TIRBUTE OF A CANADIAN FATHER TO HIS SON.

(Edward Markham, the poet, under the unpatriotic title, "I Did Not Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier," wrote these lines:

"O mothers will you longer give your sons to feed the awful hunger of the guns?". Dr. James L. Hughes answered this poem. Greater significance is given to the answer by the fact that Doctor Hughes' own son was killed in battle.)

God gave my son in trust to me;
Christ died for him, and he should be
A man for Christ. He is his own,
And God's and man's, not mine alone.
He was not mine to "give." He gave Himself that he might help to save
All that a Christian should revere,
All that enlightened men hold dear.

"To feed the guns!" Ah, torpid soul!
Awake, and see life as a whole.
When freedom, honor, justice, right
Were threatened by the despot's might,
With heart aflame and soul alight,
He bravely went for God to fight
Against base savages whose pride
The laws of God and man defied.

"Forgotten grave!" This selfish plea
Awakes no deep response in me,
For, though his grave I may not see,
My boy will ne'er forgotten be.
My real son can never die;
'Tis but his body that may lie
In foreign land, and I shall keep Remembrance fond, forever deep
Within my heart of my true son
Because of triumphs that he won.
It matters not where any one
May lie and sleep when work is done.

It matters not where some men live;
If my dear son his life must give,
Hosannas I will sing for him,
E'en though my eyes with tears be dim,
And when the war is over, when
His gallant comrades come again,
I'll cheer them as they'er marching by,
Rejoicing that they did not die.
And when his vacant place I see,
My heart will bound with joy that he
Was mine so long—my fair young son,
And cheer for him whose work is done.

TIRED, WORN-OUT AND MISERABLE

Many Chestertown People in This Condition.

There is little rest for many a kidney sufferer.

The kidneys feel congested, sore and painful.

The urinary passages are often irregular and distressing.

The sufferer, tired, worn-out and depressed.

Weak kidneys need quick help.

They need a special kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test.

A remedy especially for kidney ailments.

Can any Chestertown reader doubt this statement?

Mrs. Romie Patrick, High St., Chestertown, says: "I was in a bad way with my kidneys. They acted too frequently. My back caused me a lot of pain and seemed as though weights were tied to it pulling me down. I felt tired out all the time and I was surely in a miserable condition. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from M. A. Toulson's Drug Store, and the trouble entirely disappeared."

STYLISH COATS READY FOR YOU

This is surely a great Coat Year. Last week eager buyers bought up nearly all our Good Coats. On Monday we got in touch with Strawbridge & Clothier and fortunately, for you and for us, they were prepared to let us have a good supply of Coats by return express. Some of the models are even prettier than the ones we formally had, and we invite you to come in to-day and get fitted.

Wonderful Values Beautiful Styles.

Prices$ 15, $18, $20, $25 and up to $50.

SHOES FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Not in recent years have the prices of Shoes been so high as now.

If it were not for the fact that we already had on hand an immense stock of Good Shoes before the prices advanced, the exceptional values we are offering would be impossible.

For instance, next week we will have on sale several styles of J. & K. Shoes with about all sizes and widths represented at

$3.90 per pair

At prevailing prices these Shoes are worth $6.00 and $7.00 per pair.

For next week we will sell a J. & K. Dark Brown English Walking Boot at $7.00 a pair. This is just what the young ladies and High School girls want.
