CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT

CHAPTER 122, ACTS OF 1908

171. The following persons shall be guilty of corrupt practices and shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of this act: Every person, who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or by another give or offer or promise to any person any money, gift, advantage, preferment, entertainment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatever, for the purpose of inducing or procuring any person to vote, or refrain from voting, for or against any person, or for or against any measure or proposition at any election or primary election or political convention or session of the General Assembly of Maryland or either House thereof. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly receive, accept, request or solicit from any person, candidate, committee, association, organization or corporation, any money, gift, advantage, preferment, aid, emolument or any valuable thing whatsoever, for the purpose of inducing or procuring any person to vote, or refrain from voting for or against any person, or for or against any measure or proposition at any election or primary election or political convention. Every person who in consideration of any money, gift, preferment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatsoever paid, received, accepted or promised to the advantage of himself or any other person, shall vote, or refrain from voting, for or against any person, or for or against any measure at any such election, caucus or primary election or political convention. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, pay, give, contribute or promise any money or other valuable thing, to defray, or towards defraying the costs or expense of any campaign or election, to any person, committee, company, club, organization, or association other than to a treasurer or political agent; but this sub-section or paragraph shall not apply to dues regularly paid for membership in any incorporated political club if all money expended by such club for or in connection with the costs or expenses of any campaign or election shall be passed out by it only through a treasurer or political agent, as provided in this Act, or to any expenses for postage, telephoning, telegrams, stationery, printing, expressage or traveling and board incurred by any candidate for office or for nomination thereto so far as they are permitted by this Act. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or through another person, make a payment or promise of payment, to a treasurer or political agent in any other name than his own; and every treasurer or political agent, who shall knowingly receive a payment or promisement, and every [illegible] same or same to be [illegible] in his [illegible] any other [illegible] that [illegible] by whom [illegible] payment [illegible] lishment will cease in whole or in part or his establishment be closed up, or the wages of his employes be reduced other threats expressed or implied, intended or calculated to influence the political opinions or actions or his employes. Every person, who, before, during or after election or primary election, by himself or by any other person, either directly or indirectly, gives or provides or pays, wholly or in part, the expenses of giving or providing any meat, drink, entertainment or provisions to or for any person, for the purpose of influencing that person or any other person, to give or refrain from giving his vote at the election or primary election, or to influence his vote in any other way therein, or on account of his having voted or refrained from voting, or being about to vote or refrain from voting, and every elector who accepts the same, or any of the same, for any of the purposes aforesaid. Every person who shall be guilty of any corrupt practices as aforesaid shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for one year, or both, and shall be ineligible to any public office or public employment for a period of four years from and after the time of the commission of such offense.

CONCEALED WEAPONS ON ELECTION DAY

The following Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session of 1874 and approved April 6, 1874, is published for the information of the public:

AN ACT

To prevent carrying of guns, pistols, dirks, dirk-knives, razors, billies, or bludgeons by any person in Kent, Queen Annes or Montomery counties on the day of election in said counties:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person in Kent, Queen Annes and Montgomery counties to carry on the day of election, secretly or otherwise, any gun, pistol, dirk, dirk-knife, razor, billy, or bludgeon, and any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the Peace, in either of said counties, shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, and on refusal to pay said fine shall be committed by Justice of the Peace to the jail of the county until the same is paid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the fines collected under this Act shall be paid by the officers collecting the same to the School Commissioners of the county where offense shall have been commited for school purposes.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That any constable of either of said counties or the sheriff thereof, who shall refuse to arrest any person violating any provision of this Act, upon information of said offense, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the Circuit Court of the county shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars and forthwith be discharged from office.

BETTERTON

The annual harvest home service of the M. E. Church was held on Sunday, Dr. Morris Swartz being the speaker for both the afternoon and evening services. A barrel of canned goods and vegetables were sent to the Methodist Hospital from the church.

Bishop Davenport, of the Easton Diocese, preached and held a confirmation at the Episcopal Chapel on Sunday evening.

Bishop Hamilton, of the Methodist Church, made an unexpected visit to Betterton last Sunday week and gave a splendid report of the Ecumenical Conference he had attended in London in August.

A number of the members of the Masonic Order attended the service held at the M. P. Church in Chestertown Sunday evening.

The W. F. M. S. held its first meeting of the fall at the home of Mrs. Walter Crew on Wednesday. A most interesting meeting was held with every prospect of a successful year.

The annual fall supper of the M. E. Church will be held on Monday evening, Nov. 9, in the church basement.

A number of officers and teachers of both the Methodist and Episcopal Sunday Schools attended the annual Sunday School Convention held at Kennedyville on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffield, of Baltimore, are building a bungalow on Bayside adjoining the property of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owens.

Several Betterton folks took part in the Grange lecture hour last Tuesday at Still Pond and enjoyed the beautiful dahlia show held in the hall the same evening.

Mrs. Floyd Crownhart spent the past week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Mickey, of Baltimore, spent a part of the week with Mr. Mickey, of the High School faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Groves have closed their bungalow at Betterton and have gone to their home at Riverton for the winter.

MILLINGTON

Mrs. Hiram Woolyhand spent a couple of days last week with friends at Massey.

Mr. and Mr. Walter King and Mr. and Mrs. James D. Moore were guests last Sunday of their brother, Mr. Willard King, of Marcus Hook, Pa.

Miss Martha Barnes is visiting her friends in Batlimore this week.

Miss Ida Dulin, of Marcus Hook, spent last Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. George Jones.

Mrs. James C Vansant, Mrs. C. L. Turner, Miss Ella Jones and Miss Susie Jones spent last Monday with friends in Dover.

Mrs. Alinda Smith was the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Lane, of Warwick, Md., last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett, of Lancaster, Pa., were guests last Friday of his sister, Mrs. Annie S. Price.

Mrs. Franklin Stevens, of Wilmington, spent the past week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Stevens, near town.

Mr. Nathaniel Clough died suddenly at his home in Millington on Friday night of last week, aged 69 years. The funeral services were held at his late home on Monday afternoon at 1.30, Rev. D. H. Connelly, pastor of Asbury M. E. Church, officiating and J. A. Tobin was the undertaker. Interment was made in Millington cemetery. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Eva Marvel, of Millington, and five sons, Mr. John Clough, near Galena, Mr. Herman Clough, of Baltimore and Messrs. George, Clarence and Edward Clough, of Millington.

Mr. and Mrs. Olinda Smith spent last Sunday with her brother, Mr. Howard Clendaniel, of Kennedyville.

Miss Emily Nickerson, of Washington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Everett.

May We Present Miss Harriet Knight—Who Will Shop For You

Harriet Knight is the young woman to whom you may write whenever you are in need of anything.

Do you need a beautiful gown for some special occasion, whose style combines loveliness with dignity? A trimly tailored suit or frock for the street? A pair of slippers or oxfords to harmonize?

You may be a housewife needing a fireless cooker, a vacuum sweeper or any one of a hundred different kitchen utensils. Perhaps you contemplate buying a new dinner set. Harriet Knight will select whatever you need.

Do you need help in outfitting the growing boy or girl, or the tiny new member of the family? A splendidly stocked infants' wear department, boys' clothing section and misses' section are at Miss Knight's disposal.

And when you write, you can be sure that your shopping commission is receiving the same careful sort of attention that you would give it yourself.

FEET

WERE MADE TO WALK WITH AND NOT TO BE TORTURED WITH MISFITTED SHOES

It has long been discovered by our many satisfied customers that our method of correct fitting of shoes has enabled the old as well as young to walk about with the greatest of ease and comfort. As a matter of fact that's one of the reasons why our shoes hold their shape, look better, wear longer and cost cheaper in the long run.

All styles this season are more sensible in the toes and heels and prices are so low as to cause surprise.

Let us fit you once and we will fit you always.
