FOR COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY.

JOSHUA HORNER, JR.

Election, Tuesday, November 7th, '93.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The delegates elected by the Republicans of Carroll county, at the primary meetings held on the 2nd inst., are notified to attend the County Convention to meet in Firemen's Hall, in the city of Westminster, on TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26TH, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating a County Ticket.

By order,

WM. H. BELL, JR.,
Chairman of Co. Central Com.
JNO. H. MITTEN, Secretary.

Mr. Reed's Great Speech.

One of the most effective and convincing speeches made in the House of Representatives, during the discussion of the Wilson Repeal bill, was that of Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, delivered August 26th. While asserting his belief that the Silver Purchase act was not alone responsible for the prevailing crisis, and reiterating, in a dignified way, his devotion to the principle of protection, he made an earnest appeal for sound money, and reviewed the record of the Republican party in that behalf in a striking and powerful manner. Concluding, he said "it is a matter of deep regret to all sensible men that we have delayed so long. Men are to-day struggling almost against fate and praying for relief. The banks are strained almost to the point of breaking. It is such a pity that we had to waste so much time in this weary welter of talk.

"We stand in a very peculiar position, we Republicans, to-day. The representative of the Democratic party just chosen President of the United States finds himself powerless in his first great recommendation to his own party. Were he left to their tender mercies the country would witness the spectacle of the President of its choice overthrown by the party charged with this country's government. What wonder, then, that he appeals to the patriotism of another party, whose patriotism has never been appealed to in vain.

"Never, I say, in vain; the proudest part of the proud record of the Republican party has been its steadfast devotion to the cause of sound finance. When this country was tempted to pay its bonds in depreciated money, the Republican party responded with loud acclaim to that noble sentiment of General Hawley —that 'every bond was as sacred as a soldier's grave.' It cost us hard fighting and sore struggle, but the credit of this country has no superior in the world. When the same arguments heard to-day were heard 15 years ago, sounding the praises of a depreciated currency, and proclaiming the glories of fiat-money, the party of Abraham Lincoln marched steadily toward specie payments and prosperity. What we were in our days of victory we are in our days of defeat—champions of true and solid finance, and when the day comes, as it surely will come, for us to lead this land back to the paths of prosperity and fame which were trodden under Republican rule for so many years, we shall take back with us our ancient glory undimmed by adversity; our ancient honor unsullied by defeat."

In the comments following in the Associated Press report of the speech it is said that "when that part of the speech was reached which treats of the threats of the Democratic party to interfere with the tariff, and when Mr. Reed declared it as a fact that the chairman of the committee on ways and means did not know to-day what he meant for a tariff—although his predecessor probably would—the humor of the thing was instantly caught up, and there were shouts of laughter on the floor and in the galleries. Then there was applause on the Republican side of the chamber when he declared that the efforts of the Democrats would be, not pieced out, but made whole by the patriotism of the Republican party.

"Mr. Reed was very impressive, and produced a marked impression on the audience when, in speaking of the banks, he declared his belief that they were doing at this moment as thoroughly patriotic a duty as any man whom he saw in front of him. They were the mainstay of the country at the present time.

"The closing sentence, in which Mr. Reed declared that when the day came, as it soon would come, that the Republicans would lead the land back to the paths of prosperity and fame, it would take back with it its glory, undimmed by adversity, its honor unsullied by defeat, loud and long-continued applause burst out from the Republican side of the chamber and from the galleries, and even the Democrats—an unwonted spectacle—contributed their share of applause. Then Mr. Reed took his seat, having occupied his hour to the exact moment."

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Morning Herald makes the remarkable assertion that President Cleveland has expressed, to Representative Oates, his willingness to have the ten per cent. tax on State bank circulation repealed. The correspondent adds that the impression prevails that "Mr. Cleveland is willing to have the repeal clean and unconditional." While Mr. Cleveland was elected on a platform which declared unequivocally in favor of such action, it has generally been supposed that he has no sympathy with the proposition. It may be possible, however, that an attempt is to be made on this line to placate the dissatisfied Democrats of the South and West, whose ire has been excited by the passage of the silver repeal bill by the House of Representatives. In that event the country will have made a poor exchange in the character of its circulating medium. Depreciated silver is preferable to wild cat bank notes.

Republican County Convention.

The Republican county convention, called to meet at Firemen's Hall, this city, on Monday last, assembled promptly at 10 o'clock, A. M., the hour named in the call. Wm. H. Bell, Jr., chairman of the County Central Committee, called the convention to order and Wm. Wood, of Union Bridge, was elected chairman unanimously. J. Edwin Weaver, of Westminster, and Dr. Luther Kemp, of Uniontown, were elected secretaries.

The districts were then called and credentials of delegates presented as follows:

Taneytown, No. 1.—W. W. Witherow, H. M. Clabaugh, E. O. Garner, Franklin Bowersox, James C. Galt.

Uniontown, No. 2.—Philip Englar, Marshall G. Shaw, Dr. Luther Kemp, Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., Wm. Myerly.

Myers', No. 3.—D. A. Harvey Tagg, Louis E. Shriver, Martin Yingling, Chas. E. Nusbaum, Daniel P. Frock; alternates, Wm. Flickinger, John N. Ditch, Jonas Yingling, Henry Troxell, Levi Motter.

Woolery's, No. 4.—Wm. H. Leister, Elisha Ogg, Wm. F. Jordan, Frederick Walkling, Jabez N. Shreeve.

Westminster, No. 7.—Grove A. Shipley, John H. Mitten, John Zentgraft, Joseph H. Krichton. J. Edwin Weaver.

Hampstead, No. 8.—Wm. Richards, John W. Gill, Lewis C. Myerly, John W. Kelbaugh, Noah J. Miller.

Franklin, No. 9.—Wm. Y. Frizzell, Charles E. Nicodemus, Thos. A. Barnes, T. Howard Shipley, Henry D. Franklin.

Middleburg, No. 10.—F. T. Birely, F. J. Shorb, W. W. Sweigart, E. M. Duttera, G. P. Ritter; alternates, J. F. Curfman, M. L. Koons, Samuel Weant, J. E. Buffington, Joel Myers.

New Windsor, No. 11.—W. S. Drach, Henry Englar, Isaiah Zile, D. Englar, of H., Fred. Englar.

Union Bridge, No. 12.—Chas. Heltibridle, Wm. Wood, Wm. H. Morningstar, I. C. Rinehart, Scott Wolfe; alternates, F. M. Ogle, J. M. Hollenberger, F. A Forney, T. A. Wolfe, J. J. White

Mt. Airy, No. 13.—D. C. Douty, C. H. Smith, R. J. Glisan, W. R. Rudy, W. H. Kugler; alternates, James Harris, J. H. Hahn, Theodore Gosnell, D. W. Smith, Joshua Burall.

The credentials having been in proper form, with no contesting delegations, they were accepted without the formality of a committee, and the officers of the convention were made permanent. Joshua Murdock was admitted to represent Manchester district.

At this stage of the proceedings the most important business of the convention was introduced by H. M. Clabaugh, who stated that it was well understood that some Republicans were of the opinion that no nominations for members of the Legislature and county officers should be made this fall. That the subject had been discussed at the meeting of the County Central Committee and had been referred to in the county papers, and had thus been brought to the attention of the Republicans of the county, who had probably given it ample consideration and were prepared, through their representatives in the convention, to decide the issue. He was, himself, thoroughly in favor of the nomination of a full ticket, and to test the sense of the convention on the subject moved that that course be adopted. Dr. Luther Kemp opposed the motion and argued against the propriety of making nominations. L. C. Myerly advocated postponement of action until after the meeting of the Democratic convention on the 25th inst. Chairman Wood, W. W. Sweigart and Nelson Blizzard favored immediate action.

The vote on Mr. Clabaugh's motion was taken by districts and resulted in its adoption, the vote standing 52½ for to 7½ against.

Then a motion was made and adopted, that a committee of one from each district be appointed to prepare resolutions for the consideration of the convention. The committee consisted of Jos. H. Krichton, chairman; Louis E. Shriver, Secretary; Franklin Bowersox, Philip Englar, Wm. H. Leister, Joshua Murdock, Jas. S. Baer, John W. Gill, Thos. H. Shipley, F. T. Birely, W. S. Drach, Charles T. Heltibridle, R. T. Glisan. The committee, through its chairman, subsequently submitted the following

REPORT ON RESOLUTIONS:

"Less than one year ago our country was in the full tide of a marvelous prosperity. Labor was in demand and willing workmen found employment at remunerative wages; agricultural products except wheat, commanded fair prices, and even that rain, notwithstanding an immense overproduction, maintained far better rates than are ruling to day; the carrying trade of the country was enormous and railroads were taxed to their utmost capacity to move the products of the land; manufactures of every character were in productive operation; the seller found a buyer, and thrift, comfort and happiness were the rule, and poverty and want the exception, in the homes of the land.

"In a brief period this bright picture has faded, and to-day hundreds of thousands of workingmen are vainly seeking employment; the hours of labor of hosts of others have been diminished, and their wages reduced; agricultural products, as a rule, are lower than ever; the carrying trade has fallen off enormously; factories and mills have failed or closed their doors; trade of every description has suffered inevitable contraction, and hungry (and in many instances homeless) men, women and little children are crying for bread. For prosperity we have adversity; for plenty, poverty; for comfortable and happy homes, abodes of misery and want, soon to be agravated by the bitter blasts of winter. The prospect is appalling.

"The Republican party believes and maintains that the chief factor in producing this mighty change is the threatened reversal of the system of protection, begun by the election of a Democratic President and a Congress pledged to the policy of free trade. It believes that insistence upon the substitution of the declared policy of the Democratic party for the protection which made the country a marvel of prosperity, will be attended by increased evils and a greater overthrow of American industries, and will greatly aggravate the want and suffering now prevailing among the people.

"Believing this, duty demands that we oppose an unbroken front to the party whose policy has wrought this dangerous and alarming change. To this end, therefore, be it Resolved, That when this convention shall adjourn to-day, it will be to meet again on Tuesday, September 26th, 1893, for the purpose of nominating a full ticket for members of the Legislature and county officers."

The report was received with every demonstration of approbation, and, with the accompanying resolution, was adopted unanimously.

Pending the vote upon it some discussion occurred in relation to the date to be inserted in the resolution, and, incidentally, the question of nominating candidates for County Commissioners was introduced. The earliest date suggested for the meeting was adopted upon the suggestion that legal proceedings might be necessary to test the constitutionality of the law extending the terms of Commissioners elected in 1891, and to insure the printing of the names of candidates for a full Board on the official ballots, in the event of a decision setting aside the law. Mr. Clabaugh expressed the opinion that the law is unconstitutional and said candidates for a full Board should be nominated.

After the adoption of the resolution the convention proceeded to elect delegates to the State and judiciary conventions and five members to represent the county on the State Central Committee, as follows:

Delegates to State Convention—Harry M. Clabaugh, Taneytown; Wm. Wood, Union Bridge; Wm. Y. Frizzell, Franklin; James S. Baer, Westminster; Louis E. Shriver, Myers'.

Members of State Central Committee—Lewis C. Myerly, Hampstead; W. S. Drach, New Windsor; Walter R. Rudy, Mt. Airy; Harry M. Clabaugh, Louis E. Shriver.

Delegates to Judiciary Convention—Joseph D. Brooks, Westminster; F. J. Shorb, Middleburg; D. A. Harvey Tagg, Myers'; F. J. Devilbiss, New Windsor; H. M. Clabaugh.

On motion the convention adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock, A. M., Tuesday, September 26th, 1893, at Firemen's Hall, Westminster.

The Republican State convention, which met in Baltimore on Wednesday, nominated Mr. Joshua Horner, Jr., of that city, for Comptroller. Mr. Horner is President of the American National Bank and senior member of the firm of Joshua Horner, Jr., & Co., fertilizer manufacturers. He was at one time a member of the Baltimore City Council and was the Republican candidate for Congress in 1880. A better nomination could not have been made. Mr. Charles T. Wescott, of Kent county, was chairman of the convention. The secretaries were: Wilson H. Mules, Baltimore; Mandel Sauer, Washington county, and Wm. H. Butler, Anne Arundel county. Very important action was taken in relation to the Baltimore Republicans, a full account of which is necessarily deferred on account of the crowded condition of our columns this week.

The Ways and Means committee of the House took up the preparation of a tariff bill, on the 4th inst., and will hear the suggestions of parties interested in its effect upon American industries, from that date till the 20th inst., making fourteen working days. That is a brief time, but as the Chicago platform declares protection unconstitutional, and the Democratic party is committed to that theory, any hearing on the subject seems superfluous. If the Democratic party is honest protection must go—but the party will go with it.

A scheme to create State banks on a National basis—that is, subject to federal supervision—is reported to be a project of the administration, no tax to be levied on the issues of such institutions, but the ten per cent. tax now in operation to be continued on the circulation of simple State banks of issue.

The new Republican State Central Committee met in Baltimore on Wednesday and unanimously re-elected Harry M. Clabaugh, Esq., of Carroll county, chairman; Capt. H. Clay Naill, of Frederick, secretary, and Capt. Noble H. Creager, of Baltimore, treasurer, for the term of two years.
