KILLS NEGRO ON ROOF

J. A. Cannan Shoots Ex-Convict Through The Heart.

WAS TRYING TO ENTER HOUSE

Negro Had Before Attempted To Enter Through Window, But Met Death On Fifth Trip.

In making his fifth trip on the porch roof at the home of J. A. Cannan, at Cecilton, James Price, 40 years old, a desperate negro ex-convict, lost his life, when shot below the heart by Mr. Cannan about 10.30 Saturday night. Price, who was released from Maryland Penitentiary about 15 months ago, after serving a long term for attempting to commit an assault on Mrs. Sarah Simon, in Elkton, returned to his home, in Cecilton, and in the past few months had made four different attempts to gain the bedroom of Miss Martha Cannan, an 18-year-old public school teacher. Two weeks ago the negro was seen on the porch roof at the Cannan home, and was warned to keep away from the premises.

Recently Mr. Cannon went to Elkton and consulted State's Attorney Albert Constable as to what he should do, telling the county prosecutor that should the negro again attempt to enter his home he would shoot him.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the family retired for the night. Half an hour later Miss Cannan discovered the negro on the roof trying to raise her bedroom window. Quickly going to her father's room she called him. Mr. Cannan picked up his revolver and entered the room. The negro, hearing him coming, began to descend from the porch roof, when he fired, the bullet striking the negro near the heart. Price fell to the ground, ran about 50 yards and fell dead on the main street of the town.

Mr. Cannan then telephoned to Sheriff J. Wesley McAllister and State's Attorney Constable, who with Coroner J. Frank Frazer, went to Cecilton at midnight and investigated the case. Mr. Cannan surrendered himself to the Sheriff and was released on his own recognizance for the action of the September term of court. The jury of inquest exonerated Mr. Cannan from all blame, and commended him on his action.

Great Season At Betterton.

The usual August rush is over, but a good crowd still remains at the resort and the hotels and cottages are comfortably filled. Some of the hotels and cottages are booked for guests well into September, which is the ideal weather month of the year, and if the weather continues good, the resort will be open some time yet.

Moonlight nights made straw rides and boating very popular last week. The most interesting special attraction of the week was the Misses Cox and Kegel, fancy trick skaters, who gave exhibitions at the beach amusea rink Thursday and Saturday evenings before large audiences.

Baseball still continues good and the Betterton Club still victorious. They defeated the following clubs last week: Rising Sun, 4-0; Collington Stars, 6-4; Reliance Athletic Club, 6-0, and North Avenue Combination, 5-4.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Burke, of Pittsburg, arrived here last week to spend part of their honeymoon. They were met at the boat and escorted to the Hotel Chesapeake by the Liberty Hunting and Fishing Club, of which Mr. Burke is a member. The club's band led the procession playing wedding marches, and things were made unusually lively around the hotel.

Congressman J. Harry Covington, of Easton, Md., visited his father Mr. James H. Covington, at his cottage here during the week. Mr. Covington was to have made an address here on Friday, but was prevented, owing to a sore throat.

"PRAYER OF A HORSE."

To The, My Master, I Offer My Prayer.

Feed me water and care for me, and when the day's work is done provide me with shelter, a clean, dry bed and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort. Talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins. Pet me sometimes, that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you. Do not jerk the reins, and do not whip me when going up hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you want, but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me, and if I fail to do your bidding, see if something is not wrong with my harness or feet.

Examine my teeth when I do not eat. I may have an ulcerated tooth, and that, you know, is very painful. Do not tie my head in an unnatural position, or take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my tail.

And, finally, O, my master! when my useful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner to be slowly tortured and starved to death; but do thou, my master, take my life in the kindest way, and your God will reward you here and hereafter. You will not consider me irreverent if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a stable.—Amen.
