OBITUARY:

WILLIAM THOMAS APPLETON, youngest son of Nicholas B. Appleton, Esq., was born June 30, 1835, at Summit Bridge, Del.; and died in New Castle, at the house of his brother, of pulmonary consumption, May 18th, 1861.

Thus has the King of Terrors with his merciless sword stricken down the fine and manly form of a most promising young gentleman, whose heart did not entertain the slightest feeling of enmity towards any human being—whose mind had been well cultivated, and who had become endeared to a large circle of acquaintances, and was especially loved by his own family. The educational advantages of the deceased were more than ordinary. Besides enjoying the privilege of attending District Schools at home, he was enabled to secure the benefits afforded by several well known and justly celebrated Institutions of learning abroad. He attended the Academy at Middletown, under the care of Mr. Madden, for a year, and was also a student at Hyatt's Military Institute for a considerable time. Having heard of the peculiar attractions of the New York Conference Seminary situated at Charlotteville, N. Y., he determined to avail himself of the advantages of that School, and accordingly carried his resolution into effect. The writer of this notice was then a teacher at Charlotteville, and can testify that William was much beloved by pupils and instructors, and maintained a high reputation for correct deportment, and studious habits. Those were happy hours spent amidst the beautiful valleys and health inspiring hills from which flow down the head waters of the Delaware and Susquehanna river; and our young friend enjoyed to the fullest extent all the physical and moral and intellectual blessings that abounded in that highly favored region. While his intellectual faculties received the benefits of education, his moral powers had been thoroughly subjected to the blessed influences of religion. In his 17th year, while yet a clerk in the store of the late Samuel Buzby Esq., of Wilmington, he became impressed with the duty of coming out early and openly on the side of God. At that time Rev. Francis Hodgson, D.D., now Presiding Elder of the South Pa. Dist., Phila. Conference, was pastor of the St. Paul's M. E Church. Under his faithful and eloquent ministrations a powerful revival of religion was commenced and carried on for many weeks. A large number of persons professed to have obtained a change of heart, and connected themselves with the followers of Christ. Among others, the name of Wm Thos. Appleton may be found recorded on the list of those who abandoned the ranks of the world's careless host and rallied around the blood stained standard of King Emanuel, for him to live and fight until the warfare should be over, and the soldiers called home. After much observation and careful deliberation in regard to the various pursuits of life he came to the conclusion that Agriculture was the business that suited him best. He accordingly became a farmer in Kent county, Maryland, where he remained 5 years, industriously attending to his interests.

There was a secret enemy, however, that had marked him as its victim; and the most healthy of all occupations could not prevent the inroads of the insidious destroyer. Slowly his strength wasted away and finally he came to the house of his brother John, to linger a few days a stricken sufferer upon the shores of time, and then launch forth upon the boundless ocean of eternity. He seemed to be perfectly aware that his stay on earth would be short. He had a little niece who died last August. Talking to her little brother one day he said, "I will see your little sister before any of the family." He loved to read the Bible and "The Pilgrim's Progress" and to sing the beautiful hymn commencing "I would not live always." He would not consent to ride out on the Sabbath, and received religious visits and counsels with gladness. His death was very sudden and unexpected. The evening before he died he had made his arrangements to go and see his father the following morning. When his brother brought the carriage and called him there was no reply. He was speechless, and in a few minutes more without a struggle or a groan he had sunk into the cold arms of the grim monster.

He was interred in the Cemetery of the M. E. Church at Odessa, by the side of his sainted mother, who went triumphantly home to Heaven sixteen years before.

WAR — War on RATS, ROACHES, and all kinds of VERMIN.

BOONSBORO, MD., March 21, 1861.

MR. HENRY R. COSTAR—

DEAR SIR:

Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach, who, after trying various other preparations, was persuaded to buy your EXTERMINATOR. The first trial he gave it was in his barn, when, to the astonishment of all, in the morning, the floor was almost covered with dead Rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation. I must, most undoubtedly, pronounce your EXTERMINATOR, as the most effective preparation for the destruction of RATS, MICE, &c., which has ever been brought before the public.

Your humble servant, F. H. IRWIN,
Editor of the Odd Fellow, BOONSBORO, MD.

JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm Street.

HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used it to our satisfaction and if a box cost $5 we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but Costar's article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed-Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country. —Medina (O.) Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are destroyed annually in Grant County by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer.—Lancaster (Wis) Herald.

HENRY R. COSTAR—Your Exterminator is received, used, and pronounced a decided success. CLOTHING EMPORIUM!
Spring Clothing at Phila. Prices.
Mastbaum

BEGS leave to announce to the citizens of Kent, Queen Ann's and adjoining counties and the public in general, that we are now opening our first invoice of Men and Boys and Youth's Clothing for Spring wear. Our stock this season surpasses anything we have ever had the honor to offer to this community; these goods are all of our own manufacture, and are made especially to suit the wants of this market embracing all the LATEST NOVELTIES OF THE SEASON, unequaled by any other house on the Shore. When you buy goods of us you get them direct from the Manufacturer, thus saving two or three profits.

So, come one, come all! to MASTBAUM'S Established Stand on the Corner, where you can save at least 25 per cent. by making your purchases. Call and be convinced. Our motto is Small Profits, Quick and Large Sales, and One Price Only!!

LOOK AT THE PRICES THIS SEASON! Silk mixed Cassimere, complete suits $15., do. do. 6.50; black cloth Coats $5; French cassimere Pants all styles, $3; super. Union Cassimere Vests $1.25. ☞Other Goods in proportion.☜

Gents' Furnishing Goods.

Our present Spring Stock is really of surpassing excellence, eclipsing anything of the kind heretofore offered in this town. An excellent assortment of the latest styles of Gents' Neck Ties, Scarfs, Collars, and all articles necessary to a Gents' outfit. G. P. E. C. always on hand.

Boys' and Youth's Clothing, HATS AND CAPS. BOOTS AND SHOES.

In these branches our stock is unusually large and admirably assorted, and which we will sell at very low figures for cash only. Particular attention given to custom work.
MASTBAUM, Phila. Cloth. Emp.,
Oldest Establishment in town.
WM. G. MCCULLOUGH, Salesman.

☞Orders addressed to L. Mastbaum, No. 128 South st., Philadelphia, will receive prompt attention. [apr 6.]

REVIVAL OF SPRING TRADE!

ENCOURAGED by unmistakable signs of confidence, I. FRANK & BRO. have laid in a new assortment of Spring Goods, for which they solicit an early examination, as they are confident that the quality of their goods, combined with their low prices cannot fail to ensure a sale.

Whole Suits at $4.00 and $7.00!

On hand, a select stock of HATS, of all the latest styles, such as Amazon, Washington and SPORTING HAT!

BOOTS & SHOES.

They have as usual, a superior stock of city made work for Men, Children and Servants.
