1. (a) "GYPSY TRAIL" .....

MR. BALLARD

"The white moth to the closing vine,
The bee to the op'ning clover,
And the gypsy blood to the gypsy blood
Ever the wild world over.
Ever the wild world over, lass,
Ever the trail held true.
Over the world and under the world
And back at the last to you."

"Out of the luck of the gorigo camp.
Out of the grim and the gray.
Morning waits at the end of the world,
Gypsy come away!
Both to the road again, again!
Out of a clean sea track.
Follow the cross of the gypsy trail
Over the world and back!"

"Follow the Romany patteran
West to the sinking sun,
Till the junk-sails lift through the homeless drift
And the East and the West are one.
Follow the Romany patteran,
East where the silence broods,
By a purple wave on an opal beach
In the hush of the Mahim woods."

"The wild hawk to the wind-swept sky,
The deer to the wholesome wold.
And the heart of a man to the heart of a maid,
As it was in the days of old.
The heart of a man to the heart of a maid,
Light of my tents, be fleet
Morning waits at the end of the world
And the world is all at our feet."

(b) "THE AMERICANS COME!" ..... Fay Foster

MR. BALLARD

(Explanatory Note: This is a descriptive number and pictures in song an episode of the Great War. A blinded French soldier hears cheering in the street and hears the tramp of passing soldiers. He bids his son run to the window to see what the cheering is all about. The boy tells him that soldiers are passing who bear a banner of red and white stripes and stars on a field of blue. The blinded soldier at once realizes that "The Americans Have Come," and hails them with great enthusiasm.)

Father:—"What is the cheering my little son?
Oh, that my blinded eyes could see!
Hasten, my boy, to the window run,
And see what the noise in street may be.
I hear the drums and the marching feet.
Look and see what it's all about!
Who can it be that our people greet
With cheer and laughter and joyous shout?"

Son:—"There are men, my father, brown and strong,
And they carry a banner of wondrous hue.
With a mighty tread they swing along.
Now I see white stars on a field of blue!"

Father:—"You say that you see white stars on blue?
Look, are there stripes of red and white?
It must be—yes, it must be true!
Oh, dear God, if I had my sight!
Hasten, son, fling the window wide,
Let me kiss the staff our flag swings from,
And salute the Stars and Stripes with pride,
For, God be praised, the Americans come!"

2. "SON OF THE PUSZTA" ..... Keler-Bela

PROF. TEN HOOR

A free fantasy on Hungarian folk-songs and dance tunes, picturing in its rapid melodic and rhythmic changes the varied moods and emotions of the Hungarian peasantry.

3. "HUNGARIAN RHAPSODY" ..... Liszt

MISS RUSSELL

In this brilliant composition for the pianoforte one of the world's greatest composers lets his creative imagination run riot, using as a basis comparatively simple themes. The original simplicity of the themes made it possible for the composer to develop his material with great freedom and with much elaboration. The technical difficulties, which were no obstacle to the composer himself, who has left us traditions of an amazing technique, are the natural accompaniment of this style of composition, properly called rhapsodic.

4. (a) "CALM AS THE NIGHT" ..... Bohm

MR. BALLARD

"Calm as the night, deep as the sea,
Should be thy love for me."

"If love like mine, glow in thy heart,
I am foerver thine."

"Fervent as steel, and firm as the hills,
Should be thy love for me."

(b) "ON THE ROAD TO MANDALAY" ..... Kipling-Speaks

MR. BALLARD

"By the old Moulmein Pagoda, lookin' eastward to the sea,
There's a Burma girl a-settin', and I know she thinks of me.
For the wind is in the palm-trees, and the temple bells they say,
'Come you back, you British soldier, come you Back to Mandalay."

"Come you back to Mandalay,
Where the old Flotilla lay.
Can't you 'ear the paddles chunkin' from Rangoon to Mandalay?
On the road to Mandalay,
Where the flyin' fishes play, and the dawn comes up like thunder out of China 'crost the bay."

"'Er petticoat was yaller, an' 'er little cap was green,
An' 'er name was Supiyawlat, jes' the same as Theebaw's queen,
An' I seed her first a-smokin' of a whackin' white cheroot,
An' a-wastin' Christian kisses on a 'eathen idol's foot."

"Bloomin' idol made of mud,
What they called the great Gawd Budd,
Plucky lot she cared for idols when I kissed her where she stood.
On the road to Mandalay,
Where the flyin' fishes play,
An' the dawn comes up like thunder out of China 'crost the bay."

"Ship me somewhere's east of Suez, where the best is like the worst,
Where there ain't no Ten Commandments, an' a man can raise a thirst.
For the temple bells are callin' and it's there that I would be,
By the old Moulmein Pagoda, lookin' lazy at the sea."

5. (a) "SOUVENIR" ..... Drdla
(b) "KUYAWIAK" ..... Wieniawski

PROF. TEN HOOR

The first number of this group is too well-known to require description. The second is an unusual arrangement of a dance rhythm from the composer's Second Mazurka.

6. (a) "FANTASIE IMPROMPTU" ..... Chopin

MISS RUSSELL

This number is one of Chopin's most popular piano compositions. One of the two principal themes has lately been "stolen," note for note, and debased to do duty as a popular fox-trot. The resemblance is so obvious that everyone will quickly recognize the melody in its original setting.

(b) "LIEBESTRAUM" ..... Liszt

Another composition by Liszt, but of quite a different character. Translated, the title is "Dream of Love," a title sufficiently vague to satisfy a great variety of conceptions of the "grand passion" and at the same time sufficiently expressive to indicate the emotional background of the composition.

7. "WHEN THE BOYS COME HOME!" ..... Hay-Speaks

MR. BALLARD, MISS RUSSELL, PROF. TEN HOOR

"There's a happy time coming when the boys come home,
There's a glorious day coming when the boys come home.
We will end the dreadful story of the battle dark and gory
In a sunburst of glory, when the boys come home."

"The day will seem brighter when the boys come home,
And our hearts will be lighter when the boys come home:
Wives and sweethearts will press them in their arms and caress them,
And pray God to bless them, when the boys come home."

"The thin ranks will be proudest when the boys come home,
And our cheers will ring the loudest when the boys come home,
The full ranks will be shattered, and the bright arms will be battered,
And the battle standards tattered, when the boys come home."

"Their bayonets may be rusty when the boys come home,
And their uniforms be dusty when the boys come home.
But all shall see the traces of battle's royal graces
In the brown and bearded faces when the boys come home."

"Our love shall go to meet them, when the boys come home,
To bless them and to greet them, when the boys come home,
And the fame of their endeavor time and change shall not disever
From the nation's heart forever, when the boys come home."

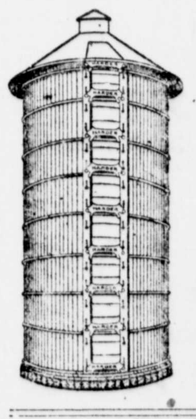
It's what you fork out from a Silo that counts more than what you "fork up" for it!



Mr. W. C. Terry, of New London, Ct., purchased a Harder Silo in 1914 and kept an accurate account of the receipts from 22 cows for the nine feeding months of the following year and compared them with the receipts from the same herd of cattle for the nine months of the previous year with the following results:

Sold with the Silo $243.40 more cream.
Sold with the Silo $72.53 more skim milk.
Sold with the Silo $125.00 worth of hay.
Bought $245.39 less grain.
Total proceeds of the season with the silo over those of the season without the Silo, $667.32

The Harder Mfg. Co., Cobleskill, N. Y.

Gentlemen—Am pleased to report that the two 14x32 Silos which you sold me last year are eminently satisfactory, and are unquestionably money savers for me. Am still using the one you sold me about ten years ago and that is, so far as I can see, as good as the year it was erected.

We are extending our farming projects and will probably need one or two of your Silos this fall, because we appreciate the necessity of greater food production throughout the country; this means more cattle and more cattle mean more Silos.

Very truly yours, SAMUEL RUSSELL, Jr.

IF YOU INTEND TO PUT UP A SILO IN 1920 INVESTIGATE OUR PURCHASERS CARLOAD CLUB PLAN! Write or call and let me explain how you can save money by placing your order now for future delivery. Two carload for 1920 delivery already sold. Am now booking orders for third carload.
