VIRGINIA SENATOR.

WILLIAM H. ROANE was elected on Tuesday last, a Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Parker, who had been chosen by the Legislature one of the Judges of the Court of Appeals.

GREAT FAILURES AT NEW ORLEANS.

The True American of the 7th says:—"We are called upon to record several extensive failures' involving an amount almost alarming to the general credit. On Saturday, one of our largest and most influential houses failed for seven millions, carrying with it full five millions more. When and where this is to stop we know not."

MARYLAND PENITENTIARY.

There was received in the Penitentiary of Maryland, during the year ending on the 30th November, 1836, 104 prisoner, 45 of which number are whites—being 44 males and 1 female—56 blacks, being 43 males and 16 females· 87 Americans and 17 Foreigners. 71 of the number are natives of Maryland.

Neck and Heels—An English paper announces that a young man of the name of Neck was recently married to a Miss Heels—they are now, therefore, tied Neck snd Heels together.

THE MAILS.—A package of 28 letters, says the Lexington (Misisippi,) Gazette, arrived in this place on the 26th of January 1837, which were mailed at Florence, Alabama, on the 15th of September 1835!! This is indeed a marvelous despach. We suppose, however, this package was mailed in what some one has not inappropriately styled "the Distress Line," by way of distinction from "the Express,"—Natchez Courier, Feb, 14.

The Court of Inquiry—The. New York Courier and Enquirer says:—We some days since stated, that the Court of Inquiry, before adjourning sine die, reaffirmed their decision in favor of Gen Scott, and sent it to the late President. One of the last acts of that individual was, to order the Court to re-convene, and to reconsider their decision!—There can be no doubt but they will make quick work of it.

What will the servile of the Richmond Enquirer say to this last act of the imperial Dictator? Is this doing justice to Gen. Scott—that justice that the Enquirer vouched for, that would be forthcoming from the greatest and best? We have some curiosity to hear again on this subject from the freeman, who writes as a freeman.

FROM FLORIDA.

The Jacksonville Courier of Thursday last, received by this arrival, has the following:

JACKSONVILLE, March 9.

The prospect of peace which three weeks ago, opened bright and beautiful upon us, is growing dim and indistinct with the smoke and clouds of anticipated and renewed warfare.

After all the time spent—all the indulgence given, all the credit vouchsafed to the SIMON chiefs and their Munchausen tales of being tired of war, of wishing to surrender, they have not yet come in—or had not at the last intelligence from Fort Armstrong Micanopy, Phillip and Osceola, have young warriors, yet unsubdued, proud, daring, and as greedy for the battle's broil as ever. Our confidence, even what little we had, of the war being over, is growing fainter and fainter—BECAUSE the Indians linger in coming in—they have not done as Jumper and Alligator promised. They seem to be acting a deceptive part—they are manœuvering, and are ambiguous and enigmatical in their "talks," so far as we can judge from what we hear, and because Gen. Jesup himself, in our opion, places very little confidence in those chiefs who have come in.

Another Indian Massacre.—The Tallahassee Floridian of the 4th inst. says—'On Wednesday night last, a party of Indians, supposed to be from 50 to 60 in number, attacked the house of Mr. Wallace, who keeps a Ferry over the Ancilla. He attempted to resist them, but his gun would not fire. He finally threw himself into the river, and swam to the opposite side. His wife and two daughters were inhumanly murdered by the savages.

Lieut. Dannerman, who was posted near the scene of outrage with a portion of the mounted men from Leon County, promptly pursued the enemy about four miles, but finding them too strong for him returned for the purpose of obtaining larger force.

An arrival at Charleston from the Mediterranean reports that Commodore ELLIOTT has succeeded in negotiating a very satisfactory treaty with the Dey of Morocco, which event was announced by a salute of fifty guns.

Marriage Brokers.—A late London paper contains an advertisement, in which it is announced that a married gentleman of the highest respectability and connections, has opened two establishments, at some distance from each other, called the matrimonial alliances—one of which is conducted by himself, to give interviews to gentlemen, and the other by his wife for the same purpose exclusively for the ladies.

Edification of Married Men.—'Ven you're a married man, Samivel, yo'll understand a good many things as you dont understand; but vether it's worth while goin' through so much to learn so little, as the charity-boy said ven he got to the end of the alphabet, i a matter o'taste. I think it is'nt.'—Pickwick papers.

The Hon. Jno. N. Steel,* it is stated, declines being a candidate for re-election.—Thomas K. Carroll, and Jno. Dennis, Esqrs. are spoken of as candidates.

A letter from Constantinople, dated in December, states as a common report, that the plague had carried off 100,000 souls in that city during the year.

The editor of the Baltimore Republican thinks that Messrs. Peyton and Wise have "caught a Tartar, in bringing R. M. Whitney before them. We knew that the said Whitney was a Tartar, or some other savage of the sort, but did not suppose the Republican would acknowledge he had been caught.

[Wheeling Times.

Departed this life, near Vienna, in this county, on Tuesday the 28th ultimo, Mr. Thomas Norman, aged about 41 years.

Combining in his character as the subject of this notice did, all the essential qualities of the "perfect man" it is superfluous to say his death is deeply regretted. Honest, industrious and careful so as to have the esteem and confidence of all who knew him, warm in his friendship, though unobtrusive in his manners—generous in his disposition and persevering in his efforts to do good.—From his youth he was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which his Christian Benevolence and zeal will be long remembered. He rejoiced in prospect of death.

"The chamber where the good man meets his fate,
Is privileged beyond the common walk
Of virtuous life, quite on the verge of Heaven." W

In this county, near Vienna, on Wednesday 8th inst. Mr. David McCollister, aged about 55 years. His life exemplified the words of Pope—

'An honest man is the noblest work of God.'

Endeared to all his acquaintances by his affability of deportment and strictness of integrity. His death was caused by being thrown and kicked by a horse. W.

ROBERT SINCLAIR, SR.
PROPRIETOR,

HEREBY informs his friends and the public, that he expects the weather will be suitable to commence filling orders very soon.

Owing to winter setting in so unusually early, many persons, it is believed, were prevented from ordering who had intended to do so, and even many orders that did come, had to remain unfilled until the spring, consequently his stock remains good for most articles as advertised last fall—particularly Apple, Plum, Quince, English Raspberry, Strawberry, Gooseberry, Currant, Grape Vines, three years old, and Cuttings of the same, a few hundred Morus Multicaulis, and other Mulberry Trees, Ornamental Shade Trees, many, and several of them of large size, Balsam Fir, or Balm of Gilead, and other evergreens, and a superb collections of Garden and China Roses, and other beautiful Flowering Shrubs, Honey Suckles, Vines and Creepers, Rhubarb for tarts, &c. See printed and priced catalogues, to be had of the proprietor, gratis, or of R. Sinclair, Jr., in Light Street, Baltimore.

Also, will be delivered to customers, strong thrifty potted plants, about the middle of May, a splendid assortment of Double Dahlias, consisting of about one hundred varieties, carefully selected from among the best and latest importations. Printed catalogues will be furnished as above.

IN CHANCERY,

February 28th, 1837.

Stephen D. Ruark,
vs.
William Windsor.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause, is to obtain a decree for the sale of the property hereinafter mentioned.

The bill states that a certain Joseph Elliott, late of Dorchester county, made and executed his last will and testament, by which he bequeathed to his wife all his lands during her natural life, then to Samuel Windsor by paying Washington Elliott two hundred dollars—That the said Samuel Windsor departed this life intestate, and left a sister his heir at law, who has departed this life an infant, and left her father, William Windsor, her heir at law—That the said Washington Elliott assigned the said legacy to the complainant, and that no part has been paid to the said Elliott or to complainant, and said William Windsor refuses to pay the same. The bill prays for a sale of the said real estate to pay the said legacy. The bill also states that the said William Windsor resides out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper, once in each of three successive weeks, before the third day of April next, give notice to the said non resident defendant of the substance and object of the bill, that he may be warned to appear in this Court, in person or by a solicitor, on or before the 28th day of July next, to show cause, if any he have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

TAILORING.

The Subscriber

BEGS leave respectfully to announce to his friends and the public, that he still carries on the

Tailoring Business

IN ALL ITS DIFFERENT BRANCHES,

At his old stand, in Cambridge.

He has lately procured A NEW SYSTEM OF CUTTING OUT GARMENTS, which has never been used before in this part of the State. It is adjusted upon a mathematical principle, and cannot fail to succeed in all cases. Upon this plan, the science of cutting clothes is no longer uncertain, and dependent upon the eye and accident, for a good fit. It is as unerring as the truths of geometry. He congratulates himself and his friends upon the possession of this long-sought desideratum. He is prepared to make up clothes for his patrons in the neatest and most fashionable style, having made an arrangement to procure the of the season. His work shall be finished in the best manner, and he warrants his garments to fit. Having been located in this place for the last twelve years, he returns his acknowledgments to his friends and the public, for the flattering encouragement they have bestowed upon him. In conclusion, he invites all to call, and he flatters himself that they will be entirely satisfied that he has promised nothing but what he will most rigidly fulfil.
