KELLY, HEDIAN & FIET,
Booksellers, Publishers, Printers, And Stationers

174 BALTIMORE STREET, BALTIMORE,

Keep constantly on hand a complete stock of Miscellaneous, School and Classical Books. Orders will receive prompt attention, and any Book not on hand will be procured without delay. FOREIGN BOOKS imported to order.

Their stock of PAPER and STATIONERY comprises every description of Foreign and Domestic Cap, Letter and Note Papers, together with a large assortment of COUNTING-HOUSE STATIONERY, and SCHOOL REQUISITES generally.

They manufacture in every size and style of Binding,

Blank Books, Memorandums & Pass Books.

Book & Job Printing, Book-Binding, &c.

They desire to call particular attention to this branch of their business. Their Printing Office and Bindery, connected with the Store, are supplied with the latest improvements in Type and Machinery, and in charge of experienced workmen, enables them to execute all orders for Book and Job Printing, Book Binding and Ruling, with neatness and despatch, at low prices. Their arrangements have been directed particularly to the execution of fine work for Banking and other Institutions, Insurance, Railroad, Telegraph, Steamboat and other joint stock Companies, Transportation Agents, Public Offices, &c., and feel confident, from long experience in this department of their business, that they can offer superior advantages and inducements for the prompt, careful, and correct execution of all orders in his line.

To their old friends and patrons they think nothing more need be said; they would simply add, give them a fair trial, as they are determined to use every effort on their part to give satisfaction to all who may favor them with their patronage. d1-y

Dr. J. T. TWILLEY, DENTIST,

FROM CENTREVILLE, MARYLAND,

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Kent Co. that he proposes visiting Chestertown on each and EVERY THURSDAY. He may, during business hours, be found at his rooms in the Dwelling of Mr. H. H. Simms, near McDaniel's Hotel. [mh9tf]

TO FARMERS!
Machine and Blacksmith Shop
IN CHESTERTOWN!

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the Farmers of Kent and Queen Ann's counties that he has just opened in Chestertown, next to Slingold & Calder's, a MACHINE and Blacksmith Shop, where he is prepared to make to order, or repair every description of

Agricultural Machinery,

embracing both the WOOD and IRON WORK.

Having been for several years in the employ of R. Sinclair & Co., Agricultural Machinists, Baltimore, and having acquired a practical knowledge of the business in all its departments he feels assured that he can give entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their patronage. JAMES A. BURTON.

Chestertown, feb2y.

NEW BOOT & SHOE STORE!
JAMES E. JOURNEY,

WOULD respectfully inform his friends and the public that he has resumed his old business of BOOT & SHOE MAKING in all its various branches; Gentlemen's

Fine Boots and Gaiters, and COARSE BOOTS, as may be wanted to order. Ladies' right and left Gaiters and Morocco Boots of the best quality; the best Goat and Leather such as may be wanted to order. Also, all the various kinds for Misses and children, all of which we shall keep constantly on hand, to supply the demand of those who deem us worthy of their patronage. Work made to order at the shortest notice, which will be sold at lowest prices. 10 per cent off for cash.

We hope our friends and the public generally will give us a call and avail themselves of this favorable opportunity of saving in hard times. ☞ We may be found at the store room adjoining Mr. W. T. Pearson's store, fronting the Masonic Hall. [mh2.]

The Crisis.

THE Crisis being very great in the cities, business suspended—and especially about the 23rd, 24th, 25th, and 26th of April, in Baltimore—W. A. VICKERS purchased a fine assortment of all kinds of Goods very cheap for cash. He respectfully informs his old friends and the community generally to examine, as it will ensure him still an increase of trade.

Vickers wants all kinds of Trade in exchange for goods. Wool wanted as usual, at the People's Cheap Store. W. A. VICKERS.

Chestertown, May 11, 1861.

RISING SUN OYSTER SALOON.
WILLIAM PERKINS

WOULD most respectfully inform his friends and the public that he is now prepared to serve up at his old stand, Rising Sun Saloon, in all their various ways and in his usual excellent style, which he flatters himself, after thirty years experience, cannot be surpassed by any Caterer on the shore.

OYSTERS, TERRAPINS, &C.

Gentlemen and Ladies wishing CAKE, ICE CREAM, PICKLED OYSTERS, &c., for Wedding or Cotillion Parties can be furnished at very short notice, and without trouble, as the caterer will attend in person when requested, and see that things are properly managed.

He refers to his past experience as a sufficient guarantee as to his qualifications to give entire satisfaction. dec. 8. 1860.

NOTICE.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS for Clubbing!—Any responsible person entering five mares to SCRIVINGTON, by season or insurance, in his own name will be entitled to a deduction of twenty per cent. from the regular rates, payable as advertised.

This offer is open to the original patrons who have only to get four names additional to their own subscriptions. Mr. Jas. T. Earle, of Centreville, gives Scrivington a very strong recommendation in his letter to me of May 3rd, 1861, and would have given two mares if he had been aware of his coming to Kent. He states that he was exhibited at the Md. Ag. Fair, fall of 1851 and is fully as represented.

LADD, WEBSTER & CO.
MANUFACTURERS OF
Improved Tight Stitch Sewing Machines,

For Families and Manufacturing Establishments.

No. 131 W. Baltimore Street,
Between Calvert and South streets, BALTIMORE.

SAMPLES OF WORK SENT BY MAIL.

Prices from $50 Upwards.

What Constitutes a Good Sewing Machine.

1. It should be well made, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order.
2. It should make a TIGHT LOCK-STITCH, alike on both sides of the material.
3. It should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.
4. It should be able to use Cotton, Thread, or Silk direct from the spool.
5. It should be able to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity and without changing the tension.
6. It should be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity.
7. It should have a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.
8. The needle should have perpendicular motion. This is absolutely necessary for heavy work.
9. It should be capable of taking in the largest pieces of work.
10. It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather.
11. It should be always ready to work.
12. It should be capable of using the same size of thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.
13. It should be able to make a long or short stitch.
14. It should be able to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch.
15. It should run easy and make little noise.
16. It should have a wheel feed; none others are in constant contact with the work.
17. It should not be liable to get out of order.
18. It should not be liable to break the thread nor skip stitches.
19. It should not be necessary to use a screw driver, or wrench to set the needle.
20. It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.
21. It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel out, nor be wasteful of thread, as is the case with ALL CHAIN STITCH machines.
22. It should not be "more trouble than it is worth."

☞ All these indispensable requisites of a good sewing machine, will be found embodied in those sold by

LADD, WEBSTER & CO.,
