SPRINGTIME IN KENT.

[A Letter to M. S.]

Dear Mastin, I must write you that 'tis honeysuckle time,
And snowy ropes of fragrant bloom make sweetness where they climb;
The lilacs now are faded, but the dogwood all ablow
Upon the hill by Henry Ward's is like the driven snow.

In peaceful, shady country lanes is music all day long;
Where mockingbirds in quiet nooks are rollicking in song;
A hundred lovely blossoms shed perfume on the way;
The sweet scent of magnolias invites our feet to stray.

The fishers on the Sassafras are singing at their work,
And while their slow nets search the deep I listen where I shirk.
This is a bonny, bonny land, and O, I love it well!
But not so well as that dear land where you have gone to dwell.

The time seems long since you were home; are you not coming soon?
Or do the bright eyes where you stay for you turn night to noon?
I know you must be homesick for the sweet green lanes of Kent,
For the year has changed from winter to summer since you went.

BELLE CAPLES MORRIS.

Picknell

35381.

RECORD, 2:15¼.
Made in third heat of Winning Race.
Bred by C. W. Williams, Galesburg, Ill. Foaled 1901.

A model in every way: his size, 15.2 hands; weight close to 1050 pounds, and color, mahogany bay, are ideal. His DISPOSITION and MANNERS are PERFECT. His BREEDING, the HIGHEST of FASHION—a SON of the GREATEST SIRE of his AGE, LIVING or DEAD.

ALLERTON, 2:09¼; WORLD'S CHAMPION TROTTING STALLION to high wheels, from one of the greatest PRODUCING DAUGHTERS of BARON WILKES, 2:18; the famous FUTURITY SIRE. A RACE HORSE himself, never having worn hobbles nor other false rigging; started green in the late summer of 1906 in six races, winning two of them, and was well up in the money, the other four he has, (though prominent horsemen have pronounced him capable of a record of 2:05 or better), he retired to the STUD, SOUND, CLEAN, SUPERBLY HANDSOME, with VIGOR and VITAL unimpaired, saving for his off-spring what a mere racing-machine wears out on the track.

PICKNELL will make the season of 1909 at my stables, Kent and Calvert Streets, Chestertown Kent Co., Maryland, at $15.00 the season, or $25.00 to insure approved mares.

Will not be responsible for accidents or escapes, but best of care taken of mares sent to me.

For extended pedigree that will interest any horseman, or for fuller particulars call on address
