BALTIMORE MARKET.

Office of the Baltimore Patriot.

At auction to day, 175 hhds. P. R. Sugar, 75 sold (balance withdrawn) at $6,05 to $6,-90; 14 hhds. ditto at $6,55; 20 hhds. Porto Rico Molasses at 26 1-4a27 cts; 50 hhds. Cardenas Molasses at 18 a 19c; 26 hhds. sugar-house Molasses at 22 1-2a22 3-4 cents. Also, the cargo of brig Lisbon—306 hhds. Matanzas Molasses, 5 hhds. sold (balance withdrawn) at 18 cents.

FLOUR.—The market for Flour has been much depressed for several days. We hear of a sale of 200 bbls. Howard-street flour at $4,-12 1-2; afterwards about 750 bbls. sold at $4. The inkling of the news by the Cambria, which was received here this morning, has given the holders more firmness, and they have refused offers of $4. The only sale of City Mills' reported is 1200 bbls. at $4 37 1-2, but the sale was a part of a contract, and is no criterion of the market. It can be purchased this morning at $4,25; but some millers refuse to take that. The market is quiet, and somewhat unsettled.

GRAIN.—There is not much Wheat in market—white, suitable for family flour, sells at 105a107 cents; 1000 bushels very prime Maryland red, for shipment, sold at 96 cents; millers will not generally give more than 85a92 cts. Corn has advanced, and to-day white brings 62a63 cents; yellow 63a64c. Oats sell at 38a40 cents, and Rye 75c.

FISH.—Shad sell at $5,50 for No. 2, and $6 for No. 1. Herrings will bring $4,25 for No. 1, and $4 for No. 2; and there have been, within a few days, some purchases on speculation.

PROVISIONS.—There is a moderate demand for Pork at $11a11,50 for Western mess; $9,25a$9,50 for prime; Baltimore packed mess $12,50, and prime 10 1-2. 100 bbls.—Western prime sold at $9,25, cash. No demand for Beef, except for ships' stores—we quote mess at $10,25a10,50; No. 1 at $8,25a 8,75, and prime at $6,25a6,50. Bacon sides are in demand, and higher prices are asked by some holders. We quote Western shoulders at 4 1-4a4 1-2 cents; sides 5 1-2a6, and hams 6a7 1-4c. Sales of 10 hhds. sides at 5 3-4 cents, and other descriptions within quotations. Baltimore cured shoulders sell slowly at 5 cts.; sides at 6c, and hams at 7 1-2a8c. No large sales of Lard—kegs are held at 7a7 1-2 cents, and bbls. at 6 3-4a7c.

WHISKEY.—There is some inquiry for Whiskey, and sales are making at 21 cents per gallon for hhds.; and 22 cents for bbls.

WHY WILL YE DIE? when for a trifling sum, a few dollars perhaps, you may save your life, and be restored again to health and happiness. Thousands of persons apparently in the last stages of Consumption have been, thousands more now taking Dr Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will be, and a still greater number yet unborn are to be cured by this wonderful medicine.—The Proprietor has in his posession any quantity of testimony and orginal certificates, from persons who have been cured by this balsam; some of them are occasionally published, every word of which is strictly true, and may be relied upon. Counterfeits and imitations of the genine and orginal Balsam of Wild Cherry abound throughout the land. Remember, it is Dr Wister's that cures when all others fail. Be not deceived—buy none unless signed I. BULTS on the wrapper, which is for sale by.

The Imperial Cough Syrup has been used for the last six years by the most respectable inhabitants of Pittsburgh and vicinity.

CLERMONT BOARDING ACADEMY. FOR BOYS.

Three miles North of Philadelphia, on the road leading from Frankford to Germantown.

THIS Institution is situated in a very healthy and retired part of the Country one and a half miles from Frankford; the beauty and salubrity of the place, combined with its large and ample accommodations, render it one of the most desirable situations in the vicinity of Philadelphia or in the Country.

MUCH care is taken for the preservation of health, and special attention is paid to the physical as well as to mental and moral culture. The Boarding department is under the particular care of the parents of the principals; and no exertion is spared by either the teachers or the family that promotes the happiness and improvement of the pupils.

THE plan of government is mild, but administered with firmness and method. Young men will be received into the Institution, but on all occasions they must be of good moral character.

SCHOLARS that are indolent, immoral or wilfully mischevious, cannot remain in the Institution, under any consideration whatever.

The distance from the neighboring villages is such that the pupils are entirely free from the influence of improper company and associates; no companions are allowed them except those connected with the Institution.

THE pupils of the Elementary department are especially attended to, and great care is taken to interest them in the beginning of their studies, and to give them a practical understanding of all the subjects they may have to learn.

A full course of Study embraces all the elementary and nearly all the higher departments of Science with the Ancient and Modern Languages.

Lectures in Physiology, Chemistry, Natural Philosophy, and Agricultural Chemistry, are delivered during the winter; and to render the acquisition of ... ches of science easy and interesting, more than one thousand experiments are shown with very superior apparatus. A large number of anatomical preparations have been procured, to aid the pupils in obtaining a better understanding of the various functions of the human system.

EACH Pupil must be provided with good substantial clothing, and it is particularly desired, that such colors may be chosen as are not easily soiled.

EACH Pupil must be provided with a pair of slipers, towels, shoe brushes, blacking, and a tin wash basin. Every article of clothing must be distinctly marked with the owners name in full.

THE charge for Boarding and Tuition in English is $70 per session, of TWENTY THREE WEEKS, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE; or $40 per quarter or TWELVE WEEKS.

For the use of English Books, Library, Lights, Fuel, &c., $1 per quarter; and for Latin, German, French, Spanish and Drawing each $5 per quarter.—Music $10 per quarter.

THERE are two vacations in each year, viz: the last three weeks, in the Fourth month (April) and the last three in the Tenth month (October). Address all letters to "Clermont Academy, near Frankford, Pa."
