[COMMUNICATED ARTICLE]

The Final Destiny of the Nations.

ARTICLE III.

TO THE EDITOR:

When the Lord comes to establish his kingdom on earth, he will not find peace among the nations, but they will be engaged in fighting the battle of Armageddon in the valley of Jehoshaphat in the Turkish Empire in Asia. The nations will not be prepared to receive him as King of kings and Lord of lords, but, on the contrary, we are told in Sacred Writ that "the nations were angry." "And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him." "And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations, and he shall rule them with a rod of iron, and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God." Rev. 11:18; 19:19,15.

Paul tells us that just before the Lord comes the second time to deliver his own, the world is being deceived by the false doctrines of "peace and safety." 1 Thess. 5:3. The nations of this world will never crown Christ as their King. Some of our so-called reformers who are trying to induce people into the kingdom of God by the force of civil statutes, and to usher the kingdom of God into this world through the gateway of politics, are working on a plan that can only raise false hopes. This present world, with all its plans, is doomed, and all the nations of the earth are to be "broken to pieces together, and become like the chaff of the summer threshing floors."

The Saviour told his disciples that there would be signs in the heavens above and in the earth beneath whereby his followers were to know that his coming was "near, even at the doors." The driving of the Turk out of Europe was just to precede the battle of Armageddon, and at the termination of this battle the Lord was to smite the nations, dashing them "in pieces like a potter's vessel." Ps. 2:9. It seems, according to human foresight, as if the European war was the prelude to the extinction of the Turkish Empire in Europe. But according to the prophecy in Daniel 11 and 12 and Revelation 16, the Turkish Empire was not only to come to its "end" in Europe, but also in Asia. According to the Bible, the battle of Armageddon is to be fought immediately after the Turkish Empire is "dried up."

The prophecy declares: "And he (the king of the north, or the Turk) shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain (in Jerusalem); yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. And at that time shall Machael (Christ) stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people, and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time, and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt." Dan. 11:45; 12:1, 2.

Luther and his colaborers understood the fulfilment of this prophecy to constitute a sign of the end of the world. In speaking of this prophecy, the great Reformer said, "If we beat back the Turk, the prophecy of Daniel will be fulfilled and the end will be at hand. Then the day of judgment is surely at our doors."—"Martin Luther," by Gustav Freytag, page 11.

Hitherto England has helped Turkey to resist Russia's efforts to obtain possession of Constantinople and the Dardanelles, but to-day she helps Russia to drive out the Turk. In a remarkable speech delivered at the guildhall in the city of London, Nov. 9, 1914, the Prime Minister, Mr. Asquith, in response to a toast of His Majesty's ministers, said: "I wish to make it clear, not only to my fellow-countrymen, but to the world outside, that this is not our doing. It is in spite of our hopes and efforts—it is the Ottoman government that has drawn the sword, and which, I venture to predict, will perish by the sword. It is they and not we who have rung the death knell of Ottoman dominion, not only in Europe, but in Asia. . . . . The Turkish empire has committed suicide, and dug with its own hand its grave."—The Times (weekly edition), London, England, Nov. 13, 1914.

But let it be remembered that divine revelation has decreed the doom of the world when Turkey falls in Asia. The downfall of Turkey in Asia is the last trumpet blast announcing the death knell of all the nations at the battle of Armageddon. This is no time to put our trust in princes nor in riches. Our only hope is in God and his Son, through whose blood we have redemption from our sins by faith. The day of God is drawing nigh and hasteth greatly. Every one will then have to meet God at the judgment bar to give an account of himself. "Prepare to meet thy God."

Very sincerely yours,
Elder of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Sassafras Mill Burned.

The large frame grist mill known as Dreka's Mills, located at Sassafras, Md., was burned to the ground last week. The mill are owned by Perry Othoson, who has operated them for about two years. Mr. Othoson was running the mill late that night, when the fire started, being busy grinding corn for a patron. The machine in some way became overheated from friction of some sort. Mr. Othoson noticed sparks coming from the machine and started for some water and on his return found the framework around the machine ablaze. The building and machinery are a total loss. The damage is about $4,000 and is partly insured.
