Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

Never attempt to relieve your baby with a remedy that you would use for yourself.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

My Books

(From The Christian Advocate)

Upon the shelves in stately rows they stand,
My quiet friends. They murmur not, nor fret,
Because I am too weak to reach a hand
To draw them near me. Quiet, I say, and yet

They speak in clearer tones than those who talk
In louder voice: and dearer tales they tell
Than any told me in my daily walk
By friends and neighbors who around me dwell.

This one recalls a golden autumn day,
When dark the heather glowed 'neath the clear sky,
And in a hollow, book in hand, I lay,
Heedless how swift the moments glided by.

And that, with plain red covers, calls to mind
A friend who borrowed it, and gave it praise,
Saying that in its pages one might find
Both truth and tenderness. Since then the days

Have grown to months, and lengthened into years,
Since that dear friend I saw. But when I take
This book within my hand, a face appears,
And, as I turn the leaves, fond memories wake.

As one far inland, longing for the sea,
Close to his ear should hold a tiny shell,
And for one blissful moment dreams that he
Can hear the roar of waves that break and swell.

So yearning for the scenes of long ago,
And far removed from friends supremely dear,
I turn my eyes toward my books; and lo!
The vanished scenes and faces reappear.

MILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Nelson, of Philadelphia, were week-end guests of his sisters, Mrs. E. E. White and Miss Cynthia Nelson.

A state road cop was in Millington last Saturday. No arrest.

The improvements taht are being made to Trinity M. E. Church, South, are progressing nicely and when finished will make a handsome church edifice. The windows are quite pretty all are of art glass and many of them are memorials. When completed it will be a structure of which we all may be justly proud.

Miss Margaret Turner, of Ellicott City, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Turner the past week.

Miss Hallie Higman returned home last week after a week's visit with Seaford friends.
