Many persons think that the French Doctor confines his practice solely to Secret Diseases, but such is not the case; any disease whatever will be treated and cured on written guaranty and forfeiture, if desired, with strict honesty—even those given up by Regular Doctors. NO MERCURY OR COPAIVA.

THERE are two ways to treat a Secret Disease; the first to much in use of is merely the temporary disappearance of the symptoms, by means of mercury or copaiva, and requires but a day or two, but it is very injurious indeed; the second way is to eradicate it out of the system, slowly, safely, and surely, without Mercury or Copaiva.

Sound in a day or two,
'Tis too good to be true.

Thirty odd years of experience in the scientific practice of curing Secret Diseases in Paris and America, have enabled the French Doctor of the FRENCH MEDICAL HOUSE, 16 south Frederick street, near Second st. to eradicate the most virulent disease, no matter from what cause it may have originated, in a very short but reasonable time, without Mercury or Copaiva.—Victims of an improper treatment, and wearied with disappointment may confidently apply. Persons who have injured their Health by a certain practice the solitary vice, which brings impotency, will be restored to prime vigor. This is the only place in BALTIMORE where a sure cure can be had on written guaranty and forfeiture, with strict honesty and terms moderate. The most respectable city reference will be given. Advice gratis.

"CONFESSION."

I THE subscriber publicly confess that I have been afflicted with a Secret disease ever since 1823. I had thirteen eminent physicians whose names are recorded at the French Medical House; some of them abated the disease but it always returned worse than before, until it carried away both sides of my throat and pierced the top of my palate. I also lost several bones of my nose and was almost blind of an eye, and my face was covered with an immense quantity of scabs, between which the skin was as red as scarlet, and I was indeed in a most deplorable condition, so much so that the learned professor S. pronounced me incurable. It was obvious to me then that a common doctor could not extricate me from the jaws of death—or they all follow the same old routine with their train of mercury, mixture of pills, invented by ignorance and continued by cupidity, and do no good to any but the venders. Several persons recommended the French Doctor of the Medical House, 16 South FREDERICK St. as a scientific man and a rare genius in those complaints. I went to him and he pledged himself to cure me on written guaranty, and he furnished me with one room in his house, as he generally does, with strangers, at no cost to pay. I did not hesitate at all on seeing so many likenesses of patients, who are living evidences of the many wonderful cures he has performed of almost every kind of disease. Then he had my daguerreotype likeness and I took his medicine for about a year which completely cured me—He had then my other likeness taken, and both are to be seen at his office. If this meets the eye of some wretched creature in the grasp of death, as I was, let him fly to this praiseworthy philanthropist, whose deep knowledge of the vital principles which animate and move the human frame, are known in both hemispheres, and I believe from my very soul (not forgetful that I am on oath) that his exquisite genius will discover as many new and well appropriated remedies, as new diseases may be found.

WISTAR'S
BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,
A Compound Balsamic Preparation
from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar.

The best remedy known to the world for the cure of Coughs Colds, Asthma, Croup, Bleeding of the Lungs Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Influenza, Shortness of Breath, Pain and Weakness in the Breast or Side, Liver Complaint, and the first stages of CONSUMTION.

A THOUSAND CURES in cases deemed utterly hopeless have firmly established its vast superiority over every former medical discovery. It has always been styled "Nature's own Prescription," being formed chiefly from chemical extracts from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar—two trees that are thickly scattered wherever diseases of the lungs prevail. We give a few instances of its extraordinary power from a catalogue almost without end.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM A POST-MASTER, DATED

PEMBROKE, Washington Co. Maine, April 26, 1844

Mr. ISAAC BUTTS.—Dear Sir: At the request of many of my friends in this place and vicinity, who are afflicted with consumption and liver complaints, I take the liberty of asking you to appoint some one in this county as agent to sell Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and to send him a few dozen, as there is none of it for sale within 100 miles from this. I have no doupt that it would meet with a ready sale if it were where it could be procured without too much expense and delay.

My wife was attack about six months since with what the physicians called the first stage of consumption—a complaint very prevalent in this section of county. Hearing seen the Balsam advertised in Augusta,

☞ 200 MILES FROM HERE, ☜

I took the pains to send there for a bottle of it, which she took, and which helped her so much that I sent for two bottles more. which she has also taken, and she now says she has not felt so well for six years as she does at this time. All those who have inquired of me and ascertained what effect the Balsam had, are anxious to have some for sale in this vicinity, which is the cause of my writing to you.

Please inform me by return of mail wether you conclude to send some, and it so, to whom, in order that it may be known where it can be had.

I am, with respect' yours, &c.

P. G. FARNSWORTH, P. M.

The whole county is fast learning that no medicine—no physician—no preparation of any kind whatever—can equal Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Mr. PALMER, Druggist, under date of Waterville, September 24, 1843, writes:

The statement given you by Mr. James Sage is well known to be true by this whole community. It certainly was a most remarkable cure. The sale of the Balsam is very good, and its success in cures truly flattering.

Yours respectfully,
D. D. PALMER.

THE MOST REMARKABLE CURE EVER RECORDED.

HADDONFIELD N. J., April 23, 1842.

On or about the 13th day of October, 1841, I was taken with a violent pain in the side, near the liver, which continued for about five days, and was followed by the breaking of an ulcer, or abscess, inwardly, which relieved the pain a little but caused me to throw up a great quantity of offensive matter, and also much blood. Being greatly alarmed at this, I applied to a physician; but he said he thought he could do but little for me, except give me some Mercury Pills which I refused to take, feeling satisfied that they could do me no good; many other remedies were then procured by my wife and friends, but none did me any good—and the discharge of blood and corruption still continued every few days, and at last became so offensive that I could scarcely breathe. I was also seized with a violent cough, which at times caused me to raise much more blood than I had done before—and my disease continued in this way, still growing worse, until February, when all hope of my recovery was given up; and my friends all thought I would die of a GALLOPING CONSUMPTION. At this moment, when my life was apparently drawing near its close, I heard of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and got a bottle, which relieved me immediately; and by the use of only three bottles of this medicine, all my pains were removed—my cough and spitting of blood and corruption entirely stopped, and in a few weeks my health was so far restored as to enable me to work at my trade, (which is a carpenter,) and up to this time I have enjoyed good health.

THOMAS COZENS.

GLOUCESTER COUNTY, N. J., ss.

Personally came before me, the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said county, Thomas Cozens, and being duly affirmed according to law, said the above statement is in all things true.

Affirmed before me, on the 20th day of April, 1843,

J. CLEMENT, J. P.

Such is the unprecedented success of this BALSAM

"Nature's Favorite Prescription,"

a prescription congenial to our wants, as it is prepared from chemical extracts from substances which the Author of nature has placed in our own land for wise purposes, that many who know nothing of the mode of its preparation are endeavoring to reap pecuniary benefits by selling an article similar in name, or in appearance, or by representing their own trash as superior to this BALSAM, or by putting up a mixture and solemnly asseverating that it is imported from a foreign country, which is not the case. All these deceptive arts go to show that WISTAR'S BALSAM is known to the world to be "THE GREAT REMEDY," and that to sell any mixture it must be like this in name, or purport, to be like it in substance.

☞ Believe not the cunningly wrought fabrication—and take only the original and genuine Wistar's Balsam of Wild cherry.

NO OTHER CAN BE LIKE IT.
