E PLURIBUS UNUM

WESTMINSTER:

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1860.

AMERICAN SENTINEL, FOR THE CAMPAIGN!

For the purpose of contributing our feeble abilities to the triumphant success of the principles of the great Constitutional Union Party, and keeping all patriots fully posted on the exciting and interesting events of the coming campaign, at small cost, we will furnish the SENTINEL from this time until after the Presidential election, at 50 cents, in advance; or, a club of five for $2 50, and an extra copy for sending it; or, clubs of ten for $5, and $1 in cash, or 2 extra copies. Our friends getting up clubs will place us under renewed obligations, and will invariably find us willing and ready to make proper remuneration for their time and trouble. Help us, Union-loving friends, to circulate the documents!

Constitutional Union Convention.

This body met in Baltimore on Wednesday last, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. Already in the early part of the week delegates and strangers from all parts of the Union were flocking in crowds to the city. We will present our readers with the proceedings in our next issue. S. R. Coale is the delegate from this County.

Marriage Licenses

During the past four months ending on the 1st inst., the Clerk of the Circuit Court of this County issued 41 marriage licenses, being a decrease of 11 compared with the corresponding months of last year.

Joyful Tidings

Shout aloud and sing pæens of gratitude, Summer is with us! She was brought to town on Saturday in a huge pocket of a plush-colored cotton coat worn by the man with slouch hat and white pants!

Real Estate Sale.

A tract of 20 acres of land, improved with a fine tavern house, &c., situated on the Littlestown Pike, 6 miles above town, was sold a few days since at private sale by John Frock to Joshua Wisner, for $1,700 cash. Very cheap.

Poisoning a Horse.

One night last week a miserable creature in the shape of a man poisoned a fine season horse, belonging to Mr. David A. Owings, of this District, from the effects of which he has not yet recovered. Any man who is so far steeped in iniquity as to poison a dumb brute, is unfit for association in genteel society, and should be severely punished.

Tall Wheat.

A very beautiful specimen of Wheat, measuring 34 inches in length, from one of the fields of Mr. James Doyle, West End, has been left at our office. It is said to be only a representative of several fields of a similar kind. Indeed, all grain fields look exceedingly well and give great promise of an abundant yield.

The May Ball.

The first ball of the season under the auspices of the Westminster Assemblies, came off at McAllen's Westminster Hotel, on Monday night last. It is said to have been largely attended by both sexes, all of whom experienced a pleasant and delightful night.

Corporation Election

An election for officers for the Corporation of Westminster to serve for the ensuing year, was held at McAllen's Hotel on Monday last, Capt. Benjamin Yingling and Prof. C. Burke, Judges, and ex-Mayor, John M. Yingling, Clerk, which resulted as follows, in the absence of party preferences:

MAYOR:		MAYOR:
S. L. Sauerhardt,	37	Lewis Trumbo,	25
COUNCIL:		COUNCIL:
Reuben Cassell,	37	Emanuel Gernand,	29
Jacob Shaeffer,	40	Jacob Beaver,	21
Levi Evans,	36	John H. Bowers,	22
Michael Bachman,	40	John S. Murray,	25
Wm. J. Mitten,	32	Henry Warner,	1
		Henry Shreve,	1

Young America vs. Ould Ireland!

These are the days of pugilism, another demonstration of which occurred on Saturday morning last on the premises of John Rinehart, some 3 miles below town, between Joseph Turfle, representing Young America, and Thomas Ferrall, Ould Ireland, in which Young America came off victorious. It seems some sharp words passed between them, and perhaps clinching, but Ireland fared the worst by America by being spatted over the nozzle with a pick, for which America was held to bail for appearance at court. Naughty boys!

Religious Revival

The Baltimore Clipper of Thursday says a very interesting revival meeting has been in progress for two weeks past, in the Union Square M. E. Church, under the pastoral charge of Rev. William H. Chapman. A number have professed conversion, with many seekers nightly at the altar of prayer. The religious interest seems to be on the increase.

West End Ahead.

We were going to say that our West End friends were far ahead of old fogyism in the Eastern enterprises of every kind, but not wishing to disturb closely cemented and harmonious feelings in the family circle, we will qualify it by awarding the premium for pickling or preserving corn on the cob, a specimen of which was presented us by our humorous and facetious friend who flourishes under the euphonious sobriquet of "Dr." Mourer, alias old Bob Ridley. The corn is almost as nice, sweet, and in appearance as fresh as when taken from the stalk. The Dr. jocularly remarked that the corn was raised by his neighbor C. who furrows his corn ground in rows at angles from 3 to 15 feet apart, attributable to the mischievous and mysterious moving of the guiding poles! — Be that as it may, the corn is elegantly preserved, and by request of a number of gentlemen we ask the Dr. to prevail upon his (by far) better half to furnish us the recipe for publication.

Peace to Its Ashes.

The long agony is ended. The Democratic party is no more. After two weeks of indescribable confusion, wildest excitement and angry debate and intercrimination, the Democratic National Convention at Charleston has adjourned, having adopted two separate and distinct platforms diametrically different from the other, and without being able to agree upon any candidate for the Presidency.

Democracy has thus been overtaken by a just retribution for its crimes and follies, its sins of omission and commission, its reckless disregard of public interests, and its open treason to the Constitution—the fundamental law of the whole confederacy. The poison which it concocted to destroy its adversaries, has poured a deadly venom into its own veins. The bitter cup of slavery agitation which it mercilessly thrust upon the conservative Opposition, has been relentlessly pressed to its own lips.—The division and distraction by which it tried to establish the supremacy of a minority over a majority, have kindled into a destroying flame in its own midst, and the once proud temple of Democracy is shattered from base to cap-stone. It is now a shapeless mass of ruins, whose only use will be to aid in the erection of a better and more enduring structure, dedicated to nobler and more truly patriotic purposes.

The adjournment of the Convention at Charleston without nominating a candidate was the result of sheer necessity. It had been previously announced that the delegates were hourly leaving, and it was apparent that if there was no adjournment the Convention would presently be dissolved by the abdication of its members. From the tenor of the telegraphic dispatches, announcing the fact, it appears probable that already it was left with a quorum of bonafide delegates, and that, to make a show of a quorum with which to adjourn, substitutes were called upon to represent those who had hopelessly abandoned the miserable affair to its impending fate.

An attempt may be made to hold another meeting of this Convention in Baltimore on the eighth of June. A few of the most desperate of the leaders of the once powerful democratic party may get together then, but they will meet simply as political adventurers, who have been abandoned by the hosts they were wont to lead to battle. They will go as false prophets, from whose hideous features the glittering veil of patriotism has been torn away. They have lost the confidence they wantonly betrayed.—They never can regain it. The people now know them and turn away from them with sorrow perhaps, but certainly with unutterable disgust. These leaders may re-assemble, but the people have already taken the alarm. Impelled by an instinct of self-preservation, they will at once everywhere abandon Democracy as hopeless, and seek shelter in the living political organizations with which they can most readily affiliate.

The attempt to re-assemble the Democratic Convention in June, will be merely a useless farce. It cannot then efface the record it has already made at Charleston. There can be no compromise between the two platforms adopted there. Precisely the same elements of discord will be brought together, refreshed for a renewal of the strife, and rendered still more fierce and obstinate by the consciousness of the desertion of the masses from the democratic standards. Such a Convention, if it could agree upon a candidate, would make a nomination only to meet overwhelming defeat. It would be in fact a meagre third-party affair, incapable of any good, and potent only for mischief.

A Party Prayer.

After reading the following, we hope the snub tails of locofocos will forever withhold and suppress the slang so discourteously retailed for years, that the American Party was cursed with the bigotry of political preachers. On Friday morning week the Charleston Convention was opened with prayer by the Rev. Thomas D. Smith, of Charleston, on which occasion he used the following language:

"We pray, O God, that Thou wilt be with this Convention until it shall have closed its session, and that Thou wilt overrule their individual and differing views, and bring them to unity of counsel and purpose. And with Thou shalt have led them to a happy and harmonious conclusion of their deliberations, secure to them union, co-operation, energy, determination and triumphant success in that contested campaign, through which they have to pass in this great crisis of the Republic."

Glorious Victory.

The victory of the PEOPLE'S PARTY in the Municipal election of Philadelphia, on Tuesday, was an inkling of the work to be done in November. The usual appliances were made by the powers at Washington, to carry that old Whig stronghold through some staunchest "old line Whigs," like Mr. Josiah Randall. The Democratic Pennsylvanian made the most touching appeals to "merchants," not to allow the city to become "abolitionized"—published pious epistles from commercial Locofocos, wandering in the Southern States hunting up trade, saying that "the South wanted not professions, but votes;" and ending by stating that their "trust was in Providence." Yet in spite of all this tender twaddle the city went Opposition by nearly a thousand majority. What are we coming to? It's deelish!

The Country Safe.

The Convention of the Constitutional Union Party now in session at Baltimore will regulate all political matters. It will strike balances in the accounts of the sectionalists of the North and South, and while the free-soil Douglas men and free-soil Seward men are having a Kilkenny fight to themselves in the North, and dividing abolitiondom, the candidate of the Baltimore Convention, with a couple of millions of conservative votes at his back, will win the victory and restore peace to the country, dignity, patriotism and usefulness to the federal government, and prosperity to the nation. Despairing Democracy may croak because it cannot win, but the Union men will not thus be frightened from the success now almost within their grasp.

Philadelphia Election.

The municipal election at Philadelphia on Tuesday resulted in the re-election of Mayor Henry, and the success of the "Peoples" party generally, with exception of the candidate for City Comptroller. The vote was one of the largest ever polled in the city. The election passed off quietly.

Accident at Maus' Mills.

In our last issue we spoke of the falling of the walls of the mill of Mr. Jacob Maus, resulting in the death of the proprietor. Since then we learn that two men employed about the building at the time, made a timely escape from instant death by running under a culvert when the walls fell. Attached to the mill was the store of Mr. Richard R. Foutz.—During the operation of removing the mill walls, a heavy amount of rubbish, bricks and stones, were placed on the store room roof, which was crushed down by the weight, carrying with it the floors and all the store goods into the cellar, producing enlarged damage and heavy loss. Mr. Foutz had stepped out of the store but a moment before, and thereby escaped a miserable death. He has since removed the remaining saleable goods to Peters' old stand, Piney Creek, where he is now merchandising. The undertaker or mason of the building was apprehensive of danger to life by the walls falling, and warned Mr. Maus to keep from them, and he had left but a short time before they fell. Taken all in all the accident was a sad calamity, involving the loss of both life and property, and will cause many hearts to bleed for years to come.

Never-Sweat Society!

This Association, which flourished in town so detrimentally to the best interests of all enterprising and industrious classes last season, we learn is about to be re-organized. Prominent members may be seen at all the public places during these glorious warm days, loafing, lounging, panting, and wishing for "a lodge in some vast wilderness" where flies are scarce and fountains flow, and brandy smashes mostly go, and thus allay their burning thirst by a change to peach, and gin, then burst. The President may be consulted at head-quarters at all times in the day when not asleep, during which periods of repose from languor it is in direct violation of the "konstitushun" to disturb his sweet rest, and the only requirement of him to become a member in good standing is to sprinkle the crowd and give an affirmative assent to the proposition that you are seriously inclined to become a pestiferous loafer, a staunch one and true, with cords of assistance and nothing to do but to smile seventeen times a day, to whistle and to show off your flesh-colored pants nicely washed and ironed by your sisters while the summer days glow!

Baltimore Female College.

This Institution was founded in the year 1849, and was created a College proper by an act of incorporation by the General Assembly of Maryland, of the same year, with authority to confer the usual Academic degrees. Since that time it has made such progress in the arts and sciences generally that the State Legislature at its last session appropriated $1,500 yearly towards its support. In consideration of which amount the Trustees of the College will establish free scholarships upon which one pupil from each County in the State, and one from the City of Baltimore, shall be admitted to all the instructions given in the College and to the privileges of the normal class, with all necessary books, without any charge whatever. And when any of the young ladies educated as above shall have completed the usual course of study, and in the judgment of the Faculty of the College and the Board of Trustees, shall exhibit ability and aptness to teach, they will receive, in addition to the ordinary degree of the College, a Diploma which shall set forth their qualifications for the duties of an instructress of youth. The Act of Assembly relating to the free scholars, says:

The Judges of the Orphans' Court in each County in the State and of the City of Baltimore shall, for their Counties, and for the City of Baltimore respectively, designate from time to time the persons who are to enjoy the privileges of said free scholarships. And further, that the Trustees of the Baltimore Female College shall, from time to time, advise the aforesaid Orphan's Courts of the several Counties and the City of Baltimore respectively, of any existing or expected vacancies in the said free scholarships, so that there may be kept at all times one pupil from each County and from the City of Baltimore in the enjoyment of the privileges of education thus secured to the several Counties of the State and the City of Baltimore.

The advertisement of this Institution can be seen in another column, which names the different studies, instructors, etc., to which we invite attention.

Justifiable Murmuring.

We hear a good deal of complaint already of persons plucking flowers, &c., from graves in the different burial places, cultivated there by those who cherish the memory of departed friends and relatives, and in some cases shrubs and rose bushes have almost been despoiled by the ruthless hands of overgrown children. Such things are certainly done by thoughtless persons, to whom it is hoped a hint will be sufficient; but if not, there are severe laws against such desecration, which, if enforced in one or two cases, would put an effectual stop to a practice as ungentlemanly and unladylike as it is mean.

More Thieving in the Country.

Some strolling vagabond on Monday night of last week broke into the basement story of Mr. John Warehime's house, Bachman's Valley, and after deliberately eating a pie and a quantity of cold fried meat, took a valuable silver watch which was hanging against the wall, and then quietly decamped. Having fared so well, he should not fail to go round soon again, when perhaps he may get something warmer.

☞ DO YOU TAKE A GOOD MONTHLY AGRICULTURAL PAPER? If not, now is your time. The May number of the Genesee Farmer, which we have so frequently commended, is received, and the publisher offers to take subscriptions for the half-year, commencing with the July number, for 25 cents! That is cheap enough; but he also offers to give all who subscribe before the end of May a copy of the June number for nothing!! The Genesee Farmer is just the paper that every farmer and gardener should have, and now is the time to get it.—Send the 25 cents in stamps at once to JOSEPH HARRIS, Rochester, N. Y.

Government Finances.

The receipts of the U. S. Treasury for the quarter ending the 31st of March amounted to $22,415,491, including $14,962,788 from customs, and $5,588,200 from treasury notes. The expenditures for the same time reached $20,377,502, of which $2,190,450 was paid on account of treasury notes, and $11,497,471 for civil, foreign intercourse, and miscellaneous.

The Bubble Bursted!

For years the Democratic party has claimed to be the only National party; in 1856 it attracted to its support hundreds of thousands of conservative citizens by its professions of exclusive nationality and its boast that it was the only party that could beat the Republicans. In the beginning of the preparations for the approaching campaign it repeated these declarations, and many were induced to withhold their cordial support to the new Union party on this ground.—We have contended and we honestly believed that it was utterly unable to accomplish this boast except by rendering itself equally as sectional and as dangerous and obnoxious to conservatism as the Republican party itself. The majority of the Charleston Convention undertook to do this. It attempted to place itself upon a platform that could be represented to the northern sectionalists as more favorable to free-soilism than even Seward's irrepressible conflict platform. The result is a disruption of the Convention and an abandonment of the Democratic organization. It is now amply demonstrated that it can beat no party, that it is itself completely routed before the battle is begun.

In this emergency there is no resource left for the conservative men who have been hitherto wheedled by democratic promises, or for conservative democrats themselves except to wheel into the Constitutional Union party as the last hope of conservatism and of the Union. The old Whigs who have abandoned their honored standard and given a temporary support to Democracy in the South and to Republicanism in the North, are rallying again on one common platform under the flag of the Constitutional Union party. The Americans, who have, through good and ill report, "carried the flag and kept step to the music of the Union," defeated, but neither dismayed nor disheartened, have placed themselves upon this platform of old Harry of the West, "the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws." Conservative Union-loving Democrats and Republicans, who are tired of useless and dangerous agitation, and are anxious for a restoration of peace and harmony between the sections can find no where else to go.

Of such is the National Convention now in session at Baltimore. The masses of the people are depending on this Convention as the last hope of the Union, the last refuge of conservatism. If prudent counsels prevail in its deliberations—if a judicious selection of a candidate shall be made, no other platform will be needed than that enunciated in its motto. With "the Union, the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws," inscribed upon its banners, it will go forth to meet the glad hosannas of the people, and to march on to a glorious victory in November.

The Great Fizzle, Fizzled Out

The Charleston Convention, after being in session for ten days, has adjourned without accomplishing the work it had assembled to do. It has adjourned to meet again in Baltimore on the 18th of June. On the seventh day of the session the delegations from seven States formally withdrew from the body, and being re-inforced on the following day by delegates from other States, formed a separate Convention at Richmond, and resolved themselves to be the true National Democracy, pure and simple.—The seceders were chiefly from the cotton-growing States, and the cause of the secession was a failure to agree upon the question of what the Party-Platform should be in relation to the subject of Slavery in the Territories. Upon this point an excited debate took place in the Convention, and after various unsuccessful efforts to reconcile their differences of opinion, the delegates from the Cotton States withdrew. Apparently, therefore, and at first blush, the secession wears the appearance of a radical split in the Party, which argues anything but well for its success in the coming Election.

Holloway's Ointment.

Cancer, the most terrible malady that attacks the fleshy fibre, may be extirpated by this preparation. The knife cannot reach the the minute ramifications of the disease, but the ointment does.—It penetrates to the sources of all ulcerous disorders, and performs a radical cure.

Sold at the manufactory, No. 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all druggists, at 25c., 63c., and $1 per box or pot.

Doomed and Sealed.

The fate of Democracy is sealed.—Neither Douglas nor any other democratic candidate for the Presidency can now be elected. By the action of this, the last of all democratic national conventions, Democracy has been sent "glimmering through the dream of things that were," and patriots everywhere will utter the heartfelt wish, never to look upon its like again.

What the Press Say.

Housekeepers, troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they will use "COSTAR'S" Exterminators. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing: but COSTAR'S article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed-Bugs quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

Tables Turned.

They used to laugh at our arguments in favor of uniting the Opposition upon a single Presidential candidate—the Democrats used to—but where is the United Democracy now? Like that celebrated pitcher we read of in ancient history, it went once too often to the well.

Another New Party.

The Seceders at Charleston have given themselves a new name. They call themselves "Constitutional Democrats," in opposition to the "National Democrats."

New Postmaster.

At Bruceville, this County, Wellington Hammond is appointed Postmaster, vice George Mering, of G., resigned.

THE GREAT DRAWBACK to persons emigrating to the extreme south and western country, is the fear they have of the Fever and Ague—the most direful of all diseases. Every day we hear of persons attacked by this disease, and made helpless in a short time, without any means of affording relief. In view of the great demand for a remedy Dr. Hostetter has presented his CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, whose curative powers for all diseases of the stomach have been universally acknowledged. The Bitters, prepared after a long experience and deep study, have received the encomiums of the most eminent physicians, as well as all classes from every part of our country. To those who doubt them in my virtues, all we can say is to try them, and judge for themselves respectively.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere.

Health! Health!! Health!!!
"My Cough was Killing Me by Inches,"

Hundreds say, "Until I used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry." No remedy, boasted as it may be, can pretend to approach it in its wonderous ability to ease a Cough, cure a Cold, and effectually expel all complaints of the Throat, Breast and Lungs. 'Tis an invaluable treasure to every invalid:

MORE PROOF: ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE.

Dr. Swayne: Dear Sir—Believing your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry to be the very best remedy extant, and desiring that all may know and test its virtues, I offer my experience. I was taken with a violent cough, difficult expectoration, short breath, &c. This continued until my health and strength seemed entirely gone. Our village physicians declared my complaint consumption, and incurable. I was recommended to try your Syrup, which has performed a perfect cure. My health is now very good; have not been affected with a like affection since. Yours, with respect,

BALTIMORE MARKET

May 10. FLOUR—There has been some inquiry for Flour to day, but no fair sales have heard, no thing has been done in it. The market although quiet is still very firm in tone, and we quote Super as before at $6 37½@6 50 for Howard Street and Ohio, the latter for being generally used for choice brands, and $6 25@6 50 per bbl. for City Mills. Extra Flour continues firm at the following rates viz: $7. 12½@7 25 for Ohio and Howard Street, $7@7 25 for shipping, and $7,75 per bbl for fancy brands City Mills.

RYE FLOUR AND CORN MEAL.—We quote Rye Flour as before at $4,62½@4 75, and Corn Meal at $3 62½ for Baltimore, and $4 per bbl. for Brandywine.

GRAIN.—Grain was in better supply to-day than it has been for some days past, some 10,000 bushels Wheat, 23,000 bushels Corn, and about 4,500 bushels Oats being at market.—Corn was pretty active, and a large part of the receipts were sold at 72@73 cts. for common white, 76@78 cts. for good to prime do., 72 cts. for common yellow, and 77@79 for fair to prime do. Wheat was however rather dull, although prices for it were pretty well maintained. White sold at 160@170 cts. for ordinary to good lots, 175@180 cts. for prime and choice do., and we quote red at 145@150 cts. for prime and choice do., and we quote red at 145 @150 cts. for good to prime. A lot of of 2,000 bushels white sold at 175 cts., and some 700 bushels do. brought 180 cts. Oats were in fair request, and they sold at 42@44 cts. for Maryland and Virginia, and 47@48 cts. for Pennsylvania. We quote Rye at 92@95 cts. for Pennsylvania, but there was very little done in it.

PROVISIONS.—Provisions are in rather better demand, and the feeling in the market is somewhat firmer than it was. Bacon is selling in jobbing lots at 8 and 10 cts. for Shoulders and Sides, but round lots would not bring over 7 and 9 cts. We note sales to-day of about 50 hhds. Sides in lots all at 10 cts., and some 25 hhds. Shoulders at 8 cts. Lard at 11a 11½ cts in hhds. and tcs.

SEEDS.—There are some small sales of Clover seed making at $4 50@4 75 per bushel, but there is no demand for large lots. Timothy Seed is selling slowly at $2.25@3 50, and Flaxseed at $1.35@$1.40 per bushel.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

This preparation is a certain cure for all diseases of the Throat, and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Incipient Consumption, &c. In confirmation of the highest medical authority that "Consumption can be cured," numerous instances of complete restoration from this disease by the use of the Balsam can be given.

The following letter was received from Colonel Markham, of the British army, and shows the estimation in which the Balsam of Wild Cherry is held abroad:

PIER HOTEL, ISLE OF WRIGHT, ENGLAND, Sept. 30, 1856.

Sir:—I have a daughter in a delicate state of health, who has, I think, received signal benefit from Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, three bottles of which were sent her by her brother in Canada. Please put me up six bottles, and forward them by the first steamer to Southampton or Liverpool, as you may find most convenient, with any account of the medicine you may be so good as to send me. We have searched everywhere for it in vain.

Believe me yours, truly,
WM. MARKHAM.

Testimony of Physicians.

DR. FRELEIGH, of Sangerfield, N. Y., says he cured long Complaint of four years standing, that would not yield to the usual remedies.

ABRAHAM SKILLMAN, M. D., of Boundbrook, N. J., says it is the best medicine for Consumption in every sense. He has never known.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

☞ Beware of vile and worthless counterfeits! The only Genuine, Pure, and Medicinal Balsam has the name of "I. BUTTS" written with a pen, and the proved name of the proprietors, "S. W. FOWLE & Co.," on the outer wrapper.

MEDICAL HOUSE,

NO. 11 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET BALTIMORE.

DR. SMITH

HAS FOR MANY YEARS DEVOTED his whole attention to the treatment of Private Complaints, in all their varied and complicated forms. His great success in those long standing and difficult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the public as worthy of the extensive patronage he has received. Within the last eight years Dr. S. has treated over 29 600 cases of Private Complaints in their different forms and stages; a practice which has doubtless exceeded that of all other Physicians now advertising in Baltimore, and not a single case is known, where the directions were strictly followed, and medicines taken a reasonable time, without effecting a radical, a permanent cure; therefore persons afflicted with diseases of the above nature, "no matter how difficult, or how long standing the case may be," would do well to call on Dr. SMITH, at his office, No 11 South Frederick street.

The afflicted should bear in mind that Dr. S is the only regular physician advertising, who has for many years devoted his whole attention to the treatment of this class of diseases.

His Medicines are free from Mercury and all Mineral poisons; put up in a neat and compact form, and may be taken in a public or private house, or while travelling, without exposure or hindrance from business, and except in cases of violent inflammation, no change of diet is necessary.

We are called upon every few days to cure Chronic diseases which were supposed to have been cured years ago, but instead of which were only checked, driven into the system by Mercury or Copaiva, and therefore seemed to be well, but in a longer or shorter time, by some slight cause, broke out in its worst and most difficult forms, producing ulcers in the throat, nose or roof of the mouth, eruptions of the skin, pains or swelling of the bones, etc. On account of the number of such cases which have lately come under my care, and the immense suffering which a little neglect or improper treatment in the first stages of the disease may cause, Dr. Smith thinks it his duty to advise the unfortunate, particularly strangers, to be careful that they are not deceived by false advertisements of boasting quacks, who make promises which could not be fulfilled, even by the most experienced physicians. By neglect or improper treatment, the patient is often reduced to a state which makes the case extremely difficult to cure. Therefore all should be aware of the importance of consulting a skillful physician in the early stage of the disease.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY.

Young men! Beware of the pernicious indulgence and almost fatal injury you inflict upon your constitutions by evil examples and the morbid influence of the passions.

How many young persons do we daily behold, whose countenances and debilitated constitutions depict diseases arising from that horrible and devastating vice.

It could be shown how attenuation of the frame, palpitation of the heart, derangement of the nervous system, cough, indigestion, and a train of symptoms indicative of consumption, are often ascribed to wrong causes, when in reality they are the consequence of an alluring and pernicious practice, alike destructive to the mind and body.

☞ DR SMITH gives his special attention to the treatment of this destructive malady. Patients can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. Smith describing symptoms and receive medicine securely packed from observation, forwarded by express or otherwise to any part of the country.

N. B.—Persons afflicted with any of the above disorders will do well to avoid boasting impostors, whether foreign or native, as also the numerous Specifics advertised as a certain cure for any and every Disease. These preparations are put up to sell but not to cure, and often do much more harm than good, therefore avoid them.

"A word to the wise is sufficient."

Address DR. J. B. SMITH,
No. 11 S. Frederick st., Baltimore, Md.

No letters will be answered unless they contain a remittance or Postage Stamp to pay postage on the answer. May 11,—1y.
