POETRY.

THE QUESTION OF THE DAY!

BY SALLIE BRIDGES.

DISSOLVE THE UNION? that the worn out thrones
Across the sea may mock us as we fall!
And envious powers grow secure in ill,
And crush their peoples with an iron heel,
To grind out gold and blood from subject worms,
That they no more, upbooking from the dust,
May westward turn with hearts of yearning faith,
And murmur to their children—"Ah! 'tis there,
The land of promise, wherein men may think,
And not be slain for speech, or robbed of right!"

Dissolve this Union, and dear hope dies out
In all the eager souls that watch its stars
Rise steadfast over the earth with growing light!
Pray that they prove not meteors that fade,
When they should guide all steerless ships of state
To one great haven of ensampled peace.
Save our great eagle and her eyrie broad
From pecking crows, and vultures that await
Her parting struggles to usurp her nest.
Lest e'en the pure, white stripe of our proud flag
Be dipped by Anarchy's foul hand in gore,
And wave no more the beacon of the world!

See how she sits, our young and lovely land,
Throned on two seas that crouch beside her state;
Queen 'mid the nations, lifting her fair brow,
Serene with prosperous peace and plenty's smile,
Crowned with but beauty o'er the heads of kings!
Shall we, her children, borne upon her breast,
Thus make her tremble with the awful dread
Lest we, her own, shall tear her limb from limb,
And abroad in mourning all the brilliant hopes
That wait upon her glory, while her knell
Shall be old Tyranny's glad, scornful laugh?

In her deep heart she holds some mighty dead,
That stirred the nations with their words, and bore
With Atlas strength a world of care and thought.
Alas! that they, the giants of those days,
Awake not now to hurl upon her foes
The curse of God on parricidal sin!
And win with charmed eloquence of yore
The sluggish nausea to a holy rage
Would crush the serpents that now hiss and sting,
Crawling in highest places in the land!

Up, people of the States that love your homes!
Up, gallant hearts that throb with pure disdain
Of traitorous acts! Up, slumbering souls of fire!
Build ye a Haman's gallows for these knaves
That dare to raise a voice or hand to break
The sweet relationship our fathers left
To bind us all, cemented with their lives!
O! North and South—two brothers of one birth—
Meet ye again as they at Peniel met,
Jacob and Esau, thinking each of strife,
Yet when they came anear wept with pure love
Upon each other's neck; that both may say,
"Keep that thou hast, for God has dealt
Most graciously with each; and thus we see
Each other's face as 'twere the face of God
Shining with blessing; and the Lord of Hosts
Watch between thee and me for evermore!"

MISCELLANEOUS.

☞ It seems, at last advices, that Garibaldi and Emmanuel and Napoleon and Palmerston, are of accord, in reality, in this matter of Italian liberty and Italian unity. The roads they have taken all converge to the same point, and that is: the recognition of the right of the Italian people to the assertion of their own liberty. If the Pope should fly, France will open her arms to him, and the extreme probability in that event, is, that Avignon will once more be the seat of the Holy See, where it will gradually wilt and die. If he is content to remain in Rome, he will be dwarfed to a spiritual power, beyond which the Popedom should never have gone But let us not anticipate. Events are drawing on with locomotive haste, and while the hands of Garibaldi the Great, are upon the reins, we have no fear of the repetition of the catastrophe of phaeton.

☞ John C. Breckinridge has a right to a soubriquet as well as other aspirants who are not so good looking.—"Reading and writing came by nature, but to be well favored is the gift of fortune." And therefore we propose, in view of the fact that he has been nominated for the sole and avowed purpose of crushing Douglas, that he be dubbed "Jack the Little Giant Killer." Either wing of the Democracy can adopt it by altering its punctuation; a comma after Jack will answer the purpose of the secessionists, and the same point after the word little, will give to the term when used by the Douglasites.

THE UNION FOR THE SAKE OF THE UNION.—The Union Electoral ticket may be considered an accomplished fact. The opponents of sectionalism are electrified with the result, and the way the Abolitionists whine and wail is evidence that they consider the State of New York lost to Lincoln. The solid men of the city of New York, who have heretofore stood aloof, are now at work for friends of the National Administration sustain it, and so do all the Democratic press of the city, including the Journal of Commerce, which originally supported the Breckinridge ticket.—Albany Times (Dem.)

☞ Plutarch says, in his life of Alexander, that the Babylonians used, during dog-days, to sleep on skins filled with water. In these days many men sleep on skins filled with bad whiskey.

A Delicate Jury.—Michael McLaughlin, of Catskill, purchased a gallon and a half of whiskey, week before last, and, with the help of his wife, drank it the next day. The next morning she was found dead in her bed, and the verdict of the Coroner's Jury was, "Died by the visitation of God!"

LINCOLN POLE CUT DOWN.—On Saturday last, some republicans in the neighborhood of Fall's Church, in Fairfax county, Va., erected a pole, and raised upon it the Lincoln and Hamlin flag. On Tuesday the people of the neighborhood assembled and cut the pole down, and destroyed the flag.

A Lincoln pole lately erected on the premises of Thomas Brown, at Pompey Smash, Allegany county, Md., was cut down a second time last week. Mr. B. fired on the intruding party, when they stoned his house. Six of them have been arrested.

MINISTER INDICTED FOR MURDERING HIS WIFE.—Rev. Henry Budge, who was arrested some months ago in Lewis county, N. Y., on suspicion of murdering his wife, and subsequently discharged, the Coroner's jury failing to find him guilty, has been indicted by the grand jury.

☞ The London Times at the end of one of its recent editorials expresses the hope that Garibaldi will signalize his victory at Naples by ordering a strict investigation into the standing miracle of "St. Januaries's blood." It is said that this wish is so near to be realized that Garibaldi has ordered a special performance of the miracle.

☞ The Democratic party swallowed a nigger and died of the black vomit.

A Straw.

F. E. Barnjum, an ubiquitous retailer of campaign medals, who has been traveling up and down New England during the last two months, and whose face is seen at almost every Union, Republican and Democratic gathering in that section, furnishes the Boston Courier with the following statement of the number of campaign medals that he has sold thus far during the present campaign:

Bell and Everett	79,013
Lincoln and Hamlin	62,700
Douglas and Johnson	29,313
Breckinridge and Lane	1,340
Total	172,366

Illinois Abandoned by the Republicans.

"Cleveland," the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and whose statements are almost invariably correct, telegraphs:—

"It is understood here among the Republican leaders that Illinois is to be abandoned to Douglas, as it has been ascertained that, with all their expenditure of money, they cannot possibly carry the State for Lincoln, such is the indomitable energy and enthusiasm of the Democracy. The money intended for Illinois is to be transferred to and used in Indiana and Pennsylvania.

☞ Henry Clay Dean is making Douglas speeches in Iowa. Dean was once Chaplain of the Senate. On a recent occasion, he was repelling the charge that the Democratic party had ever misappropriated the public money.—"Tell me," who can, where the Democratic party ever misapplied a dollar." "I can tell!" said a piping voice at the rear of the hall. "Stand up, then," cried Dean, "and let us hear your answer." Up popped the owner of the voice. "Now Sir, tell me, if you can, where a dollar has been wasted?"—"When the Democratic Senate paid Henry Clay Dean for his prayers!" was the reply that brought down the house.

A Douglas Man Removed.

Mr. Lackey, Pay-Clerk in the Solicitor's Office of the Treasury Department, a Douglas man, has been removed.—Mr. Cobb gave as the ground for his action, the report that Mr. Lackey had expressed a preference for Mr. Lincoln over Mr. Breckinridge. This Mr. L. denies. The matter has created a great sensation in the Treasury, where there is any number of quiet adherents of Judge Douglas.

United States Mint.

The statement of the United States Mint, in Philadelphia, for the month of September, shows the total deposits to have been $2,203,638 40. Gold, $2,174,100 67; silver, $29,537 73. Copper cents received in exchange for new issue, $4,199. The gold coinage for the month was $2,181,400, in double eagles. Silver coinage, $36,000. Copper coinage, $4,000. Total number of pieces coined, 545,073, of the value of $2,221,400.

A Family of Convicts.

Among the prisoners sent to the penitentiary at Pittsburg on Saturday were five persons belonging to one family—father, mother, two daughters and son-in-law.—Their offense was larceny, and it is said that the son-in-law enticed the girls to steal, while the old man and his wife were convicted as receivers of stolen goods.

A Cheer for Dyson.

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writing from Port Tobacco, says, there was a large and enthusiastic mass meeting of the Bell and Everett men in this place on Thursday last. The speakers were Hon. J. Dixon Roman, Alexander B. Hagner, George A. Pearre, Thomas A. Miller, and Dr. R. Dyson. The latter is a Douglas man, but advises his Douglas friends to vote for the "Union" candidate, as there is no chance for Douglas in Maryland.

☞ The Petersburg (Va.) "True Democrat," a Douglas Democratic paper, argues that all charges brought by the Breckinridge Democracy against Bell and Everett, because they do not answer questions will have to be suspended until Mr. Breckinridge responds to the interrogatories of Mr. Lamb. It adds that "the great issue of this campaign is Union or Disunion, and on that issue there is no silent party but the Breckinridge party—no mum candidate but John C. Breckinridge."

Death of an American Consul.

The newly appointed Consul General of the United States for Constantinople, Mr. H. D. Johnson, formerly of the State Department at Washington, died lately at Malta, which accounts for the non-arrival out of the new American Consul for Jerusalem, Mr. Page, of Virginia, who has been taking care of his sick colleague and countryman.

More old Line Democrats going Over to Bell and Everett.—The Macon (Ga.) Daily Citizen, an excellent Bell and Everett paper publishes a list of seventeen Democrats of that city who have recently declared for the constitutional Union candidates. That is the way they come. Stand from under. The Breckinridge men have lost all hope in old Bibb.

Starved to death in New York.—On Monday last in New York, two persons, (male and female,) were picked up in an emaciated and speechless condition, and both have died, singular to relate, from sheer starvation! A singular thing truly, to relate of a city like that, and one which would be deemed fabulous if told of any other community.

☞ Lydia Phetteplace chopped the head off of her husband with an axe as he lay drunk on the floor of their house in Burrillville, R. I., last Saturday.—Her excuse was that he had threatened to kill her. Her son, a lad of 14, saw the deed committed.

General indignation is felt in Pennsylvania, Indiana, and other border States, at the profanity of Carl Schurtz, the pet orator of the Black Republicans. The nigger-worshippers will find out in time that they had better have kept their dirty Shirts or Squirtz at home.

Population of Frederick.

It appears from the new census that the whole number of inhabitants in Frederick city, Md., is 8,054; of whom 2,980 are white males, 3,377 white females, 558 free colored males, 696 free colored females, and 443 slaves, of both sexes.—The total population in 1850 was 6,028—including 2,312 white males, 2,264 white females, 349 free colored males and 483 females, and 420 slaves of both sexes.

Political Renunciation.

A. J. Willes, Esq., of Caroline county, Md., Democratic State Senator from that county in 1850, and who was last fall on the Democratic ticket as a candidate for the House of Delegates, receiving in his own district a heavy majority, publishes a letter in the Denton Union, announcing his determination to support, with voice and vote, the Union nominees—Bell and Everett.

☞ A monster bell has recently been cast in Maine, and is now on exhibition at the Mechanics' Fair in Boston. It weighs over ten thousand pounds, which is more than double the weight of any bell in New England, and its tone is very sweet as well as powerful. On one side is "Androscoggin Mills, 1860;" on the other, "The Union, Constitution and Laws."

Appointments by the Governor.

Col. Edward Shriver has been commissioned Brigadier General of the 9th brigade, 4th division Maryland militia. Lt. Col. Jas. M. McSherry has been commissioned colonel of the 16th regiment, and Major Hobbs, (all of Frederick county,) Lieut Colonel of the same.

Sudden Death.

On Friday morning the 28th ult., Mr. Solomen Tipton, residing near Monkton, in Baltimore county, died very suddenly. He was walking along the railroad track about half a mile above Monkton, early in the morning, when it is supposed, in stepping off the track to get out of the way of a freight train, he fell down a steep bank, and was found there dead probably an hour afterward.

Effect of Emancipation.

Jamaica, in a material point of view, is becoming every day so miserable that the local journals are reviving the idea of annexation to the United States as the only panacea for the existing distress of that really fertile and magnificent colony

A Breckinridge Paper "Gone Up."—The last issue of the Dankirk (N. Y.) Press and Argus contains the valedictory of the editor, who says that longer efforts are vain, "subscribers have withdrawn—patronage fallen off," and in view of the fact that a Douglas organ was about to be established there, retires from the field.

A CANDID ADMISSION.—Last week's Moulton, Alabama Democrat, in speaking of a Bell and Everett meeting held there, says: "Truth and justice require us to admit that Bell and Everett stock is advancing in this part of the country. It is now at fever heat, with a defiant and upward tendency." We make the admission reluctantly.

☞ A boy living in German township, near Evansville, In., cut a big copperhead snake across the middle of its big belly, a few days ago, when sixty-seven young snakes emerged from the severed holes, and were all despatched.—The venomous Democratic party has been cut in two across the belly. Look out for the young reptiles.

A Pertinent Question.

The Louisville Democrat asks, "what the deuce does Breckinridge care about the protection of slavery in the territories?—Though moderately wealthy, and living in the midst of slavery, he does not own a single slave. Is he conscientiously opposed to the peculiar institution?"

Cannot his organ answer?

The Proposed Union in Virginia.

The executive committees of the two wings of the Virginia democracy met in Richmond last Friday, to consider the proposition for a union upon one electoral ticket. They failed to unite, however, and adjourned to fight it out.

☞ The Boston Courier is about to expose the mistakes of the framers of the Declaration of Independence. It starts off with the initial error, "all men are created free and equal." John C. Calhoun performed what the Courier proposes to do, some years ago; and nobody thinks less of the Declaration to-day than before, that we know of.

Virginia for Bell.

A Washington despatch says: Gov. Letcher writes that unless some plan of fusion is agreed upon at Richmond by the Breckinridge and Douglas State Committees, the State of Virginia will go for Mr. Bell. The adherents of the latter express the belief that Mr. Bell will be the next President.

☞ It is said that Queen Victoria upon a recent occasion, fearing perhaps that her consort did not hear constantly enough in mind the favor she had done him, in giving him her royal hand, gave it to him again—and very emphatically. He saw more stars than are in her diadem—or in Heaven either.

☞ Two hundred and fifty Bell and Everett clubs have been formed in Massachusetts, and additions are being every week made to the number.

☞ The agents of Garibaldi in Liverpool have purchased for the sum of £9000, the steamer Cambria, formerly belonging to the Cunard line.

There are some Democratic editors who probably couldn't tell the truth without putting their jaws out of joint.

☞ The Methodist Conference, in session at Dexter, Mich., has declared against tobacco and slavery.

Facts to Ponder Upon.

Col. Clemens stated one fact in his masterly speech here on Monday last, that should open the eyes of the people: a fact that should be pondered by every man that loves his country. Slaveholders in particular should think of it.

In 1828 the abolition vote was but a little over 7,000.

In four years, under Tyler's administration, who was elected as a Whig but turned Democrat, it increased to more than 62,000!

In four years, under Polk, it increased to more than 286,000!!

In four years, under Fillmore, it fell off to less than 158,000!!!

In four years, under Pierce, it increased to more than 1,341,000!!!

Such facts as these need no comment. Sensible men can read and understand. Huntsville Indep't.

Party Hate.

Such is party feeling, that sooner than vote for Bell and Everett, the Democrats are quietly giving the field to Mr. Lincoln. They talk day and night on the nigger question; they sometimes threaten to dissolve, if Lincoln is elected. Many of them look exceedingly sad at the fearful prospect before us. They talk about the days of the Republic being numbered. They speculate as to the probable effect of a dissolution of the Union on our border States.

Well, says a Bell man, vote with us. Oh, never, I couldn't do that! I have hated you all my life. Give you the government—the executive patronage—have a protective tariff—no—give me a Democrat or give me Death!

Simplicity.

A little unbreeched fellow, the idol of his mother, and the plague of his father, went to the post-office and inquired if there was a letter for his "Deanpa? (grandpapa.)

"For whom?" inquired the Postmaster.

"For Dranpa," answered the little fellow.

"Well, what is your grandpapa's name?"

"Why granmama calls him Josh."

"Well, what does your grandfather call her."

"He says, 'Oh thunder, Bets, do keep your clack still for once.'"

The Postmaster, baffled by the urchin's simplicity, dismissed him with the request that he should return home and ask his Deanmama her name.

We would respectfully hint to our Democratic friends, that their platform, if they keep so many roosters on it or over it, can't be for decent people to sleep on.

☞ The land is filled with the roar of the cannon and the scream of the eagle.—Lebanon Democrat.

No wonder the poor old bird of our country screams when the Democratic party is pulling all his tail-feathers out.

The Voice of New York City.

The popular majority against Fremont in N. Y. city in 1856, was upwards of 44,000. The New York Herald says it will be larger this year against Lincoln, and names 60,000 as the probable figure.

☞ Last week a Mr. Needles, living near Felton, Del., accidentally killed his son, ten years old, with an axe which flew off the handle, while the father was chopping wood.

☞ There are about 330 white prisoners in the Virginia Penitentiary at this time. All negro convicts by law are hired out to labor on the public works.

☞ We must expect the two divisions of the Democracy to be cross and ill-tempered. Fractions may well be fractious.

☞ Work as hard as you can for your party, but don't insult others—Spit on your own hands if you like, but not in your opponents' faces.

☞ Mr. Douglas' Chicago organ calls him skilful in diplomacy. No doubt he is great at treating.

☞ Udolpho Wolfe, of "Schiedam Schnapps" fame, has been nominated for Congress by the Tammany democrats in New York.

☞ The Union men of Texas have united against the secessionists by nominating an electoral ticket with the names of two Douglas and two Bell and Everett men upon it.

☞ Elder Kimball, one of the leading Mormon Saints, recently had born to him, in one night, no less than fourteen children. Good Lord deliver us!

☞ The drought is unsettling Kansas, which was settled with much difficulty Blood fertilized that Territory, and want of water is ruining it.

☞ Garibaldi had but eight men killed in the conquest of the Kingdom of Naples.

☞ At a recent ball in San Francisco, two thousand eight hundred and eighty people were simultaneously "bobbin" around.

A gentleman once observing that a person famous in the musical line led a very abandoned life. "Ah," replied a wag, "the whole tenor of hard life has been basc."

☞ If Virginia is the mother of Presidents, then Pennsylvania must be the father, for he is universally known as Pa.

What is most like a horse's shoe?—A mare's.

Why are fixed stars like pen, ink, and paper? They are stationary.

Why is a tooth drawn like a thing forgotten? It is out of the head.

Why is a Jew in a fever like a diamond ring? He is a jewel. (Jew ill.)

Why is a beehive like a spectator?—It is a beholder. (Bee holder.)

Why is heedlessness like a ragged coat? It is a bad habit.

CERTIFICATE.

WESTMINSTER, SEPTEMBER 22, 1860.

H. L. SHUFER—Dear Sir: I herein freely give you a certificate as to the effects and virtues of Dr. Markley's Balsam and Pills. I have been suffering for more than 9 years with the very worst kind of Dyspepsia, and after trying everything that I could think of without receiving any benefit, I was almost induced to give up in despair of ever being cured, but by chance while staying in Preble county, Ohio, last May, I got hold of one of Dr. Markley's circulars and from the wonderful cures therein related, I was induced to buy three bottles of his Balsam and three boxes of Pills, and after using but one bottle of Balsam and one box of Pills, I can with truth say that I am entirely cured, and feel as well as ever I did in my life. If has now been thirteen weeks since I took the last dose, and have not had any symptoms of a return of the dread disease, or one day of sickness in all that time. I feel it my duty to give you this certificate that you may make it public and others may be induced to try and be cured by this valuable medicine.

Yours Respectfully, ADAM GILBERT.

All of Dr. Markley's medicines can be had at Griffith's West End Drug Store. Call and get a circular.
