EXTENSIVE AND DARING ROBBERY.—The office of E. R. Hooper, Esq., Attorney at Law, of this town, was enjered on Sunday night last by some person or persons and robbed of upwards of THIRTEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS in cash.—The thief or thieves effected their entrance through the back window, and after forcing all the drawers found the duplicate key of his iron safe, in which the money was deposited, and with this unlocked the safe and took therefrom the above sum, leaving but five dollars in silver which was deposited in another part of the safe. Such a loss falls with a crushing weight upon a young man just entering upon the arena of life, and what adds to the force of the blow is the fact that the money, with the exception of one hundred [illegible], belonged to Mr. H's. clients, and [illegible]

[illegible] congress [illegible] short time since a very sen[illegible] hour had the effect of [illegible] to a great extent. A few days past Mr. Adams made a speech which has created considerable excitement, and the sentiments uttered by him,—being favorable to the immediate passage of the resolutions giving notice to Great Britain of the termination of the Joint occupancy. We think it quite probable that too much importance has been attached to the sentiments of both of these gentlemen. Although both have some influence, yet neither has sufficient to control the destiny of the country either for weal or for woe. We are always grieved to see questions which concern the well being of the government assume a party character. But while we rejoice to say that such is not the case on this question, yet we fear it will assume an aspect still more ruinous, and dangerous to the interests of the country; we refer to the sectional character which it seems about to assume. It has been insinuated that Mr. Adams is favorable to Oregon on account of his abolition principles, and Mr. Geddings from Ohio, already has openly avowed his determination to go for the whole of Oregon, to restore the ballance of power between the slave and free States, which has been destroyed by the annexation of Texas, while Mr. Preston King of N. York, who is from Silas Wright's district, and is supposed to represent the views of the Old Hunkers of Tammany, has made some remarks which are quite cutting to the southern wing of Democracy, and by the by, are far from being flattering to President Polk. The truth is, the members from the free States begin to think that the South by the cry of Texas and Oregon, annexed Texas, and thus strengthened the slave interest, and that now they will leave them to whistle for Oregon. At any rate they vent their feelings towards each other in expressions not very mild or amiable, such "traitors," "nullifiers," "slave holders." Oliver Oldschool, the correspondent of the U. S. Gazette says that a staunch western Loco Foco told him a few days since, speaking of the southern Loco Focos, "we will have nothing more to do with them; they care for nothing but cotton, rice, negroes and tobacco; all their patriotism lies in them.—They were very willing to get Texas a slave country, into the union, to strengthen their hands; but now we want them to go for Oregon, they are scared half to death, and cry out stop! stop! wait! wait! England will fight us if we do not mind." The same correspondent states that language of similar import is very common; "it may be heard in the lobbies, in the streets and in bar rooms." We repeat that we feel grieved that great national questions like that of Oregon cannot be discussed in a calm and statesmanlike manner, without being brought down to the narrow minded and selfish policy, which ever characterizes the demagogue.

We have never believed that war would grow out of the Oregon question; our reason for thus thinking has been, that war would be very injurious to both nations, and that the question itself was one which ought to be settled in a different manner. But when slavery, abolitionism, and President making are all blended in it, it is difficult to say what will be the result. We should have given a more detailed account of the proceedings and interesting speeches of the last week, but for the length of the Governor's message.

LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND.

Correspondence of the American.

ANNAPOLIS, JAN. 6, 1846.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

The Speaker laid before the House several reports from county clerks, and academies.

Mr. Vansant presented a memorial from Gratitude Lodge of the I. O. O. F. of Baltimore city, for amendment of its charter.

Mr. Bowie submitted an order directing the committee on Retrenchment to enquire into the propriety of reducing the salaries of the Governor and Secretary of State, to take effect after the expiration of the term of the present incumbents, and to report by bill or otherwise. Adopted.

Leave was granted to report a bill to prevent frauds in mortgages and bills of sale.

Leave was granted to report a bill authorising the clerk of Washington county court to make out a certain index for the use of his office.

Mr. Frazier obtained leave to report a bill to rent out real estate in certain cases.

Mr. Ege submitted an order directing inquiry into propriety of reporting a bill providing for taking the sense of the people in reference to the call of a Convention to "amend" the Constitution of Maryland.

Mr Biser objected to its reception as an order covering the ground more fully had been submitted by him selfe He disclarmed any party consideration in the matter; had pledged his constituents, during the late election, to give an equal politscal division of delegates from Freerick county, in the Convention.

Mr. Ege as a "Reform delegate" from Carroll county, was auxious for reform, but desired to arrive at the same end by somewhat different means.

Mr. Clagett objected, on the part of the people of Prince George's county, to conventional reform; he expressed no want of confidence in the people, but he feared the influence of political demagogues. He appealed to delegates from the small counties, to go against conventional reform, fearful that they might not share equal numbers in delegates to the convention, &c.

Mr. McLane asked Mr. Ege if he designed to leave the power of amending unlimited, and to require a vote of the people upon all such amendments before they became the law of the land.—To which he received an affirmative answer, and an assurance that the people of Carroll county did not care how general might be the change.—Then, said Mr. McLane, that is all we want.

The order was then passed over.

Mr. Reeder submitted a sweeping proposition in reference to the colored population, but at the suggestion of several members, withdrew it.

Mr. Johnson, from the committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill for the more speedily collection of the public revenue. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Ware obtained leave to report a bill substituting a pro rata contribution in payment of persons actually transported from Baltimore County instead of the present mode of assessment for that purpose.

DIED.

Departed this transitory life, at his residence, in this town, on Wednesday morning last, in the 62nd year of his age, SAMUEL CORKRAN, Esq'r.

Few men in the walks of private life, have ever lived or died, in this or any other age or country, more generally esteemed and respected than the subject of this brief notice.—In the varied relations of Husband, Father, Friend and neighbor, none more kind, affectionate, sincere and obliging. He knew no guile or deception him-self and suspected none in others. We are assured he did not entertain a single unkind feeling towards any one living or dead, and that he has left no enemy behind him. Strictly honest and just in all his transactions—he had by industry, perseverance and frugality accumulated a comfortable competence in this life, which enabled him to raise and educate in a proper manner, a number of worthy and highly respectable children, who now deeply lament his loss.—His languishing Pillow was watched and softened, and his descending path to the Tomb smoothed by an affectionate and beloved family, and anxious friends, during his last illness. He had been for nearly forty years a worthy and deserving member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and we feel an abiding assurance that he has made his escape from this vale of tears, to that bright abode "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are forever at rest." The writer, (who now deeply deplores his loss) knew and was intimate with the deceased from a boy, and he can truly say that he never knew him in the wrong. May we all endeavor to imitate his bright example and strive to be prepared when the melancholly summons comes, to meet our dear departed friend, in a better world.

"Kind Ange's watch his sleeping dust
"Till Jesus comes to raise the just
Then may he wake with sweet surprise
And in his Saviour's image rise."

Friends and Fellow-Citizens,

I come before you as a tried servant, but pefore I unfold to you my future course, allow me to allude to the past. I have been engaged actively, diligently, yet honestly, for the few years past in an effort to purchase that most inestimable of all blessings, freedom. In that effort I have been aided by the kind patronage extended to me in my line of business, by many citizens. To particularise, when all have been so kind, would be invidious, but my feelings of gratitude will not permit me to let this opportunity pass, without thanking the ladies of Cambridge for their patronage and punctuality, I have never called upon them, and departed from their doors, empty handed; and I hope the time may speedily come when these ladies all, and these good gentlemen and their children, and their generation out, will all stand in the first frontier of pleasure without end, forever; and my feelings tell me that such will be the destiny of those who have acted such a good and noble part. I am sorry however to be compelled to say, that there are a few gentlemen who have been so delinquent in paying, that had all acted like them, I should not only now be a slave, but involved in a heavy debt.

I have changed my Oyster establishment to the Office lately occupied by Mr. Daniel M. Henry, opposite the Store House of the Messrs. Straughn, where I intend to keep a peaceable, calm and decent House, and I hope no person will come to my house, who is not willing to conduct himself peaceably and quietly, to be satisfied with my best exertions to please, and to pay as he goes. The kindness I have heretofore received from the ladies and gentlemen will cause me to redouble my exertions to give satisfaction. My house will be open from 8 (A. M.) to 10 1 2 (P. M.) The Public's obedient servant,

JOHN HAWKINS.

Low appointed by me as trustees to the said John Mobray Jr. and James B. Thompson and the said trustees having given bond with approved security for the performance of the trust and certified in writing that they are in possession of all the estate of the said John Mobray Jr. and James B. Persons at a distance may consult the French Doctor by letter, and have the medicine sent to them. Advice gratis.

NO MERCURY OR COPAIVA.

WHERE are two ways to treat a Secret Disease; the first so much boasted of, is merely the temporary disappearance of the symptoms, by means of mercury or copaiva, and requires but a day or two, but it is very injurious indeed; the second way is to eradicate it out of the system, slowly, safely, and surely, without Mercury or Copaiva.

Sound in a day or two,
'Tis too good to be true.

Thirty odd years of experience in the scientific practice of curing Secret Diseases in Paris and America, have enabled the French Doctor of the French MEDICAL HOUSE, 16 south Frederick street, near Second st. to eradicate the most virulent disease, no matter from what cause it may have originated, in a very short but reasonable time, without Mercury or Copaiva.—Victims of an improper treatment, and wearied with disappointment may confidently apply. Persons who have injured their Health by a certain practice called solitary vice, which brings impotency, will be restored to prime vigor. This is the only place in BALTIMORE where a sure cure can be had on written guaranty and forfeiture, with strict honesty and terms moderate. The most respectable city reference will be given. Advice gratis.

"CONFESSION."

I THE subscriber publicly confess that I have been afflicted with a Secret disease ever since 1823, I had thirteen eminent physicians whose names are recorded at the French Medical House; some of them abated the disease; but it always returned worse than before, until it carried away both sides of my throat and pierced the top of my palate. I also lost several bones of my nose and was almost blind of an eye, and my face was covered with an immense quantity of scabs, between which the skin was red as scarlet, and I was indeed in a most deplorable condition, so much so that the learned professor S. pronounced me incurable. It was obvious to me then that a common doctor could not extricate me from the jaws of death—for they all follow the same old routine with their train of mercury, mixture or pills, invented by ignorance and continued by cupidity, and do no good to any but the venders. Several persons recommended the French Doctor of the Medical House, 16 South FREDERICK ST. as a scientific man and a rare genius in those complaints. I went to him and he pledged himself to cure me on written guaranty, and he furnished me with one room in his house, as he generally does, with strangers, at no cure no pay. I did not hesitate at all on seeing so many likenesses of patients, who are living evidences of the many wonderful cures he has performed of almost every kind of disease. Then he had my daguerreotype likeness and I took his medicine for about a year which completely cured me.—He had then my other likeness taken, and both are to be seen at his office. If this meets the eye of some wretched being in the grasp of death, as I was, let him fly to this praiseworthy philanthropist, whose deep knowledge of the vital principles which animate and move the human frame, are known in both hemispheres, and I believe from my very soul (not forgetful that I am on oath) that his exquisite genius will discover as many new and well appropriated remedies, as new diseases may be formed.

THE subscriber being authorized by the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Cambridge, will sell at private sale the old Church as located on Church Street in said town. The House is 33 by 26 feet, sealed and plastered, all sound and good, with a capital frame. The purchaser can have possession as soon as the new Church on Race Street is finished, which will probably be about the 1st. of July next, with the priviledge of moving it at their leisure. I will also under the authority aforesaid, sell the back part of the Lot on which the new Church is now being built, fronting on Pine street and running from thence to the back line of the lot sold by the Trustees to Thomas White, Esquire. B. H. RICHARDSON, Esq.

RICHARD NORRIS, Esq., President.

The Board avail themselves of this opportunity to draw the attention of the public to some of the important features of their Charter:

1st. In this Company, all interests are equal; there is no privileged stock.

2d. Persons effecting insurance are not answerable for losses beyond the amount of premiums paid by them; and will divide amongst themselves annually neat profits.

3d. The capital of the Company is limited to half a million of dollars, and at the expiration of the Charter, that some is to be pro rata amongst all persons holding the Policies of the Company, without reference to the time when they were issued, or to the fact of their having expired.

4. In the selection of persons to act as Directors of this Company, there can be felt none of that proxy influence which has destroyed, or weakened some of our strongest corporations; with us, the direction of the affairs of the Company must be in the hands of those most deeply interested in its prober and prosperous management.

5th. Any Policy holder has the right and the privilege of looking at the monthly statement of its affairs.

6th. Persons insuring in this Company, upon a renewal of their risks, are entitled to a deduction of 5 per cent. on the amount of premiums.

Our Tariff of rates has been carefully revised and the form of our Policies has been amended under the best legal advice, so as to embrace all the modern improvements sugested by Experience. The classification of the Fire Risks, as well as the direction given to represent them in the application are so modified as to avoid all doubt and ambiguity, and with a view to avoid all possible difficulties in the settlement of losses.

I have accepted the agency of the above Company, and persons desirous of Insuring their Property will find me at all times at my store, where I will receive their proposals, give the necessary information, and have their Insurance affected as soon as returns can be had from the office at Baltimore.

THOS. HAYWARD, agent.
