Tuesday 23 Decr. 1817

The people employed thrashing, puting in Hay, feeding Cattle &c. a moderate frost —

Wednesday 24th

Big Charles & Worthy puting in Hay forenoon, in the ev. Charles went for Chop Ephram & young Charles thrashing Rye, little Charles went to Jamytown & got Jarks Shod a soft day slight rain in the evening lost the red Cow

Thursday 25th

Much rain last night, this being Christmas day there was no work done except feeding the Cattle &c. a moderate thaw, & a considerable swell in the Rivers —

Friday 26th

This was also as a Holiday, Ephram, & young Charles went to Jamytown, Pompey & Charles staid at home & attended to the Cattle, a moderate day & damp

Saturday 27th

A moderate frost last night Ephram & young Charles put in & began to thrash Rye, big Charles cut Straw, Pompey attend cattle a soft damp day

Monday 29th

Rain last night, Ephram & young Charles thrash Rye, big Charles hauled a load of wood, Went to F.P. for Sundrys, Pompey feeding Cattle &c. a wet day a Ewe lamb —

Tuesday 30

Much rain last night Ephm. & Charles thrash Rye, big Ch. cutting drains &c. Pompey at Tuesday jobs, rain mostly all day —

Wedy. 31st

A slight frost last night, Ephram & little Charles thrashing Rye, big Charles hauled two loads of wood, Pompey feeding Cattle &c. &c. a fine fair mild day, rather inclining to frost —

Thursday ~~January~~ 1st January 1818

A smart frost last night Ephram & young Charles finish in the remainder of Rye & thrashed, big Charles hauled manure Pompey feeding Cattle &c. a fine clear day, 1 Lamb Today

Friday 2

A slight frost last night, 3 lambs this morning, Ephram & young Charles thrashing Rye, big Charles hauling manure, Pompey as usual feeding cutting wood &c. a mild day, no frost

Saturdy. 3

A little rain last night, Ephram & young Charles thrashing Rye, Charles at Sundry jobs, Pompey feeding Cattle &c. a gloomy day with some rain —

Monday 5th

Yesterday a Lamb, a moderate frost last night Ephram & Charles thrashing Rye, Charles hauled in Hay &c. Pompey at Sundrys a fair mild day

Tesdy. 6th

A slight frost last night the hands cleaning Rye, Sent 37½ Bushels to the Mill a mild day —

Wedy. 7th

A moderate frost last night, & 1 Lamb — Ephram & young Charles cleaned the Rye, hauled 2 loads of stone out, & put in some Hay — big Charles took one load of Rye 46½ Bushels to Mill & brot. a load of wood, a fine temperate day

Thursday 8th

A smart frost last night, 1 Lamb — Ephram & young Charles hauling wheat, big Charles helping to haul in wheat & Hay, Pompey feeding &c. a fine moderate day

Friday 9

A slight frost last night Ephram & young Charles hauling wheat, Charles went to W. Minnie with 44½ Bushels of Oats & 4 Barrels of Wheat flour, Charles returned late in the evening & did not sell the Oats some snow in the evening —