OBITUARY

MRS. PHOEBE ENSOR

Mrs. Phoebe Ensor, 89 years old widow of Edward C. Ensor, of 1812 War ancestry, died suddenly Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tillie Lindsay, of New Windsor, this county. She was of the Primitive Baptist faith and the daughter of the late Joseph G. Dance, of Cockeysville, and Scott Dance, of Long Green. She is survived by her children (Clarence Ensor, of New Windsor; Joseph Ensor, of Baltimore; Mrs. Della Fryors, this city, and Mrs. Bettie Sundergill, and Mrs Lindsey, near New Windsor), also eight grandchildren.

Dr. John T. Ensor, district superintentent of Baltimore Methodist Episcopal Church, and Alexander D. Brooks, assistant cashier of the National Bank of Cockeysville, are nephews.

The funeral service was held Monday afternoon at one o'clock in the Bethel M. E. Church, New Windsor.

From Manchester correspondent.

A. E. B. MYERS

The weary matching and waiting at the bedside of Mr. Andrew E. B. Myers came to an end at 3 A. M. Monday surrounded by the members of his family the last spark of life took its flight and he passed on the other side at the age of 66 years, 9 months and 29 days. During his complaining and two years but more particularly the last year, he was a great sufferer but he bore it patiently knowing that he was receiving the best of treatment and careful nursing. He was a devoted husband and parent, kind neighbor and friend, always ready to do his part for the good of others. He was a consistant member of the Lutheran church and during the pastorage of Rev. C. M. Eyster he was a deacon for some years. His remains were laid to rest on Wednesday morning in a family lot. Rev. Leatherman officiating. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Wm. E. Brilhart and Miss Mary Myers, in the home, one son, Mr. David E. Myers, in Baltimore, one sister, Mrs. N. Frank Cofiel, of Arcadia, and one brother, Mr. Thomas Myers, Boring, Baltimore county, Messrs George Folk, William S. Hoffman, Theodore Fridinger, Jacob W. Warehime, Allen R. Lippy and Archie Menchey were the pallbearers.

W. L. F. Bergman had charge of the funeral.

From Pleasant Valley correspondent.

N. FLEAGLE

Noah Fleagle, aged 83 years, 6 months and 2 days, died at his home near this place, on Sunday, January 13th. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. Melanchton Myers, Mrs. Sallie Fleagle and Robert Fleagle of Baltimore, and Frank Fleagle, of Pleasant Valley. Funeral service was held from his late home on Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. Hoover, of Silver Run, and Rev. Paul Yoder, after which the remains were taken to Baust church cemetery near Tyrone, where interment was made.

From Unitontown correspondent.

J. BOBLITZ

Mr. Jeremiah Boblitz, a known and highly respected resident, residing near Uniontown this county, died yesterday morning aged 75 years.

His wife died many years ago.

He is survived by a nephew, Wm. Adams, near Avondale, this county, and a niece, Miss Nancy Adams, of this city.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. W. E. Saltzgiver, will be held Saturday morning at ten o'clock in Winters Church and the interment will be made in the adjoining cemetery.

C. MYERS

Mr. Clearfield Myers died Monday evening, 14th inst., after a lingering illness at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Naylor, of Upperco, aged 76 years.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Naylor, of Upperco, and Mrs. John Brown, of Butler, and three brothers, Thomas Myers, of Upperco, and Wm. S. and Andrew B. Myers, of Baltimore.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. H. C. Hall, was held yesterday morning at Pleasant Grove M. E. Church and the interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Clinton Tracy, Stephen Gill, J. Frank Armacost, Oscar Algire, John H. Armacost and George Nash.

Messrs. C. V. Tipton and Son were the funeral directors.

Dr. Fahrney's Teething Syrup is the best remedy for any sickness baby gets, no matter how young or how old. Try it.

From Uniontown correspondent.

MRS. HARRIET SEILHAMER

Mrs. Harriet, widow of the late Rev. G. W. Seilhamer, died of paralysis on her 81st birthday, January 12, 1918, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Clark Gibney, Lancaster, Pa.

She had been in failing health for several years. She is survived by one son, William Seilhamer, Wichita, Kan., and four daughters, Mrs. Lizzie Gaul and Mrs. Lucy Gibney, Lancaster, Pa.; Mrs. Sallie Heltibridle, Uniontown, and Mrs. Rebecct Beightler, Arlington.

Rev. Seilhamer died while serving the Uniontown charge of the Church of God twenty-one years ago.

Mrs. Seilhamer was a faithful worker in the church, always ready to lend a helping hand there, as well as her home and neighborhood.

Her body was brought to the home of U. Grant Heltibridle, Uniontown, Tuesday evening, and funeral service held at the Bethel Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. F. N. Parson, assisted by Rev. J. G. Saxton, Woodsboro. Burial was made in the Hill Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. W. P. Englar, Jesse P. Garner, Obediah Fleagle, George Slonaker, G. Fielder Gilbert and J. Edward Formwalt.

MRS. N. MELHORN.

Mrs. Nettie Hunt Melhorn, widow of the late Mr. Guy Melhorn, and daughter of Alverda and the late Thomas J. Hunt, died Tuesday, 15th inst., at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, aged 36 years.

The funeral service was held Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at her late residence, No. 311 East North avenue, Baltimore, and the interment was made yesterday aftrnoon at two oclock in Hampstead Cemetery.

MRS. MARY ANN LEAKINS

Mrs. Mary Ann Leakins, widow of the late Dr. Lewis Leakins, died at the home of her brother, Jacob N. Pittinger, Libertytown, Sunday night about 10.30 p. m. She had been in her usual health during the day.

She ate a hearty supper and was laughing and talking during the evening and had not complained. Soon after she retired members of the family heard her groan and went to her room to investigate. She was still conscious but expired a few minutes afterward while a telephone call was being made for a physician; death was due to heart failure. She was about 77 years of age.

Besides her brother, she leaves three sisters: Mrs. Charles Humerick, of Lewistown; Mrs. Charles Spurrier near McKinstry, this county, and Mrs. John Ecker, near Long's school house.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning, leaving the house at 10 oclock. Services were held at Linganore Chapel, Unionville, by the pastor, Rev. D. Foard. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining. Albaugh and Powell, of Libertytown, were the funeral directors.

MRS. WILLIAM H. ROBERTS

After an illness of less than a week, Mrs. Rebeccah Roberts, wife of Wm. H. Roberts, died January 7, at her home in Mt. Airy, of heart failure, aged 65 years. Mrs. Roberts was a daughter of Joshua and Mrs. Rebeccah Molesworth, deceased, whose home was near Kemptown and where she was raised. Mrs. Roberts was noted for her eminent Christian character. She is survived by he husband and Mrs. Anna Poole, at home; Mrs. Thomas G. Loman, Albert and Harry Roberts, of near Mt. Airy; Mrs. Eugene Mercer, and Wm. H. Roberts, Jr., of Baltimore. Twelve grandchildren also survive. The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church, of which she was a member, January 9. The pastor, Rev. W. T. Cover, had charge of the services. The pallbearers were Geo. W. Clay, Wm. O. Banks, Wm. H. Hood, R. L. Runkles, Henry Clay and Edgar T. Mercer. Burial was made in Pine Grove cemetery. Mrs. B. W. Bowman and Son were the undertakers.

From Uniontown correspondent.

CHARLES L. MERING

Charles Mering, son of Mrs. Clementine, and the late G. Thomas Mering, of Uniontown, died at his home Pleasant Hill, near Owings Mill, Baltimore county, Friday, January 11, 1918, aged 53 years.

Recently he suffered the amputation of a foot, and after his return from the hospital he had an attack of bronchitis, and in his weakened condition was not able to battle against it.

His widow, formerly Miss Blanche Ecker, and two sons, Kenneth and Ridgely, survive. Also his aged mother, Mrs. Clementine Mering, and two sisters, Miss Ida and Bessie, and one brother, Harry B. Mering, Uniontown, and one brother, John Mering, Great Bend, Kansas.

Mr. Mering was a native of Carroll county, but spent much of his life in Baltimore in business. His funeral was held at Owings Mill in the Persbyterian church, Monday afternoon.

Burial was made in Druid Ridge Cemetery, where their oldest son Donald, a promising young man, was laid to rest two years ago.

MANCHESTER

Rev. F. H. Blatt will hold preparatory services on Sunday morning, 20th and communion services on Sunday, 27th at 10.30 o'clock.

The members of the school will hold a war supper on Saturday evening the 19th in the Fireman's Hall for the benefit of the piano fund. It is a home enterprise and should be well patronized. The saying is, "Charity begins at home.' It is for the benefit of all the children of the school district, town and country, and is a factor in the schools of today that cannot be left out. No doubt plenty of little tots learn to sing in the schools. We hope not only the patrons but the friends of the schools will patronize the affair so that the net receipts will be encouraging to those who are endeavoring to raise the money for the next payment. Don't forget this Saturday evening from 5 to 10 P. M.

Mr. Ralph Yingling enjoyed Saturday evening and Sunday with his parents and friends here. He's looking fine.

Mrs. Kate Shower resigned as organist in Trinity Reformed church and Miss Julia M. Roeder has accepted and entered upon the duties of the position.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fuhrman, of Paris, Kentucky, whom we mentioned in our last as being ice bound in Baltimore, spent several days here at the home of their sister, Miss Margaret Fuhrman, circulating among friends. Mr. H. A. Myers accompanied them he having been on his vacation. Mr. M. is going to the hospital for some special treatment. He was operated on several years ago, and now needs treatment along that line.

C. J. H. Ganter spent last Week with friends in Harrisburg.

The ice, snow and zero weather was still with us during the week and now mixed with hail and rain has renewed the sleighing and persons are getting back to runners again.

EMORY

The Ladies' Aid of Emory met at Mrs. Guy Yingling's with a fairly good attendance. A majority of the members voted to cut out all refreshments for 1918 and the member who entertains gives a donation in cash instead of refreshments. The Ladies' Aid gave a cash donation for the Red Cross instead of refreshments. Miss Pearl Zepp will entertain the Aid February 5th.

Miss Ethel Fowler is very much improved at this writing.

Mrs. James Taylor is in Baltimore at the hosppital for treatment.

The roads are in a bad condition on account of the ice. Men are busy filling the ice houses.

TANEYTOWN

Corporals Clyde L. Hesson and Luther Harner, of Camp Meade, spent from Saturday until Sunday evening with their home folks.

George Magee and wife, of Baltimore, spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. Pius J. Hemler.

Hezekiah D. Hawk died quite suddenly at two A. M. Sunday from heart failure. He had been about on Saturday and in apparently his usual health, and was stricken quite suddenly and died in a few minutes. His age was 74 years, 2 months and 17 days. Funeral on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock at the house by his pastor, Rev. L. S. Hafer, and the interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery. He is survived by his second wife, and the following daughters: Mrs. Asbury Fuss, near Emmitsburg; Mrs. Nettie Jacobs, of near Hampton; and Mrs. J. M. O. Fogle, near town, all children by his former marriage, and one brother, Nelson Hawk.

Mrs. Samuel Bishop returned from Frederick City Hospital where she had been a patient for eight weeks, recovering from an operation for gall stones.

Miss Mary Harner, of Gettysburg, spent several days last week with Miss Lulu Ott.

Miss Eleanor Birnie returned Saturday from a ten days visit to Miss Lou Johnson, at Frederick.

John Gipprick, of York, spent one day last week with E. C. Sauerhammer.

Mrs. J. M. O. Fogle is ill at the home of her father, Hezekiah Hawk.
