ABOUT SHOES.

Everybody wears shoes, so everyone ought to be interested in this talk. There are shoes and shoes. Some are good and some are bad. Some wear and some wear out—wear out quickly we mean. We pride ourselves on our shoe stock and no corner of our store receives more careful study and no class of goods more thorough examination than our shoes. It is not enough for us to say it is as good as some one else's, it must be the very best that can possibly be had for the money or we won't have it. Unless we can offer you the very best shoe obtainable for the money you wish to invest we don't want your trade. We ask for your custom only on the basis of the best goods for the least money. Further than this every shoe we sell must do what we say it will. If we guarantee a shoe we st
