Wall Papers and Paints.

Wall Paper

Our stock of new Wall Papers is nearly all in—over 9000 rolls. We purchased at a lower price and will sell at a lower price than ever before. The cash discounts on this bill is enough profit for us. We can sell these papers at the same price our competitors pay for what they buy. The starting price is but come and see these papers and prices will surprise you. We'll sell paper. We sell you the paper outright or send you a competent man to hang it. No charge for our team.

2½c Per Single Roll up to 10c Per Roll,

Paint

Big Reduction in the price of B. P. S. Paint.

The Patterson Sargent Co. are using what they call their Universal Label on all their different products. So to keep in touch with this move, we have decided to sell all gallon cans bearing old labels at cost

$1.75 Per Gallon.

Also Hirschberg Hollander & Co.'s Stag Semi-Paste Paint; 1 gallon makes 2 gallons at $1.75. This reduction comes in season, don't wait as these prices won't last. Back they go when this lot is gone.

Making Good in Journalism.

Mr. Charles W. Boggs, formerly of Crumpton, but now of Davenport, Iowa, will please accept our thanks for a copy of a special edition of the Democrat and Leader, of which he is business manager. The Democrat and Leader is one of the most up-to-date and live papers in the State of Iowa, and owes much of its success to the ability and skill of Mr. Boggs. He has made good in the field of journalism, and judging from the large number of advertisements and the general tone of the paper, we would place Mr. Boggs among the prosperous journalists of the west, and his paper among the money winners. Mr. Boggs married Miss Helen Jefferson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Jefferson, of this town. He is a young gentleman of fine character and splendid business ability. We wish him continued success.

Millington Items.

Messrs. Edward Abel, Walter Manning and Frank Carpenter and family, of Philadelphia, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodall.

Miss Fannie Hurtt spent this week at Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Comegys, E. Palmer Comegys, C. Percy Comegys, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Comegys, two children and mother, of Wilmington, Del., have been summer guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. John S. Newnan, of near town.

Mr. Charles Severson, of Baltimore, visited our town Sunday.

Mr. Laurie Hackett, of Chestertown, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Some of the children are very much elated at school not opening until the 16th of September. But we all agree, that it is too warm yet, to be cooped up in a school room.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dalton and daughters, Gertrude and Marion, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Ford.

Fire destroyed the part of the stacked wheat of Mr. Lloyd Dill. No one seems to know how the fire started. The threshing machine was on the farm to begin threshing Wednesday morning.

WILSON STANDS ON HIS RECORD

Josephus Daniels Invites Close Study of Writings.

SLANDER WON'T WIN NOW.

Chairman of Democratic Publicity Bureau Points Out Errors of Campaigns of Previous Years and Finds a Good Moral—Roosevelt Also Wrote Books and Made Bitter Attacks on Various Men and Classes.

New York.—Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity committee of the Democratic national committee, said today:

"Eight years ago during the presidential campaign of 1904 I came to New York, and, being a member of the Democratic national committee, I dropped in at the headquarters of the committee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton' and a half dozen others of the works of the then Republican nominee for president I wondered whether or not I had got into the right place.

"I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workingmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writing of Theodore Roosevelt as:

"'Cowboys are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers, nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath.'

"'Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land—the farmers.'

"'They (workingmen who object to government by injunction) are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality.'

Hits Quakers Too.

"They quoted from what he said about the Quakers, that those who would not fight were traitors to their country.

"They said that when the farmers and workmen and the Quakers came to know what Theodore Roosevelt had written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and, of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country.

"As to whether or not that sort of campaigning had any effect the result of the campaign eight years ago speaks for itself.

"The Republican party is attempting to do today the same sort of thing that the Democrats tried in 1908. The Democrats out-Rodenberged Mr. Rodenberg. They were eight years ahead of him in this sort of thing. It didn't work with us then, and it will not work with them now.

Stands on His Record.

"The attempt to attack Governor Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian will fail signally. As one great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rodenberg and his kind are simply 'Blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for president on his record as a public man, and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses.

"He is running for president on his record as governor of New Jersey—what he said and did in that capacity rather than what he wrote as a historian, chronicling events and commenting upon them as they appeared to an impartial observer whose duty it is to write of things as they are rather than as they should be or as he would have them.

"Our Republican brethren are entitled to all the thunder they can make out of Governor Wilson's writings. I hope they will read them carefully and thoroughly. They will be able to gain a great deal of valuable information, and when the context is read along with the excerpts which have been taken from his works for the purpose of placing him in a false light I have no fear as to the results. All that is needed is a thorough understanding.

"Ingersoll sought to disprove Bible truths and to assail Holy Writ by the same methods which the Republicans are seeking to assail Governor Wilson."

The average business man has awakened to the fact that it is a good investment to give some of his time to political affairs. This is one of Democracy's best signs of victory.

Perhaps the Republicans, as represented by Taft, are satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. But the majority of the voters are not.
