STEAM BRICK PRESS.

These works, situate on the South Side of the Basin, immediately opposite Fells Point,

Are now in full operation, and a large quantity of BRICKS on hand of a superior quality. The waste ascertained to be much less than from any other: no washed bricks—all of full size—fewer broken in handling—a wheelbarrow will hold the waste from 50,000.

Those who reside on the waters of the Chesapeake, may obtain their supplies at a cheap rate, by taking them from the wharf at the Kiln, thus saving the expense of cartage. Vessels may be loaded with despatch, by giving only a few hours notice. $5 50 per at the Kiln wharf.

FIRE BRICKS.—Steam pressed Fire Bricks, now in high repute after six years trial in most of the foundaries in this City, in Mr. John Gamber's Furnace, Middletown, Pa. and several others,—have been used exclusively at the Munson Iron Works, Canton, and highly commended by Mr. Mowel, the agent. They are made of all required shapes at one price.

For the large Stourbridge size, $25 00 per M. $3 per hundred.

Size of common building brick, $20 00 per M. $2 50 per hundred.

SEMI FIRE BRICKS,—being two-thirds Fire Clay, suitable for Hot Air Chambers, setting Boilers and Kettles, and similar work not requiring a perfect Fire Brick—made of the size and finish of pressed fronts, and peculiarly suited for the backs and jams of fire places, as they will not burn out. $12.50 per M.

FRANCIS H. SMITH.
Office Jarvis' Building.

BALTIMORE, July, 1846.

The bricks made at the Steam Brick Press on the south side of the Basin, from the superior quality of the clay now used and the improvements recently introduced in the machine, are free from the defects which existed when the works were located near the Maryland Hospital

When thoroughly burnt, the Steam Pressed Bricks possess all the essentials required for a solid and durable structure. The smoothness of the surfaces and the accuracy of the edges are advantages which they possess over bricks made by the ordinary process.

R. CARY LONG,
Architect.

BALTIMORE COPPER SMELTING AND MINING CO.

The Steam Pressed Bricks made by Francis H Smith, have been extensively used at these works in buildings, furnaces, wells, pavements, &c.—About one million have been thus used. They give satisfaction, and we shall continue to use them. When they are well burned, they are stronger and better for all purposes than any I have ever seen.

DAVID W. DAVIS, Superintendent.

The Commercial Buildings on Gay street, and the adjoining warehouses on Lombard street were built for me last year of Steam Pressed Bricks. The masons showed some prejudice against them at first but finally spoke highly in their favour. I am satisfied myself, not aware of any objection to them, and should I have occasion, would have no objection to use them in any future building.

JOHNS HOPKINS.
July, 1846.

I have had an opportunity this year of laying several hundred thousand Steam Pressed Bricks at the Iron Works of Reese & Mills. I consider them equally as good as the hand made bricks. Being square and true, and regular in size, they make a smooth wall, and work up cleaner and with less waste than other bricks.

RUFUS K. CAIN.

I built this year, three houses in Henrietta street, using Steam Pressed Bricks. The estimates called for 95,000, but actually required but 82,100. This difference was owing to their being somewhat larger than other bricks, to their superior strength, so few being broken, and because every brick is of full size; no washed bricks. I never knew so little waste from so large a quantity. A common barrow held all the waste from the three houses. I consider them equal, if not superior to hand made bricks.

JOHN FITZPATRICK.

I have laid about a million of Mr. Smith's Steam Pressed Bricks, and prefer them to any that I ever worked. Last fall I built two houses for myself in McElderry street, of them, but a part of the East Gable, a four inch wall, I had to finish with hand made bricks. During a north east storm the water drove through these, but did not come through the Steam Bricks. This was seen by many persons., I knew that these bricks will stand the frost as well as an ever made and will turn the water better.

A. A. THOMPSON,
Bricklayer.

I have used over 300,000 of Mr Smith's Steam Pressed Bricks, and have found them equally as good as any other, and far better for painting on than hand made bricks.

PETER CABRUTTERS,
Carpenter.

WASHINGTON, March 31st, 1841.

We hereby certify that the bricks made at the Patent Steam Brick Press, invented by Nathan Sawyer, and now in the possession of Smith & Proud, have been extensively, and for several years past almost exclusively used in the Navy Yard in this city that, during that time. they have been applied in the erection of one entire workshop, a pitch house, the putting up furnaces, repairs in different shops, the underpinning of a ship house, and for other purposes, and that, in every way they have given entire satisfaction to the departments in which they have been used.

FOR SALE.

THE tract of Land in the lower part of Caroline County called "Poplar Neck." A large proportion of this tract is in very fine White Oak and other TIMBER, of the best quality, and would be extremely valuable in the hands of a person who understands Vessel building, and the Timber business generally. It is immediately on the Choptank, with a very fine Landing. Some of the cleared land is of superior quality, and it is all capable of being made so, at trifling expense to a good farmer, with the facilities that the vessels, which the Lumber business would necessarily bring to the landing, would afford for getting Lime at small cost. Persons are invited to view this tract. For information, apply to NICHOLAS L. GOLDSBOROUGH Esq. Cambridge.

12th Brigate 2d Division M. M.
Easton, July 24th, 1846.

FOR the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for the equipment and discipline of the Volunteer Companies which are now organized in the 12th Brigade, it is desirable to ascertain at the earliest period the precise number—location, and description of said companies. The commanding officers of Regiment and Battalions and the Captains who have been elected to command such companies, will therefore make an immediate report to the Brigadier General of every Volunteer Company in which it has been positively ascertained that there will be at least 32 men in uniform rank and file.

These reports will state as nearly as possible the whole number of men of which the companies will probably be composed—the kind of arms they will require—the place of Company meeting, and the time at which they will be ready for Inspection. The uniform of such oompanies will be required to consist of substantial materials, suitable for service at any season.

The certificates of Inspection will in all cases contain a description of the uniform; they will also state the Regiment to which the company is to be attached and the corps to which it belongs; whether Artillery, Cavalry, Infantry or Riflemen

Those companies which have not adopted their arms are requested to select muskets, as there is an ample supply of that description of arms.

It is expressly stated "that persons who use these Pills, and find, after following the given directions that they have not been benefited, shall have their money returned."

ANOTHER LIFE SAVED
BY THE USE OF DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The following certificate is from the wife oi Mr Enoch Perry, a very respectable farmer in Oxford County; Maine, and can be relied upon as true in every particular. It was not solicited, but given by the lady from a sense of duty, feeling that she owed the preservation of her life to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Rumford, Oxford County, Me., July 22, 1845.

This may certify that I have for a number of years been severely afflicted with the asthma. In October 1843, I took a violent cold, which produced a very severe cough, which was accompanied with sevare pains in my side, and I sweat profusely nights. These bad symptoms continued, until I was so much reduced that I was unable to do any work about house, or even walk across the room without assistance. In July, 1844, I was so afflicted with shortness of breath, such great difficulty in breathing, and in such severe pain, that I was unable to lie in bed or sleep for three weeks. One physican who attended me and another who was consulted, both gave me up to die—said they could do no more for me. My friends despaired of my life.—I had no hope myself. I then commenced taking Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Before I had taken one bottle I was able to walk about house. I continued to take the Balsam until I had taken four bottles, and NOW I AM WELL, free from pain, little or no cough, do my own work, keep no help, and have not enjoyed better health for fifteen years.

MR. R. E. SELLERS:—Though I do not believe any further testamonials are necessary to establish the reputation of your justly famed Cough Syrup. I feel compelled as an act of duty, to mention esveral cases which came under my immediate notice, in members of families whom I was in duty bound to relieve at any cost; complained of hard breathing, a severe cough and no expectoratton, loss of appetite wish strong symptoms of pulmonary consumption. I mentioned your Syrup, and they begged I would procure some, which I did. I am happy to report that they are quite relieved, the Syrup having proceed the desired effect in every instance. You are well assured of its good effects upon myself. Hoping that this may reach the notice of persons suffering from coughs and colds, I remain your obedient servant,

OPINION and experience of the Editor of the News and Star.

RICHMOND, December 8th, 1845.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

It constantly advertised in our columns. We feel bound to say that we put little faith generally in specifics and nustrums—much less in your cure-alls.—But a familiar use of this medicine for 6 or 7 years past—during which time the editor who writes this has at intervals suffered with accute asthma—and he writing not so much for the benefit of the proprietors, as for that of those who are afflicted with that distressing disease—takes pleasure in saying that he has invariably found it beneficial to him, and in every case where it has been used promptly at the first indication of an attack, with entire and prompt relief.—From having also observed it tried by others he is of opinion that it is worthy of the confidence of the public.
