Terrible Trespass Fatality.

The shocking fatality that occurred in this city, late last week, when a young woman was killed and a young man terribly injured by being struck by a train on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, should stand as a potent warning against the folly of tresspassing on railroad lines.

These two young persons started out for a walk, and in order to shorten the way to their destination, made a highway of the railroad tracks. It is a general custom of persons residing in the neighborhood, we understand, to make use of the railroad as a convenience in this illegal and reprehensible manner, and these two felt that they could indulge in the practice without danger. It is doubtful if they had the slighest compunctions; indeed, it is possible that they would have laughed to scorn any warning from the more prudent. Yet they deliberately entered upon the pathway to death. They noted the approach of one train and in getting out of its way, stepped in front of a train approaching from the opposite direction and disaster fell swiftly upon them.

This lamentable happening may be duplicated any day, nay, any hour of any day, as long as people persist in the extremely hazardous practice of employing railroad tracks as public highways. Years ago the danger was at a minimum, but now it is at the extreme at all times, by reason of the great number of trains continually moving in opposite directions upon all the railroad systems.

People should not trepass on railroad properties, and the railroad authorities should resolve to sternly enforce the law against such trespass. If not, the terrible slaughter will continue.—Wilmington Every Evening.

Crying For Help.

Lots of it in Chestertown But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help.

Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed.

Not one so important to health.

The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous.

There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble.

It is the kidneys' cry for help. Heed it.

Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted.

Are just what overworked kidneys need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work.

Mrs. Louisa D. Baker, 429 S. Governors Ave., Dover, Del., says: "I willingly recomend Doan's Kidney Pills. They were used in my family for a long-standing case of kidney trouble and brought a cure, after other preparations had failed to even give relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
