SOCIETY REALMS.

Mrs. Samuel Vannort sustained a fall one day last week which slightly injured her hip. She was incapacitated for several days, but we are glad to state has recovered.

Mrs. Delma Draper, of Baltimore, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. A. Toulson, during the week.

Mr. L. Wethered Barroll, who is taking a course at the Maryland University Law School in Baltimore, was the recipient of a distinguished honor last week when he was unanimously elected president of his class. This is a distinct compliment to Mr. Barroll, as he had no idea that he was being considered for the honor.

Miss Angie Gray is the guest of Mrs. Thomas D. Bowers on Washington avenue.

Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard and family will arrive at their home from California this morning. Mr. Hubbard attended the National Bankers Association Convention in Los Angeles while in California.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brice have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Moore, in New York this week.

Mr. James Brice and family, Mr. Ricards Watkins and Mr. Earle Thomas, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Brice on Washington avenue on Sunday, having made the trip in Mr. Brice's Ford touring car.

Mr. Hynson Rogers, who is taking a course in law at the Maryland Law School, Baltimore, was at home for Sunday.

Col. W. S. McCracken, the genial mail agent on the local train, is enjoying a two weeks vacation.

Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter attended the quarterly meeting of the W. F. M. S. in Baltimore last week.

Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman and family are preparing to remove to their Washington avenue home about November 1.

Miss Florence Green, of Baltimore, was the guest of friends here on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Arthur Mitchell and daughter, Mrs. Alfred Taylor, and two children, and Mrs. Geo. T. Ash, of Elkton, spent one day last week with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis on High street.

Mr. Dumont Lambert, of Panama, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Geo. E. Lambert. Mr. Lambert left Panama last Monday week on a fast steamer for New York, arriving there last Sunday at midnight. He came immediately to Chestertown and took his home folks completely by surprise. It was a most agreeable surprise, however, as Dumont has been absent from home for some months.

Captain and Mrs George Tarbutton, of Baltimore, and formerly of Kent, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Katherine May, to Charles F. Fink, of that city, Wednesday, Nov. 2, in Lafayette M.P. Church, Baltimore. Miss Tarbutton is a granddaughter of the late Wm. H. Smith, of Queen Annes Co. Md.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Page Strong, of Baltimore, are visiting Dr. Strong's mother Mrs. G. Romie Strong. Dr. Strong is convelesing after a severe spell of typhoid fever at the Hospital.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Barrett have been visiting friends in Elkton and Wilmington, Del., during the week.

Mr. Harry C. Willis, of near town, has been nursing an injured hand during the week.

J. H. C. Legg, Esq., and William J. Price, of Centreville, were in Chestertown on Wednesday.

DEMOCRACY THE ANTIDOTE.

Frequently since General Grant was a candidate for a third term we have heard of the "man-on-horseback" as a fear of what will sometime happen in this Republic. That dread has now seized the minds of many people through the evident intention of Theodore Roosevelt to make himself master of the Republican party. They fear he is a candidate for a third term, and if elected—then for a fourth term, and thus gravitate to the man-on-horseback. This dread of usurpation by any man should not disturb any sensible person. The patriotism of the great majority of American people would rebel against any such attempt, and any coterie or party who could endorse such a movement would be smothered under an avalanche of opposing votes.

There is but one danger to guard against, and that could only be imminent in consequence of a long war with some foreign nation in which a great and successful general would be developed, without whose efforts defeat would be probable; or if defeat occurred he would seize the reins of government in consequence of the exhaustion of the civil power following an overwhelming disaster.

But there are no grounds for fearing such a catastrophe. In the near future it is probable that, as the people gain more power, both the army and the navy will be reduced instead of being increased as the Republicans have long desired.

Those timid souls who dread the future, and those who imagine such a vain thing as a usurper, can rest assured that the great mass of the people of the United States will stand firm for the Constitution and the laws based upon it and Democracy which is founded thereon

A Mammoth Gobbler.

Frank D. Harrison, Judge of the Orphans' Court, of Talbot County has perhaps the largest turkey gobbler in Maryland which is but one year old. He procured it last year when but a young Tom from Elijah W. West, Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court in exchange for a bull. Judge Harrison says that the bird is so large and heavy that it is next to impossible for it to fly upon the perch to roost, and a few nights ago, the ground being damp from the rain, he attempted to roost upon the fence, but he had not been on the perch long when, in attempting to change his position, broke down the fence, which was a strong one.

I suffered for a long time from bearing-down pains in the small of my back and a weakness through my loins.
