remain sold, and the money is ready here in Court to answer in part satisfaction of the within debt, damages and costs

so answers John Darnall late Sheriff of Prince George's County

December 18th 1813.

William Norris, junr.
vs
Charles S. Perrie

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the fifteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, William Norris Junior by Alexander Contee Magruder his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here the writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni Exponas directed to the late Sheriff of Prince George's County in the words and of the tenor following, to wit: Maryland, Sc. The State of Maryland to John Darnall Esquire late Sheriff of Prince George's County, Greeting: Whereas at a County Court begun and held at Upper Marlborough Town in and for Prince George's County on the first Monday in April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten, a certain William Norris Junior by the judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain Charles S. Perrie late of Prince George's County Merchant, as well the sum of one thousand dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained by reason of the nonperformance of a certain promise and assumption to the said William Norris Junior by the said Charles S. Perrie before that time made, as the sum of six dollars and seventy six cents and two thirds of a cent for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Charles S. Perrie is convict, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same court, brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears: And whereas it was adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the third Monday in December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven, that the said Judgment, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said William Norris Junior might have execution against the said Charles S. Perrie for as well the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for the sum of Ten dollars and forty one cents for his damages, costs and charges, by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain writ of the said State by the said Charles S. Perrie before the said Court of appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said Charles S. Perrie is convict, as of record it likewise appeareth; for which said damages, costs and charges the said Charles S. Perrie and a certain Richard Skinner and Patrick Dent on the fourteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, before James G. Wood and Robert W. Bowie, Esquires, two of the Justices of the peace of the said State for Prince George's County aforesaid, did confess judgment to the said William Norris Junior: the said damages, costs and charges to be levied of their bodies, goods or chattels, lands or tenements for the use of the said William Norris Junior in case the said Charles S. Perrie should not pay and satisfy to the said William Norris Junior the said damages, costs and charges, so as aforesaid recovered against him, with the additional costs thereon, on the fourteenth day of august then next following, according to the act of assembly in such case made and provided; which said confession, in form aforesaid taken was by the same Justices, returned to the said Court of appeals, and whereof the said Charles S. Perrie, Richard Skinner and Patrick Dent are convict as of record is manifest: And whereas also on the twenty second day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, you were commanded that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said Charles S. Perrie, Richard Skinner and Patrick Dent, being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made the damages, costs and charges aforesaid; and that you should have those sums before the said Court of appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first monday in December then next, to render unto the said William Norris Junior the damages, costs and charges aforesaid: On which said first Monday in December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, you made return to the said Court of appeals, that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose you had taken one House and lot in the town of Nottingham together with an adjoining lot known by the name of Honicks lot, of the lands and tenements of the said Charles S. Perrie in your bailiwick being, to satisfy unto the said William Norris Junior the damages, costs and charges aforesaid in the said writ mentioned, which said lands and tenements remained in your hands unsold for want of bidders, so that the said damages, costs and charges aforesaid, you could not have as you were by the said writ commanded: Therefore you are hereby commanded that the said lands and tenements, so as aforesaid taken, you expose to sale, and the money therefrom arising you have before the said Court of appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first monday in December next, to render