THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

OWING to a rush of Christmas advertisements we are compelled to leave out our editorial matter this week, to accommodate our advertisers.

THE robbery of the City Savings Bank, at Gay and High streets, Baltimore, is another one of those daring feats that is causing consternation in Baltimore. The bandits got away with $5,495 of the bank's cash.

THE proposition of the Governor of North Carolina to come to the assistance of the farmers of the United States by loaning them money from the Reserve Bank funds has been taken up by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, who will draft a bill to be presented to Congress. The money which Senator Hitchcock would have advanced to the farmers is the government's share in profits of the Federal Reserve Banks payable next month and which under the law would be used to increase gold reserves or amortize Liberty Bonds. Loans would be made through the Federal Land Banks on chattel mortgages or warehouse receipts with agricultural products or live stock as security. Loans on grain would be limited to six months and those on livestock to one year. "This would be only a drop in the bucket toward meeting the enormous needs of agriculturists," said Senator Hitchcock, "but it would have a good effect beyond the actual amount of money made available."

—Mr. Stanley Robbins, of Washington College, has been awarded the position of quarterback on the All-Star team of the state which was picked by the Baltimore Sun sporting editor. Mr. Robbins is an athlete of unusual ability and has made a mark in all departments of sport at Washington College during the past few years.

—In a discussion in one of Chestertown's garages one evening this week over the proposed abolishing of car riding on Sunday to conserve gasolene, the question was raised as to whether this could be legally done, when one of the parties present said: "If they can pass a law in 60 days to allow women to vote and pass another law in two weeks to stop the sale of whiskey, they can pass a law to do anything."
