ure should revise let the Wilson bal-conference in Washington, be very plain to the people of why the TRANSCRIPT supported Senator Gorman for Governor instead of Senator Lee.

THE most popular and influential men in politics are most generally those who have the greatest number of enemies. The man who has no enemies is a nonentity. The man who does things is bound to have enemies.

SENATOR Arthur P. Gorman has taken decidedly the right stand in his vigorous opposition to any legislation in the next General Assembly that will strip Governor-elect Goldsborough of his appointing power.

WE trust that our Senators and Representatives in Congress will vote for the abrogation of the Russian treaty. The United States has practiced diplomacy long enough with that nation. Some other course is necessary.

GOV. WILSON captured Maryland on Wednesday by his two great speeches in Baltimore—one to the farmers in the Fifth Regiment Armory, the other in the Lyric. These speeches showed that Gov. Wilson is not only a statesman but he is a patriot and seer as well. And every one of the thousands who heard him sized him up as being big presidential timber.

NINETY-SEVEN PER CENT. of the Democratic voters of the State of Delaware are favorable to the nomination of Gov. Woodrow Wilson for President of the United States, according to a poll made by letter by National Committeeman Willard Saulsbury. New Jersey is for Wilson, Pennsylvania Democrats have declared for him, and we believe that the sentiment in Maryland is stronger for Wilson than for any other one mentioned. The sentiment in Kent county is overwhelmingly for Gov. Wilson.

MR. HARRY DAVIS, the retiring president of the Board of County Commissioners, has made one of the most competent and careful officials the county has ever had. He has served the tax-payers of the county faithfully and in the interest of good business economy, and has retired from the presidency of the Board with the confidence and esteem of the great mass of the people. Messrs. Loud and Dudley go out with Mr. Davis. They, too, have had a continuous service for eight years, during which time they have given strict attention to their business, and we congratulate them upon the diligence the have exercised in the discharge of their duties.

KENT and Queen Anne's counties have played conspicuous parts in the various farmers meetings in Baltimore this week. Hon. James S. Harris presided at the session of the State Horticultural Society; Mrs. T. E. W. Crew is a State officer of the State Grange, and her picture appeared in the Baltimore American on Tuesday; Harry P. Skipper presided at the session of the State Cereal and Crop Breeders Association, and Messrs. J. T. Anthony, Deputy Organizer of Granges, and W. Irving Walker also took active parts. Mr. Thos. D. Bowers was chairman of the committee on Co-operation of the State Grange, but was unable to be present on account of the pressure of business.

WE sincerely trust that the Democratic leaders will not force through at the next session of the Maryland Legislature any such legislation as was suggested at the recent conference held in Washington. It makes no difference how sincere may be the motives of those who propose such legislation, their acts will be construed by the rank and file of the party as the rankest sort of partisan legislation, and the people will administer a stinging rebuke to the Democratic party if such a thing is done. The Democratic party will never convince the people that their motive for passing such legislation is for the welfare of the State. The people will rather construe such action as an attempt to throttle the will of the people expressed in the last election. Don't do it.

WHEN the editor of a newspaper will consume three columns of his paper in discussing something which he admits is apparent only and not real, it reminds us of poor old Dan Cooper, an innocent and inoffensive colored man of this town, who used to go out with his shovel and dig for gold when the moon was full. The moon was full during the week and the editor of the Enterprise has been digging in the commissioners' office for what he discovered—a "mare's nest," and has been endeavoring to stir up the "mare's nest," but he has called for the admission which he is trying to the suggestion in the REPORT and to which we devote a column. So far as the insinuations are concerned we care about that. We are deprived because of the difference from

THE TRANSCRIPT is very much obliged to the ladies of Baltimore for the splendid entertainment they gave our Kent ladies during "Maryland Week." Automobile rides and teas were much enjoyed, and we are quite sure that our ladies will be delighted to return the kindness when the occasion arises.

THE 62nd session of Congress convened in Washington on Monday. A Democratic President is a sure thing if the Democrats play their game in the interest of the people and revise the tariff as it should be revised. The conduct of the Democrats in Congress will determine what the next President will be, if not who. So be careful, Democrats, and keep your ear to the ground.

THE ENTERPRISE'S ESTIMATE OF ITS CONTEMPORARIES.

In an "exhaustless" editorial in Wednesday in discussing the merits of the editorials which appeared in the TRANSCRIPT and Kent News last Saturday, this is the way the Enterprise "sizes up" its two contemporaries:

"The News has a style of argument which for ambiguity has the wily Chinee beat a mile. It can make the most illogical representations sound to the average reader like the wisdom of Solomon. The News always reminds us of the fellow who administers an anæsthetic to extract a tooth or pull your leg!"

"What bitter disappointment must have come to those readers who are accustomed to take its (the TRANSCRIPT'S) utterances as nectar from the gods when they read the feeble protest that there is no occasion for alarm. How the mighty faileth at critical moments."

Ahem! the peacock will have to borrow another plume after such a send off. Thanks, Bates, we'll use our brains in your behalf sometime.

ENTERPRISE MAKES ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

In view of the fact that the Enterprise complied with the suggestion of the TRANSCRIPT and makes the following acknowledgment of its position on the apparent discrepancy, found in the recent report of the county auditing committee, we do not deem it necessary to engage in a controversy about the matter. The editor of the Enterprise found the apparent discrepancy. It says it can be easily explained. Let it do the explaining. Its acknowledgment is as follows:

"We do not charge any wrong doing. We do not imply any misappropriation of funds. We do not reflect upon the integrity or competency of any officer. We attribute the trouble to the fact that the accounts in the different departments are not balanced concurrently, and herein lies the weakness of the system, as the items thus paid cannot be shown in current levy statement and even if accounted for in subsequent statements the overlapping accounts would effectually smother errors of "omission and commission" and complicates the accounts so that no true audit is possible. The books of the commissioners office and the county treasurer should close concurrently.

"Then, too, the matter of insolvencies and delinquencies may enter into the explanation of the discrepancy apparent in the financial statement of the county."

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

☞The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of puclic interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the public should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matters excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

Worton, Md., Dec. 6, 1911.

I see that you are advocating the repeal of the Gibbs Road Law. I heartily agree with you. Not a ditch in this precinct, so far as I can see, has been opened in a year, and the road running past the Williams farm is as bad a piece of road as there is in this county. Instead of the roads being properly drained the water is allowed to run right down the roads, and if the roads are allowed to go on under the present supervision much longer, they will cost the tax-payers a pile of money. Some of the farmers, notably Mr. Perry B. Rasin, have undertaken to clean out the ditches in order to make the roads passable. Let's repeal the Gibbs Road Law, and give the roads the proper kind of supervision.

Yours respectfully,
THIRD DISTRICT FARMER.

ASSEMBLY LEADERS UPPERMOST.

Democrats Interested in Fight For Senate President And Speaker.

Democrats who attend the conference at the Eutaw House recently manifested more interest in the selection of a President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Delegates and State Treasurer than they apparently did in an extra session.

The fight for the Presidency of the Senate will be between Senators Blair Lee, of Montgomery county, and Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico county, and for the Speakership between Mr. Ogle Marbury, of Prince George's county, and Mr. Harry A. Osborn, of Harford county.

The same forces that will support Senator Lee in all probability will support Mr. Osborn, while friends of Messrs. Price and Marbury will work in unison. It is expected that the combination formed by Senator Lee regarding the Presidency and Speakership will have the backing of Governor Crothers and Congressman Talbott, while on the Treasurership Mr. Talbott will throw his influence to Mr. Murray Vandiver, thus undoubtedly weakening the combination on this fight.

We solicit shipments direct from farmers, as we find we get our finest poultry from them. The best buyers of our city know we handle fancy Maryland poultry direct from the farm, and, therefore, come to us for their supply.

We had a nice business from Kent and Queen Annes counties last year, but having moved into one of the finest locations, and having the largest store space in our city, we want much heavier shipments.

Remember our motto: "Best goods for our buyers, top prices for our shippers and a square deal to all."

Write us at once what you have, and we will keep you posted.
