utes 26 45 seconds. Atley Lankford of Sharptown, was third, with a time of 3 minutes 47 3-5 seconds.

Others who entered were Preston Mills, Golden Hill; William Robbins, of Robbins; and Carl Roussi, Kane's Ditch.

It was the first muskrat skinning contest ever held here, the first ever held anywhere as far as the contest officials knew.

Judges were Dr. Herbert Dozie, Marion Bennett, Chestertown; Fred Malkus, Salisbury, and William Heim, Rome, N. Y.

After the contest, George Briddell, Crisfield inventor, presented each of the contestants with six of his new "delayed action" traps.

minor judiciary. The law as it now stands provides that the Governor must appoint 714 justices of the peace in the counties. Under the bill now before the General Assembly this would be cut to fifty-two. Added to these would be the necessary magistrates for the police, traffic, people's and juvenile courts in Baltimore city."

The justices of the peace are to be included in the "green bag" being sent to the Senate this week by Governor O'Conor.

Mr. LeVines said that in the event the judicial reorganization bill is passed after the appointments are confirmed, all of the appointees but the fifty-two provided by the new bill would be shorn of their powers.
