msa_te1_163-0112 © Maryland State Archives

one hundred pound, The above lands I give to John and his heirs forever —

Item I give and bequeath to my son George Evans purchase of two hundred Acres more or less Ricketts choice of one hundred and sixty acres more or less And I give him also four Negro boys and three girls and one hundred pound, the above lands I give to George and his heirs forever —

Item I give and bequeath to my wife William and Nan during her life, they and their increase to go to my Son John at her death —

Item I give and bequeath to my daughters Elizabeth Mary, Nancy and Sarah and my son Francis each an equal division of the residue of my Negroes such of them as have received any before, now to account for them in the above division mentioned

Item I give to my Sons John and George each a Colt to my Son John one of two years old and to George one of a year old to John likewise six oxen —

Item I give to my wife three Cows and three Calves to go to my Son John at her death —

Item I give and bequeath to be equally among my Children all the residue of my Estate first paying Mr Darnel Coist of the Money now in the House, his Account It is my Will that my Son John receive my son Francis's part to hold for his maintenance during his life and to be continued to John —

I hereby appoint my Son John and John Whittington joint Executors of this my last Will and Testament In witness whereof I ..... hereunto set my hand —

Signed and delivered in the presence of —

Francis Scrivener

Walter Harrison

Samd Harrison Junr

Lewis his 8 mark Scrivener

At the foot of the aforegoing Will are the following Probates Viz.t —

The Deposition of Doct.r Waller Harrison being sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and saith that he was called upon by Francis Scrivener to sign his name as a Witness to his Will, that he this Deponent did sign his name as a Witness to the said Will, and that he did see the said Francis Scrivener sign his name to the same and that he heard him publish pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament, that at the time of his so doing, he was to the best of his apprehension of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding, and that he this deponent together with Samuel Harrison Junr & Lewis Scrivener respectively subscribed their names as Witnesses to the said Will, in the presence and at the request of the Testator and in the presence of each other, This Deponent further saith the dating of the will was omitted, but that the Will of the said Francis Scrivener was executed on the first day of September in the present year, This Deponent further saith that Mr Francis Scrivener informed this Deponent that he wished to make some alteration in his Will, which was with respect to the naming of the Negroes in his Will that it might prevent Confusion — Sworn to this 3d day of November 1797 before —

Jno Gassaway Regr Wills AA Cty

The Deposition of Samuel Harrison Junr and Lewis Scrivener being sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and saith that they were called upon to sign their names as witnesses to Francis Scrivener's Will, and that they did see Francis Scrivener the Testator therein named sign his Will, and that they heard him publish pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament, that at the time of his so doing, he was to the best of their apprehensions of sound and disposing Mind Memory and understanding and that they together with Doct.r Walter Harrison the other subscribing Witnesses respectively subscribed their names as Witnesses to this Will, in the presence and at the request of the Testator and all in the presence of each other —

Sworn to this 3d day of November 1797 before —

Jno Gassaway Regr Wills AA Cty

Anne Arundel County sc. } Then came John Scrivener and John Whittington and made the 3d day of November 1797 } Oath on the holy Evangels of Almighty God, that the within Instrument of writing is the true and whole Will and Testament of Francis Scrivener, late of Anne Arundel County deceased, that hath come to their hands a profession, and that they do not know of any other —

Sworn before Jno Gassaway Regr Wills AA Cty

On the 20th day of November 1797 came Eleanor Scrivener the widow of Francis Scrivener late of Anne Arundel County deceased, and quitted her claim to the several bequests