Cure for hard times.—Cease to write ers and stop all your newspapers—y all cost money; and the United es mail and public communications een different and distant places t cease, and printers go a begging.—ase to wear boots and shoes—they all t money; result: shoemakers, and tan-rs and curriers, and leather merchants e thrown out of employment.

Cease to wear new clothes—they cost oney; result: the taylor discharges his urneymen and turns his apprentices in-the street, shuts up his shop, and all eans of subsistence are denied him, th a starving family dependent upon m for support.

Cease to build houses—houses cost oney; result: carpenters are thrown out employment, and joiners hove nothing do;—steam mills cease to puff, and the ter wheel is stayed in its motion.—e house painter is idle, with paint pots d brushes dried to perfection. The amster and wood choppers employment gone.

Cease to employ the ironmonger and lacksmith—their labors cost money; esult:—the hammer lies idle by the an-vil, and the fire is out. The collier in ain urges to sell his coal, but no buyers he farmer can neither plough nor har-ow nor use the hoe, for the sound of the nvil is heard no more, and the ironmon-er's labor has long since ceaased.

Such, indeed are the recommendations f our Jackson bretheren of the editorial orps. They would have our country ppear like unto the desolate waste pla-es of Babylon, where the sound of the hammer or millstone is heard no more.—We wish for no such remedy as this.—The desolation of Babylon could not be more repugnant or revolting to the present spirit and enterprise of our coun-trymen.—Miama of the Lakes.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.—Public opinion, wherever it has been expressed upon the subject, is loud and deep against the corrupt scheme of a "TREASURY BANK," which has been suggested by certain of the spoils papers, and is believed to be very near the hearts of the "Kitchen" and the office holders. it is easy to see in what manner the men in power might find their account in having under their exclusive control surplus MILLIONS flowing into the public treasury. The absolute command of twenty or thirty milions of dollars annually, might, as they hope, enable them almost to secure life estates in the offices of trust and profit now held by them, and when satiated with power, or replete with spoils, to designate their successors. The office holders will therefore undoubtedly make an effort for the establishment of such a Treasury Bank, or "Agency," as some affect to call it, as shall secure to them, their heirs and assigns, the control of the surplus millions in the public treasury. But will the PEOPLE consent to such a measusure? Will the honest yeomanry of the country—the tax payers, permit the office holders to create such a real "monster," and by that means take possession of the public moneys? We know that the venal crew about the seat of government, and their fast friends elsewhere, are felicitating themselves, with the idea of such a monster, and the advantages which it will afford them; but we cannot believe that the people will consent to the erection of such a dangerous manopoly.' A plan which places the whole treasury of the U. States completely and entirely at the mercy of the office holders, must be a dangerous one indeed, and the worst of monopolies.

As a sign of the bearing of public opinion on this subject, we may mention that a very large meeting of the "bone and sinew" of Somerset, Pa. was recently held in that county, at which, among others, was passed, without a dissenting voice, the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the very whispering of an attempt by the "Kitchen Cabinet" to establish an Exchequer Bank, based on the Treasury funds, should arouse the indignation and active opposition of every patriot throughout the length and breadth of the land."

Certainly the people are not yet prepared for the creation of an office holders Bank, under the name of a "Treasury Agency." Can the wiles of the spoilers induce them to consent to such a dangerous creation!

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

Passed at December Session, 1801.

CHAPTER 54.

An act relating to the Public Roads in the several Counties therein mentioned.

WHEREAS the present mode of repairing the public roads in Saint Mary's, Calvert, Charles, Caroline and Dorchester counties, is found by experience to be expensive, and inadequate to the purpose intended, and it has been found necessary that proper regulations should forthwith be made for keeping the roads of the said counties in due repair; therefore,

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Justices of the Levy Court for the counties aforesaid, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby authorised and required to meet together on the third Monday of April next, and on the same day in every year thereafter, at the respective Court Houses in the said counties, and when so met together, the said justices, or a majority of them, shall be, and they are hereby authorised and required to describe, ascertain, and distinctly record in a well bound book, to be provided by them for that purpose, the several and respective roads and public highways in the counties aforesaid, and to nominate and appoint capable and judicious persons as overseers of the several and respective roads aforesaid, according to the number and divisions of the said roads, as the same shall be ascertained upon their records; provided nevertheless, that the said roads shall be so apportioned, divided and described, as not to require a greater number of overseers than five in any one hundred of the said counties, and that the said justices, or any one or more of them, may adjourn from day to day until the said roads shall be duly ascertained, and overseers appointed as aforesaid, and in case neither of the said justices should attend as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the County Court to make said adjournments.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said overseers to keep a true and proper list of all and every person or defaulter. who, being summoned as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to attend at the times and places appointed as aforesaid, or if attending, shall not perform his reasonable labour, and of every master, mistress or overseer of servants and slaves, who call upon each and every of the said persons, and demand the payment of all and singular the sums of money by them, or any of them, so forfeited, and on refusal or neglect to pay the same, the said overseers shall proceed to recover the same before a single magistrate, by due course of law; and the said overseers shall, every six months, render their accounts of all fines and forfeitures received by them in virtue of this act to the justices of the levy court, upon oath, or affirmation, and pay the amount thereof in such manner as the said justices shall order and appoint.
