Local Matters.

☞ John T. Briscoe, Esq., has been appointed postmaster at Head Sassafras, vice John C. Vochell, resigned.

THE "CHESTER BLUES."—A new military company, called the "Chester Blues," was organised in Chestertown on Monday evening last. Dr. Wm. W. Valk was unanimously elected Captain; Jesse K. Hines and J. A. Pearce, jr., Lieutenants. The Company number about thirty-six men in line, and expect to be fully armed and equipped by the 22nd of February.

VISIT OF THE "REED RIFLES" TO CENTREVILLE AND EASTON.—Notwithstanding the very inclement weather on Wednesday, the "Reed Rifles," with their accustomed perseverance, started on their proposed visit to Easton. We have gathered from members of the Company the following interesting particulars of their visit.

Arriving at Centreville, they were received in handsome style by that soldier-like body, the "Scott Rifles," who with a soldier's patience, had been in waiting three long hours, and escorted to their armory, where a few moments were pleasantly spent around the social board; from thence to quarters and an ample board which the "Scotts" had prepared for them. After dinner the line of march was again taken up for a short parade through the town, after which the "Reeds" took their departure for Easton.

The condition of the roads made their arrival there so late, (9 P. M.,) that the military in waiting had dismissed their ranks, and the "Reeds" paraded quietly to their quarters, where they found Capt. Strandberg and officers of the "Home Guards" in patient waiting to greet them.

A bright sun ushered in the next day, and the good old town of Easton was soon alive with stirring music and glittering bayonets. After a short drill the "Reeds" were formally received by the "Home Guards," accompanied by their fine band fully uniformed; and after parading the principal streets, the two companies were drawn into line and reviewed by Maj. Gen. Tilghman and staff. The remainder of the morning was spent in drilling.

The officers of the "Reeds" dined with Capt. Strandberg and his officers, at his private residence.

At 1½ P. M. the roll was called for departure. Upon falling into line the Reeds were presented, by Capt. Strandberg, upon the part of the Guards, with a beautiful wreath, "in memoriam" of the occasion.

The Reeds express themselves as delighted with their trip, and feel highly flattered at the hospitality and kindness everywhere shown them, being treated more as invited guests than as travelers upon their own responsibility.

The corps arrived at their armory yesterday at 12 M., just 48 hours from the time of leaving, having made a land expedition of forty miles from home, looking quite as fresh as though they had only been target shooting.

MARRIAGES.

On the 16th inst., at the M. E. Parsonage, by Rev. Wm. B. Walton, Mr. AMBROSE P. CARROLL to Miss SALLIE A. RAISIN, all of this county.

[We tender our thanks to the happy couple for a loaf of excellent cake, received with the above notice. We wish them much joy.]

On the 17th inst., by Rev. J. Nichols, WM. M. MILLER to MARY G. MASLIN, all of Kent.

DEATHS.

In Galena, on the 9th inst., CARRIE, eldest daughter of William and Sallie Rodgers, aged three years and nine months. She was a remarkable child. Intelligent beyond her years, she endured her intense suffering with peculiar patience and fortitude. He who said "Suffer little children to come unto me," has taken her to himself. May the knowledge of her happiness in Heaven, serve as an additional incentive to the bereaved parents to "fight the good fight of faith."

A Card.

I WAS no little surpised at the card of Mr. Joseph Porter, in the "News" of last week. He denies crossing my place;—this is not true. His servants and himself were in the habit of crossing and leaving the fence down, whereby I have suffered from trespass. I have no desire to give "notoriety" to myself, but only to protect myself, which Mr. Porter, or any other man, would do under the circumstances.

A CARD.

I OBSERVED with surprise, in the "Kent News" of last week, a notice from Mr. DULANY RASIN, to me and my servants, not to cross his premises. I am not aware of having crossed Mr. R.'s premises more than twice or thrice during the last year; once I was with an officer, looking for the property of my tenant, and passed through. I have no knowledge that any of my servants have crossed Mr. R.'s property. I have been assured that they have not, and believe it can be proved. Why Mr. R. should wish to give notoriety to himself, and to exhibit my name, gratuitously, to the public, in such a connection, I cannot tell.—The public may judge of the motives and manners of such a proceeding, in reference to one, who never had any difference of any kind with Mr. R., and who had no unkindness to him.

Wheeler & Wilson's
SEWING MACHINE.

NO reader of the Kent News needs to be assured of the superiority of this machine. It is attested by the united voice of thousands of families, throughout the civilized world; by all manufacturers of sewed goods, and by the discriminating awards of committees at state and county fairs, where it has uniformly carried off the highest premiums.

These machines make the lock-stitch, the only stitch that cannot be ravelled, and that presents the same appearance on both sides of the seam No other than the lock-stitch is acceptable to discriminating and intelligent people, and as the WHEELER & WILSON MACHINE will sew anything from the lightest muslins to the heaviest cloth, or even leather, and will work equally well upon silk, linen, woollen and cotton goods, it should stand as it does, highest in public estimation. Prices $45, 50, 60, 65, 75, 90, and $100.

Richard A. Frazier, against Mary Josephine Frazier, } Bill on the Equity side of the Circuit Court for Kent Co.

THE object of this Bill is to obtain a Divorce A Vinculo Matrimonii from the Defendant Mary Josephine Frazier, wife of the Defendant.

The Bill states, that the Complainant and Defendant were united in marriage in the month of December, in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty; that they lived together as man and wife from that period till the month of December, 1860, when, without reasonable cause, she left the home of Complainant, in Kent county, and took their only two children, one aged seven years and upwards, and the other between one and two years, and went to reside with her father in the State of Delaware, where she now remains. That during their conjugal relations and particularly within two or three years past she has been guilty of adultery, intoxication, profanity, excessively vicious conduct, and last of abandonment, and desertion of her husband and home,—and that he has made, recently, inquiry and examination into the proofs of her conduct as aforesaid, which previously he was unwilling to believe.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the Complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the nineteenth day of February next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this Bill; and warn her to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the nineteenth day of May next to answer the premises, and show cause if any she has, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
