuable of animals, will, he flatters himself, afford ample assurance that all horses left in his charge will be well attended to. The House, in the course of the ensuing summer, will undergo a thorough repair, and be very considerably enlarged.

The advantages of its location must be acknowledged by all who visit it; for, while it is in the middle of the village, it is yet retired and quiet, it stands on a fine airy situation, about equi-distant from either end of the town.

The undersigned pledges himself to his patrons that his efforts to render their sojourn with him agreeable, shall be unremitting, and that nothing shall be left undone to accomplish that object; he, therefore, respectfully solicits a share of the patronage of an enlightened public.

Chancery Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale, to the highest and best bidder, at the Court House door, in the town of Cambridge, at the hour of 12 o'clock, M., on MONDAY, the 13th of February next, more or less, of valuable wood and cleared LAND, being part of the tract called "Goodrich's Choice," "Rochester," and "Trippe's Good Luck," comprising within its limits the Farm upon which William Benner, Jr., formerly resided. This property is situated in Cabin Creek Neck, in the New Market District of this county, and distant about a mile from navigable water. The improvements upon it are highly respectable; I understand the soil is reasonably productive, and the situation very conducive to health. The title is in fee simple, and believed to be indisputable. Any further description of the premises is deemed unnecessary, as those who are disposed to purchase, will examine for themselves.

According to the terms of the decree, one third of the purchase money must be paid on the day of sale, and the residue in equal instalments, upon a credit of six and twelve months, with interest on each instalment from the day of sale, to be secured by obligation with security to be approved by the trustee. As soon as the entire purchase money is paid, I will convey the property to the purchaser or purchasers.

And it was further ordered and ordained, That if any person or persons shall wilfully neglect the above Ordinance, or violate the same by the sale of wood without measurement in the said town, every such person or persons shall incur the penalty of fifty cents for every cord so sold, and so in proportion for a less quantity—one half of such fine to be paid to the Wood Corders equally, and the other half to the Bailiff for the use of the town; the same to be recovered under the Act of Assembly of 1793, chapter 66, section 23, before a Justice of the Peace.

And it is thereupon unanimously Resolved, That if any information shall be given by the Bailiff, or any other person, of the violation of the above Ordinance, the Commissioners do hereby unanimously pledge themselves to make application in writing to the County Court, if in session, or to the Orphans' Court, for a discontinuance or withdrawal of the license of any such delinquent.

Resolved, That the above Ordinances be published three times in the Cambridge Chronicle and Dorchester Aurora.
