The Arrest of Mr. Vallandigham---Indignation Meeting at Albany---Opinion of Gov. Seymour.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 16—The meeting to protest against the arbitrary arrest and sentence of Mr. C. Vallandigham, held at the Capital to night, was largely attended.

Strong speeches were made by Hon Amasa J Parker, Hon. Francis Kernan, John Murphy, Esq, of Buffalo, and others

Resolutions were adopted denouncing the arrest of Mr. Vallandigham as an unwarrantable assumption of military power

A letter was then read from Gov. Seymour, characterizing the arrest of Mr. Vallandigham as "an act which has brought dishonor upon our country—which is full of danger to our persons and our homes, and which bears upon its front a conscious violation of law and justice"

An attempt was made to disturb the meeting, but it failed, and the police succeeded in making several arrests of the guilty parties

Keep it before the Public.

The following are the resolutions adopted at a meeting held by the so called Union party of this county at the Court House, in this town, on the 4th of August last. The names attached are the committee who reported the resolutions. They evidently show the feeling entertained by these patriots towards those who honestly differed with them in opinion:

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to cause an immediate enrollment of the militia of the State, THAT EVERY CITIZEN BE REQUIRED TO TAKE AN OATH OF ALLEGIANCE THAT THOSE WHO REFUSE TO TAKE THE OATH BE AT ONCE COMPELLED TO GO BEYOND OUR LINES.

Resolved, That in behalf of this loyal people, we pledge "our lives and fortunes" to the defence of the Government against traitors at home and abroad

IN PRESS:

A NEW AND IMPORTANT WORK.

The Four Acts of Despotism,

BY D A. MAHONY, OF IOWA,

Author of "The Prisoner of State"

This work will contain full and official copies of the Four Great Acts of Despotism by which the constitutional government of Washington was subverted, and the irresponsible Lincoln dynasty installed in its place.

1 THE TAX BILL, by which all the property and resources of the people are mortgaged to the present administration.

2 THE CONSCRIPTION BILL, by which all the bodies of poor men not worth $300 are placed in the hands of the Administration.

3 THE FINANCE BILL, which destroys State Banks and places the entire currency of the country in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury.

4. THE INDEMNITY ACT, (fitting climax) which presumes to indemnify the President for all the wrongs he has committed in the past or may commit in the future

These four acts will each be preceded by a careful analysis, by Mr. Mahony, and their unjust, oppressive, unconstitutional and odious features pointed out. As a book for reference, it will be invaluable to the farmer, the mechanic, the politician, the laborer—in fact, to every person, for these monstrous acts reach from the loftiest mansion to the humblest cabin in the land.

These four acts are not published together in any other form. They will make a large octavo pamphlet of nearly 200 pages, in good sized type and will be sold at the low price of FIFTY CENTS in paper, and SEVENTY FIVE CENTS in muslin binding.

Send on the orders at once. All orders will be filled according to the date of reception.—First come, first served. The cash must accompany all orders.

This is an exact reprint of the best and fullest History of the War yet published in the South. Its value and importance as a connected statement of all the civil, military and naval operations of the Rebels, as pictured to Southern readers, cannot be underrated. It is well written, full of details, with many narratives and incidents of personal adventure of the greatest interest. As a large edition has already been taken up, orders should be sent in early to avoid delay.

THE

Saturday Evening Post

FOR THE YEAR 1863.

THE publishers of the post take pleasure in announcing that their literary arrangements for the coming year are of a character to warrant them in promising a feast of good things to their thousands of readers.—Among the contributors to The Post we may now mention the following distinguished authors:—Mrs. ELLEN WOOD, author of 'The Earle's Heirs,' 'East Lynne,' 'The Channings,' &c., MARION HARLAND author of 'Alone,' 'The Hidden Path,' 'Hiram,' &c., EDMOND KIRKE, author of 'Among the Pines,' and VIRGINIA F. TOWNSEND, whose domestic sketches are so greatly admired.

During the coming year The Post will endeavor to maintain its high reputation for Choice Stories, Sketches and Poetry. Special departments shall also be devoted as heretofore to Agriculture, Wit and Humor, Receipts, News, Markets, &c.

Terms cash in advance—One copy, one year $2 00; two copies, one year, $3 00; four copies, one year, $6 00; eight copies, one year, $12 00; and one to the getter-up of the club.

A SPLENDID PREMIUM!

Who wants a Sewing Machine? To any one sending thirty subscriptions and $60, we will give one of Wheeler and Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines such as they sell for $45. The Machine will be selected new at the manufactory in New York, boxed, and forwarded free of cost, with the exception of freight.

In procuring the subscribers for this premium, we of course prefer that the thirty subscribers should be procured independently of each other, at the regular terms of $2 for each subscriber. Where this cannot be done, the subscribers may be procured at any of our club rates, and the balance of the $60 forwarded to us in cash by the person desiring the Machine.

Every person collecting names for the Sewing Machine Premium, should send the names with the money as fast as obtained, so that the subscribers may begin at once to receive their papers, and not become dissatisfied with the delay. When the whole number of names (30) and whole amount of money (60), is received the machine will be duly forwarded.

GLEASON'S

LITERARY COMPANION, FOR THE YEAR 1863.

To be printed in eight different colors.

THIS number completes the third volume and third year of the COMPANION, and next week we shall commence the fourth volumes and New year with beautiful new type, and an entire new dress throughout.

The paper for next week will be printed in eight different colors—Crimson, Golden, Blue Purple, Black, Flesh, Green and Brown.—This will be a great curiosity—something entirely new in Newspaper printing, and which has never been attempted in this or any other country.

We are resolved to make the next volume of our paper superior to its predecessor.

All the former features of the paper will be continued, while several new and valuable ones will be added.

The circulation of the Literary Companion has steadily increased and is at this time larger than any other literary paper in the United States This liberal patronage on the part of the public challenges a liberal outlay from us; and this will be most cheerfully met and will be shown to our readers, next week.

With the next number of the literary Companion we shall commence a series of beautiful original illustrated stories, written expressly for our paper by the BEST AMERICAN AUTHORS.

We shall also commence a powerful written Novelette by a highly gifted author.—This charming story is full of mystery and startling incidents from beginning to end. It will be followed by other brilliant romances now in preparation. No labor or expense will be spared to maintain the high reputation of the literary Companion, which is everywhere acknowledged to be the best and most refined literary journal in the country.

TERMS—One subscriber one year, $5.—Sample copies sent free.

TO THE

Farmers of Maryland.

THE undersigned having reason to believe that certain commission merchants of Baltimore are using old orders of Farmers, exempting their grain from inspection under the law prior to the late amendment, for the purpose of withdrawing it from inspection or Weighing under the amended law, contrary to the interest and the intention of the Farmers.

I respectfully suggest to the Farmers that the amended law being for their protection, and reducing the fee for Weighing and Inspection to one quarter of a cent per bushel, the amount heretofore charged by the unofficial weighers, it is advisable that they revoke the old orders, written before the amendment, as the best way to prevent their being deprived of the benefit of the law so essential to their security, by commission merchants disposed to embarrass its execution

THE PRIDE OF NEW YORK

1863'S SPECIALTY.

Grand Mirror of American Genius.

"Correct with spirit, eloquent with ease, intent to reason, or polite to please."

THE

FOR THE NEW YEAR.

IT is with no fear of War's effect upon their literary fortunes, that the publishers of THE NEW YORK MERCURY acknowledge the unwavering loyalty of their TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS, and announce to them, and to all that the New Nork Mercury for this year (1863) will be richer in every luxury of Polite Literature than ever before. It is no upstart speculation, no temporary "sensation," but a first-class literary weekly, which has been familiar to the United States for a quarter of a century; and while the wishy-washy mushroom prints of yesterday are cutting down their talent even while they raise their subscription-price, THE NEW YORK MERCURY maintains all its great Staff of Romancers, Poets, Humorists Essayists, Story-Tellers, and Editors, and promises to make it still greater for 1863.

It is the one paper for every home. Its forty columns of reading-matter per week constitute an unparallelled.

Conservatory of the Entertaining, and its novels, Miscellaneous Tales, Beauties of Verse, Gossip, Feuilletons, Broadsides of Humor, and Polished Editorials, combine to epitomize all the charms of Wit and Sentiment!

The husband reads it to his wife, the mother to her children, the lover to his sweetheart, the soldier to his comrades, and the village school master to the circle around the stove. It is familiar to the sight of every man, woman, and child in our country, and has regular subscribers in several countries in Europe. The New York Mercury is also indentified with the grandest patriotism of the age, for several members of its brilliant Staff hold high rank in our noble Army, and have made themselves as famous with the Sword as with the Pen.—The great illustrating artist of THE NEW YORK MERCURY, the inimitable DARLEY, gives the paper the highest attributes of Fine Art; and yet this largest literary weekly of the day promises to surpass itself in all these respects during the New Year!

The first New York Mercury Novelette for the New Year, to commenced in the issue of January 3, 1863 is called

VICTORIA,

OR,

THE HEIRESS

OF CASTLE CLIFFE.

BY COUSIN MAY CARLETON,

AUTHOR OF 'GIPSY GOWER,' 'SYBIL CAMPBELL,' 'ERMINE,' 'LAMASQUE,' &c., &c., &c., &c., &c.,

The productions of this distinguished authoress need no eulogy. Public opinion has long since pronounced them superior to any other novelettes published on this side of the Atlantic, and the true test of their merit is found in the fact that they are eagerly reproduced, after their publication in the MERCURY, by the English Press. We may add that the new tale "VICTORIA," is fully equal in interest and depth of plot to either of those which have secured so large a share of public approval, and we can earnestly recommend it to all story-readers.

The New York Mercury is sold by all newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To subscribers, it is regularly mailed every Saturday morning, for $2 a year; three copies for $5, six copies for $9; eight copies for $12, with an extra copy free, to the getter up of the club. Six months' subscriptions received. Always write plainly the name of your Post Office, County and State, We take the notes of all solvent banks at par. Payment must invariably be made in advance.

LARGEST PAPER IN THE WORLD.

THE WAVERLY MAGAZINE.

A WEEKLY PAPER.

Devoted to Tales, Poetry, Music, History and General Intelligence.

MOSES A. DOW, Editor and Proprietor.

The unexampled circulation which this paper has obtained in about two years, bears ample evidence of its merits. Its contents are mostly original, from the best writers of the country,—of whom it numbers nearly one hundred, male and female, as regular contributors. The music is worth more than the price of the paper, and is a prominent feature, as it is either nearly imported, or written expressly for it. It contains sixteen pages in each number, 11 by 15 inches.

TERMS,—$2 a year, or $1 for six months, six copies to one post office, $5. All subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for. Postage only 26 cents a year, when paid in advance at the office of delivery. Sample numbers will be sent, if requested. A new volume, of 416 pages, commences every January and July. A title Page and Index included in each volume.

Among the notices of the press, we will only take three, as a sample of all the rest.

Waverly Magazine.—A new era of beauty and style, in the publication of newspapers, has been introduced in the bringing fourth of the Waverly Magazine. This is not a pamphlet, but an elegant printed newspaper, in the quarto form. The style is rather showy, but elegant. It is filled with a great variety of matter, prose and poetry, tales, sketches, essays and music. A few years ago it would have been a marvel in the newspaper enterprise.—West Citizen.

The Waverly Magazine.—We are happy to perceive, by the last number of this elegant publication, that it has acquired the wide popularity which its high literay character and typographical appearance could not fail to procure for it. Each number contains more reading matter than any of its weekly contemporaries, and as much, almost, as any of the monthlies. Choice music is likewise given every week.—Cottage Gazette.

Waverly Magazine.—We have received from a friend a number of this elegant sheet. Boston has become noted of late, for its beautiful productions in the newspaper department and the Waverly stands No. 1 in the list. Its contents are mostly original, and it numbers among its host of contributors the best talent of the country. Its editor, Moses A. Dow, is a fine writer, and has already obtained an enviable reputation among the fraternity.—N. Y. Journal.
