Gentlemen

London 10 March 1757

Our last was the 12 May 1755 & Since then we have not had any from you.

This comes to bring the acc Currant for the Paper Currency of the Province of Maryland, to this time, the ballance thereof you will find to be £3299. 1. 4 on the Credit Side; And also Mr Hunts acc Curr: for payment of small Sums, & the ballance due from him is £60. 15. 3, You will pleace to take notice we have not any bills in our Hands that are unpaid.

The above mentioned Sum of £3299. 1. 4 is the balance of our Cash acc: in the Bank Books in our joynt Names, And next month half a year dividend to the 5th will be paid on the £19500 Capital Stock.

You may wonder, as the Sum lying dead, that we have not Invested it or some part thereof as we have from time to time heretofore done, But as the Times lately & still are so Precarious, we thought it better to deferr it, as we have done, notwithstanding the loss of the Interest, the price of the Stock is at 119 ℔ C, & doubt will shortly be lower, We shall act to the best of our judgments for the Countrys Interest, at all times, And are

Gentlemen Yr verry humble Servts
