THE DEMOCRAT.

WM. H. BOWDLE—Editor.

CAMBRIDGE, MD.

WEDNESDAY,::::::DECEMBER 14, 1853.

To Our Friends.—Those of our friends and subscribers, who wish us to publish their Advertisements, when ordered by D. M. Henry, Esq., as Commissioner, will please do us the favor to notify Mr. Henry of the same, otherwise they will appear in the Chronicle. We hope our friends will bear this in mind.

☞To Business Men Generally.—The Cambridge Democrat, has a larger Circulation than any other paper Published in the three Lower Counties on this Shore; which makes it the Best country Journal in the State, for the publication of Advertisements.☜

The Democrat Printing Office can be found in the rear of the Sheriff's office, opposite the hotel of Mr. John Bradshaw. The front room is also used by us, as well as Sheriff Douglass, where we will be happy at all times to see our friends and patrons.

An Apology.—We owe an apology to our readers who receive their papers through the mail, for not sending them on Wednesday last, which was on account of having to publish the Collectors Sale of the former collector, which was handed in at a very late hour on Monday evening, previous to our last date. We tried our utmost to get them in mail in due season, but failed.

Steamer Hugh Jenkins.—We are informby Capt Tilghman, that on and after the 20th inst., the fare will be $1 to Cambridge and Easton. See advertisement in another column.

Sale of Land.—A farm belonging to the estate of Dr. G. A. Tubman, and known by the name of "Darby," was sold at public sale, on Monday 5th inst., to B. G. Tubman, Esq., for $4,235. It contained 414 acres.

Not Sold.—The house on the corner, up street, was not sold on Monday last,—$1000 was the only bid. Mr. Hugunine, gave $4,500 for it, a few years since.

The Chronicle —We see by the last number of the "Cambridge Chronicle," that Mr. Richard M. Beall, has taken the entire management of that paper to himself. We wish him pecuniary success in his new undertaking, but not political.

American Farmer.—We are in receipt of the December number of this great agricultural Jouanal, which abounds in a variety of interesting and valuable reading matter for the Farmer. It should be in the hands of every tiller of the soil. Persons who wish to subscribe to the Farmer, can leave their money and names at this office, and we will send it on to the publisher—Mr. Samuel Sands, Baltimore. Price $1 a year.

The President's Message.—It is useless for us to comment on the message of Gen. Pierce when we are assured that our patrons have had the pleasure of perusing it several days ago, in an extra we sent them by Saturday's Mail. It shall always be ouraim to give the readers of the Democrat, the very latest and most interesting news, at the earliest possible period.

Fire.—The citizens of Cambridge, were startled on Sunday night last, by the alarm of fire, which proved to be two stacks of Straw belonging to F. J. Henry, Esq., which were entirely consumed. The perpetrators of such outrageous acts ought to be severely punished, if they can be found out. The town Commissioners would be justifiable in offering a large reward for the detection of such villians, who are so maliciously disposed as to burn up the property of our citizens.

Godey's Lady's Book.—The January number of Godey's Lady's Brook is on our table, filled with more than its usual interest—our lady readers would do well to procure such a work for the coming year. It is emphatically a ladies Book, in every sense of the word.—Godey knows how to suit the taste of ladies, in his literary department as well as the fashion plates, &c. No family can get along well, without a work of the kind in the house.—Therefore, we say send L. A. GODEY, Philadelphia, $3 for 1 years subscription to his Book.

Large Hogs.—There has been a number of very heavy hogs killed in Cambridge, this season—among them we note down one to Mr. John Foble, which weighed 359½ pounds. Col. Wm. A. Sullivane, killed one 10 months old weighed 274 lbs. Mr. F. J. Henry, one at 14 months old weighing 357 lbs. Mr. James Fluharty, slaughtered two, one weighed 408 and the other 310 lbs. Ed. Shepherd slaughtered two very heavy ones, weight not known. Wm. Mills, at Shoal Creek, slaughtered one at 7 months old that weighed 188 lbs. There were several others of our townsmen who killed large hogs, but we are not informed of their weights. Cambridge is getting equal to Cincinnati for porkers.

Beautiful Idea.—The Newark Advertiser says: "A grave-stone lately cut in that city has at the top a daguerreotype of the deceased person, neatly set into the stone. This is a novel and appropriate method, not only of commemorating friends, but of bringing them, as they appeared in life, to the recollection of acquaintances visiting their graves.

Rumored Change in the English Cabinet.—Passengers by the Atlantic report that it was currently rumored in London that Lord Ashburton would shortly resign from the British Cabinet, to give place to a more warlike Cabinet.

☞The extensive tannery of John Rouser, near Mechanicstown, Frederick county, Md., was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning. Loss between six and seven thousand dollars. Insured for $300.

☞The number of licensed taverns in Philadelphia is 1,965, which is one tavern to every forty-four and a half of the 85,943 taxable inhabitants of the city and districts.

Congress Organized on Monday 5th inst., without any difficulty. In Caucus, on Saturday last, it was determined to re-elect the officers of last session. Linn Boyd of Kentucky is speaker; Jno. W. Forney, Clerk; A. J. Glossbrenner, Sargeant-at-Arms; Z. W. McKnew, Doorkeeper; and John M. Johnson, Postmaster.

On taking the chair Mr. Speaker Boyd made the following laconic address:

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: By the vote just given you have manifested a degree of respect and confidence for myself peculiarily gratifying to my feelings, and for it you have my sincere thanks. Confidently relying upon your kindly co-operation without which it were vain to hope for success, and guided, as I trust I shall be, by a sleepless desire to maintain order and promote the harmony of this body by a faithful execution of its laws, I engage in the duties assigned me with no feeling to gratify inconsistent with the claims of impartial justice; no aim to accomplish inconsistent with the country's good.

In the Senate, the Hon. David R. Atchinson, President, took the Chair, and Mr. Dickens the Secretary's Desk.

Duty on Pictou Coal.—The Cumberland (Md.) Miners' Journal says "it is rumored that an effort will be made by certain parties in New York and Boston to induce the Congress of the U. States, at its approaching session, to remove the duty from Pictou coal, so as to permit its free introduction into this county." This movement, the Journal thinks, is intended as a blow at the coal of the Cumberland region, which the Pictou is said more nearly to resemble than any other produced in North America. The Journal warns the Cumberland forks to be on the alert.

Death of a Marylander.—Mr. Jos. J. Coleman, a printer, formerly of Kent county, Md., perished in the flames by the recent burning of the St. Francis Hotel, at San Francisco. The deceased slept in the third story of the building, and retired to bed about 4 o'clock in the morning, some three or four hours before the fire broke out. Mr. C. was for several years a clerk in the Patent Office at Washington, and subsequently the editor of a paper at Lafayette, Ind. He leaves a wife and two children in Maryland.

Jenny Lind.—The New York correspondent of the Charleston Courier learns, through a friend just arrived from Vienna, that Mme. Goldschmidt has retained but $130,000 of the vast fortune which she made in this country, and this compromises her entire worldly possessions. She will positively appear on the stage again next summer, but in concerts only.

Delaware Railroad.—J. R. Trimble, Esq., chief engineer, advertises that proposals will be received at the office, in Dover, Del., untel the first of January next, for cross-ties, in lots of 500 to 50,000, deliverable on the line of the Delaware railroad, between Dover and Seaford, and between Dover and the New Castle road, and on the bank of the Chesapeake and Delaware canal.

Resignation.—Rev. Geo. L. Mackenheimer has resigned the rectorship of the Brick Church Parish, Prince George's county, Md., where he has officiated for more than 20 years. He goes to Hancock, Washington county Md.

Virginia Wheat Crop.—We learn from the Woodstock Tenth Legion that in most cases were the wheat in that vicinity has suffered from the ravages of the fly, it has measurably recovered, and the prospect for a good crop is now flattering.

☞Dip the Atlantic dry with a tea-spoon; twist your heel into the toe of your boot; make shoe-makers fulfil their promises, and subscribers pay the printer; send up fishing hooks with balloons and fish for stars; get astride of gossamer, and chase a comet, when the rain is coming down, like a cataract of Niagara; remember where you left your umbrella; choke a mosquito with a brick bat—in short, prove all things heretofore considered impossible; but never coax a woman to say she will, when she has made up her mind to say she won't.

Modest Youth.—"What shall I help you to?" inquired the daughter of a landlady of a modest youth at a dinner table. "A wife," was the meek reply. The young lady blushed, perhaps indignantly, and, it is said, that the kindly offices of a neighboring clergyman were requisite to reconcile the parties.

Shoeing Horses.—The following are the regulations of the British army upon this subject. They were prepared by a mixed commission of officers and eminent and experienced professional men, and have recently been issued. "1. The shoe is to be bevelled off so as to leave a space and prevent pressure to the sole. 2. It is not to be grooved or fettered, but simply punched, and the nails countersunk. 3. Calkin is to be applied to the hind shoe only, and is to be thickened in proportion. 4. The weight of the shoe is to be from 12 to 15 ounces, according to the size of the horse. 5. Horses are to be shod with not less than six nails in the fore, and seven in the hind shoe; nor is the shoe to be attached with less than three nails on each side. 6. In preparing the foot for the shoe, as little as possible should be pared out; and the operation should be confined to the removal of the exfoliating parts of the foot only. 7. Both the fore and hind shoes are to be made with a single clip at the toes." These rules may be of some value to blacksmiths, livery-men and horse owners.

Texas News—Army Movements.—Gen. Rusk addressed the citizens of San Antonio on the 17th ult. A public dinner and ball were given to him. Letters were read from Gen. Houston and Gov. Bell.

Eight companies of the 5th regiment of Infantry arrived at Fort McIntosh on the 15th ult., from the interior of the State. Among the officers are Col. Loomis, Col. Waite, Col. Ruggles, Maj. Rossell, Maj. Fowler, Capt. Lynde, Capt. Robinson, Capt. Dent, Lieut. Myers, Lieut. Lean, and Lieut. Bankhead.

SEASONING SAUSAGE MEAT.

"My mode of seasoning sausage meat for 20 years has been as follows: for 100 pound of meat 1½ pounds of fine salt, 6 ounces of black pepper, powdered and 3¼ ounces of sage.—For market or immediate use, a little more salt might be added.

And now for preserving them. Immediately after the meat is seasoned, make it up into cakes (say large as the top of a tea cup) and fry them in the usual manner until nearly done—or quite done, I think best. Then have clean small earthen or stone pots ready and pack the cakes in as closely as possible till nearly full, pouring in the fat that comes out in the frying them—then put a weight on sufficient to keep them down until cold. If there is not enough fat fried out to cover them supply the deficiency with clean melted lard.—When they are perfectly cold, it is best to put a little more melted lard on, as there will be sometimes cracks made in cooling—put a paper over them in a dry cool place and they will keep from New Year till after the next harvest as when put up, or very nearly so. They will keep I suppose as well in large pots as in small ones until they are opened. It is only necessary to warm them up for use.

PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

As a matter of general interest to our readers, we give place to the following act passed May 6th 1853, amendatory of the act of 1837, to establish Primary Schools in Dorchester county.

Section 1.—Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of Dorchester county, to appoint not less than three, nor more than seven persons residents of said county, fo be styled the primary school teachers of said county.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said board or any member thereof to examine every applicant for the situation of teacher in any primary school of said county, and if they or he shall find such applicant qualified for the situation of teacher, to give to him or her a written certificate to this effect, if he or she is competent to teach and what branches, but if otherwise to reject him or her.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That no person shall be entitled to take charge of any primary school in said county, without a certificate as mentioned in the second section of this act.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of each of the school districts of said county, as now constituted or hereafter constituted, be, and they are hereby authorised to levy upon any parent or guardian, widows and Orphans without property excepted, whose child or children, ward or wards, attend any school within their respective districts a sum not exceeding fifty cents per month, for each and every child or ward; Provided, they deem it advisable to do so, to be collected as other small debts are collected by law and to be applied to the use of said school.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That no school shall be deprived of its portion of the school fund in consequence of being vacated, unless the school shall remain vacated, for a longer period than twelve months at any one time.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

News from Washington.—We copy the following from the Globe and the Star:

Official Advices from Gunnison's Party.—The War Department to-day received official letters from Brevent Captain Morris, (son of Commodore Morris, of this city,) who was in command of Gunnison's escort, which confirms all the news of the massacre of G. and some of his party. Morris found the bodies of the slain so mutilated by the wolves as to make it out of his power to bring them off, or even to bury them. Gunnison was shot with fifteen arrows, and Kearn, late a draughtsman in the Topographical Bureau, was shot through the heart with a rifle ball, and had both arms torn off. Nothing but his watch-guard was found on his body.

The Home Squadron.—We understand the vessels of the Home Squadron have been ordered to rendezvous at St. Thomas, West Indies where they are to receive further instructions from the commanding officer. The frigate Columbia, Commander Pendergrast, has already sailed for that port; the steamer Fulton, Lieut. Watson, is daily expected to sail from Norfolk, and the sloop of war Albany, Commander Geary, will probably leave in the course of a week.

Clercial Appointment in the War Department.—Levi Davis (a $900 clerk) promoted to a $1,200 clerkship in the Adjutant General's Office, vice S. S. Randall, resigned. Thomas Borland, of Ark, appointed to a $900 clerkship, vice Davis, promoted.

Expenses of House-Keeping in Washington.—Female servants, five to ten dollars per month; oak wood six dollars per cord; pine wood, five; anthracite coal, six to seven dollars per ton.

In Advance of the Mail.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.

Washington, Dec. 12, 1853.

Printer of the Senate Chosen—Sensation and Independent Criticism—The Senate and the Administration—No Battle till March—The Committees Appointed—Nebraska Territorial Question—Jefferson Davis Going to Resign—Wars, great and small, &c.

The election of Beverly Tucker, Esq., (proprietor of the Sentinel,) as printer to the Senate, creates a very profound sensation, and shows that, notwithstanding the general acquiescence in the course of the administration, there is a deep-rooted feeling in favor of independent criticism. People are now disposed to read to learn, rather than to be convinced. General Cass voted for Armstrong, as he told his friends, merely on personal considerations. It is clear that, though the organization of the House was effected without much difficulty, the Senate is not equally tractable. The reason is there are not a hundred new member in it.

There will not be much of a battle in either House on any question before next March.—Every body hopes for the best, and things will look very smooth and comfortable for a while. But "hope," said an old fogy by the name of Lord Bacon, "makes a good breakfast, an indifferent dinner and a very bad supper."

The resolution to elect a librarian was lost by a vote of 98 to 100; a pretty tight vote, after a great deal of boring and lobbying on Sunday.

The committees have all been announced in both Houses, and some of the members, who had but recently eaten a hearty "breakfast" are already feeling an appetite for "dinner," to say nothing of cold victuals for "supper."

The turning point of the session will be the effort to establish a territorial government for Nebaska Unless great forbearance and discretion are used all round, that question may lead to the re-opening of the whole slavery question. The question may then be practically tested whether there is no distinction between acquiescence and a cordial approval.

It is now certain that Col. Jeff. Davis will resign the War Department, and resume his seat in the United States Senate. It is also believed that a Southern Union man, of great distinction, will take his place in the Cabinet. If the compromise is to be observed in good faith all round, then it is necessery that those who helped to establish it should be recognized not merely in the aggregate, but through one of their representative men

The President's message, and the reports of the Secretaries, the more they are pondered on, increase the confidence of the public in the Administration, and if the advantage gained by the Cabinent is used with moderation and forecast, there is nothing to prevent Gen. Pierce from having an eminently successful term of it.

The news from Europe is warlike, not only on a grand scale in the East, but on a small scale in the west of Europe, where young Soule had had nearly fought the Duke of Alba, brother-in-lew to the Emperor of France, on account of a remark on his mother's dress. I am afraid the Island of Cuba is now in jeopardy. A man's temper is not like a woman's dress—looking best when ruffled. X.

Threatened Riot in New York.—Quite an excitement was created in the city of New York on Sunday in consequence of the arrest of Daniel Parsons, a street preacher, who had been holding forth at the foot of Third street. It appears that 6,000 or 8,000 persons were present, a portion of his friends, and another portion determined to stop his preaching. The mayor, to prevent a serious riot, ordered the police to take Parsons to the police station, whither he was followed by a mob of some 5,000 persons, some of whom, on attempting to rescue the prisoner were also taken into custody. Subsequently the crowd, which had been increased to about 6,000 marched in procession to the mayor's house, and through a committee demanded the release of Parsons. The mayor's reply not being deemed satisfactory, threats were made to burn or blow up his dwelling. A strong police force soon after appeared, but Justice Wood, in the meantime, having released Parsons, the crowd soon after dispersed. The mayor's dwelling, however, had to be guarded throughout the night.

Arrest of a Fugitive from Maryland.—On Sunday, officer Irving, of Richmond, Va., succeeded in arresting, at the Board street hotel, in that city, Octavious McPherson Lyles, a fugitive from justice, charged with the murder of Thomas M. Garner, at a place call the "Cove," in Anne Arundel county, Md., on the 7th inst. The Dispatch says Lyles does not pretend to deny that he killed Gorner, but avers that he was justified in so doing. Lyles arrived in Richmond on Saturday afternoon, in the northern train of cars, and took lodings in the hotel in which he was arrested. He is confined in jail, awaiting a requisition from the Governor of Maryland.

The Hon. Reverdy Johnson has been employed by the Governor of Florida to assist the Attorney General of that State in arguing the boundary question between Florida and Georgia, which is to come up before the Supreme Court of the United States at the present term. The counsel for Georgia are Judge Berrien, of Georgia, and Hon. Geo. E. Badger, of North Carolina.

Payment to the State Treasury.—Queen Anne's county (Md.) Circuit Court Clerk, on the 2d inst., paid $501 94 into the State Treasury, being the amount of revenue received by him since the 1st of June.

The True Spirit.—The Louisville Democrat—one of the staunchest and most reliable Democratic papers in the Union—in referring to the feud in the Democratic party of New York, and the complaints against the Administration, says:

We have been slow to believe that an administration coming into power, as did that of Gen. Pierce, with a prestige of unparalleled favor, would or could so far forget its high calling or brilliant attitude as to bring itself into disrepute with any but those who are constitutionally opposed to the great principles by which the party is guided. Hence, upon every proper occasion, have we expressed an abiding confidence in the integrity, patriotism and firmness of the President, without feeling it to be incumbent on us, upon every occasion that a wry face was made, by whig or democrat, to get into a fever and ague—or ague first and fever afterwards—and slash away in wrath and fustian, as in the manner of some.

Fresh Supply of Cedar Tar.

Mrs. B. B. Norris' Cedar Tar—343 Baltimore street. Mrs. Norris cautions the public to beware of spurious articles got up by persons with the hopes of making money through the popularity of her own Cedar Tar. She alone possesses the mode of puryfying and refining it, for which she has obtained a copyright from the patent office. Her numerous certificates will show that her Cedar Tar is the most successful remedy ever used for the cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, King's Evil, Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver, Scald Head, Piles, Tetter, putried Sore Throat, and old putrid Sores.

TRUTH MUST, AND WILL PREVAIL.

It is a truth, that the Mustang Liniment has performed more cures of confirm chronic and inflammatory rheumatism, than any remedy ever before used for those painful affections.—It is truth, that no remedy ever before tried, has been so successful in healing old sores, or ulcers; in curing scald head, cancers, erysipelas, tetter or ringworm, or, any unnatural excressence, enlargement, eruption, swelling, or inflamation of any description as the Mustang Linimet. It is a truth that it is an effectual and certain remedy for the piles, no matter of how long standing; and it is a truth, that every body are using it, and all pronounce it good.

MARRIED,

On the 29th ultimo, by the Rev. Mr. Barrow, WM. RIAL, of Somerset co., Md., to Miss ESTHER A. ADAMS, of Baltimore.

In Chirst Church, Cambridge, on Wednesday evening, the 7th inst., by the Rev. Theodore P. Barber, Mr. EDWARD W. LeCOMPTE to Miss MARY E., eldest daughter of the late Levin H. Wall, Esq., all of this county.

[The above couple will please accept our thanks for a piece of delicious brides cake.—May they live long and happy.]

DIED,

On the 10th ultimo, Mrs. ROSA ANN MERIDITH, aged 60 years.

Died, in this town on the 9th inst., in the sixth year of her age, after a brief, but severe illness of Scarlet fever, SOPHIE, youngest daughter of Doct. A. H. Bayly, of this place.

Another young spirit to Heaven has fled—
Dear, beautiful, bright little Sopie is dead.
No blossom of Eden more lovely could be,
No Gazelle of the mountain more graceful than she—
Yet low now she lieth, this sweet little flow'r,
Cut down by malignant disease in an hour.
We weep, with the Father, his bright little gem,
And Mother & kindred, we sorrow with them;
For of many fair children the sweetest was she'
Her blooming young face ever radient with glee.
How often, delighted, I've watch'd her, unseen,
As graceful she sported and danc'd o'er the green—
How often provok'd her to quarrel with me,
To hear her defiant and quick repartee:
For bright as her eye, was the mind of the child
And mark'd by refinement, tho' sportive and wild.
I wish to remember her blooming and bright—
All lovely, as last she appear'd to my sight
An shrink since her innocent spirit has fled
From looking on sweet little Sophie as dead
Dear—dear little Sophie! our quarrels are o'er
Never-more shall I greet you, on Earth never more
But trust it to me may hereafter be given
To meet you a glorified spirit in Heaven.

NOTICE.

Executive Department,

ANNAPOLIS, MD., December 6th 1853.

To all whom it may concern:

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to the Governor for the pardon of a certain Dennis Shenton, who was tried at October Term 1849 of the Dorchester County court, and convicted of "murder in the second degree," and was sentenced therefor to be confined in the Penitentiary until the first day of May, 1856.

The application has been made by a large number of respectable citizens of Dorchester County; and the exercise of clemency is recommended by ten members of the Jury who tried, and by the Deputy Attorney General who prosecuted the case.
