A SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

MARYLAND CODE,

Accessible to the general public for the Public in our Prospectus to the MARYLAND CODE, we announce the publication at an early day, of the First Volume of our Supplement to the Code.

IT WILL CONTAIN ALL THE

General and Local Laws,

Passed by the Legislature at the Extra Session of 1861, and the Regular Session of 1862, arranged under their Proper Titles to Correspond with the Code, to be accompanied with Accurate Tables, showing at a glance the Articles and Sections of the Code Repealed or Amended, with Full Reference to the Chapter and Section, by which amended or repealed, to which will be added in an Appendix, the Private Acts and Resolutions of the Extra and Regular Sessions. The whole to be carefully Indexed.

To render the work still more valuable, we shall place the CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, with its Amendments, with Marginal Notes, referring to the Decisions of the Supreme Court; Also the CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, with Marginal Notes and References to Acts of the General Assembly and Decisions of the Court of Appeals and on Appeals and Judgments.

We believe we do no injury to the public in work including every article known to be valuable to every Lawyer, Magistrate, Politician, Business Man, and every Citizen of Maryland, and consequently invaluable to every possessor of the Code.

The importance of the legislation of the late session of the Legislature, affecting as it does the interests of every one in the State, renders it a work of the greatest moment to each individual, it lives in a convenient and accessible form, the Acts of Assembly, and it is worth a year's perusal to be enabled to follow the various changes the Imperial Legislature which possesses the policy of the State in the recent session, while it will prove a matter of no slight moment to individuals and corporations, thus to have reference in a permanent form the Actions which their rights are liable to be affected by.

By continuing the publication of the work, as we propose, it is believed that the Bar of Maryland will generally, that be will prove a great boon to the profession, and especially at least of any State in the Union.

As such as may desire to secure the Supplement, will do well to order at once, as the extent of the Edition will be regulated by the number of subscribers.

Notice of Personal Discharge

ON application by petition in writing of T. Cornelius Thomas, of Carroll County, to the Circuit Court for Carroll county, for the benefit of the 4th Article of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, entitled insolvents, a schedule of his property and a list of the debts due him, with the names of his creditors, verified by oath, and a list of the debts he owes, and his assignee, it appears that the said petitioner has resided in Carroll county for two years next preceding his application, and has been a bona fide resident and actual bona fide housekeeper for the space of one year next preceding his application, and has complied with the requisites required by said Court, and it appearing that he has a bona fide assignee, and sufficient bond for his property and estate of every description, it is ordered, that the said petitioner be discharged from his imprisonment, and that he give a notice to his creditors, to appear before the said Court, at the place of holding the Court for Carroll county, on the 1st day of the next term thereof, to show cause why the said petitioner should not be discharged from his imprisonment, and that the said petitioner give notice of said day to be given to his creditors by publication in some newspaper printed in Carroll county for three successive months prior to the said First Monday of September, 1862.

Given under my hand this 25th day of April, 1862.
