Foreign Advertising Representative
THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

MRS. DONALD R. HOOKER, president of the Just Government League of this State, caused great indignation, and justly so, among the representatives in both branches of our legislature by advocating interracial marriages. Republican as well as Democratic Senators expressed themselves in no unmistakable terms of their disapproval of Mrs. Hooker's statements advocating the making of the people of Maryland a mongrel race.

SENATOR Millard E. Tydings, of Harford County, announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination to Congress from the Second Congressional District of Maryland. The district includes Harford, Baltimore and Carroll counties and the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, and the first five precincts of the Twenty-fifth wards in Baltimore city. It is now represented by Albert A. Blakeney, of Baltimore county, a Republican. The announcement followed the appearance in Annapolis of a delegation from Harford county which asked Mr. Tydings to be a candidate.

The Woodrow Wilson Foundation Fund

Having been requested by the State Chairman, Mr. C. K. Bowie, to act as chairman of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation Fund, for Kent County, and having consented to do so, I am making this appeal to all admirers of Mr. Wilson in the county, who wish to contribute to that fund, to do so as soon as possible. The purpose for which the fund is being established is well known to all. Those who wish to honor the greatest living American citizen and to perpetuate his ideals, cannot do so in a more impressive way than by contributing to this fund. We are hoping to raise five hundred dollars in Kent. We are ready to receive larger subscriptions, but want at least five hundred one-dollar or less contributions so as to make it a POPULAR fund. Mr. T. G. Wroth is our treasurer. I have requested the following gentlemen to act as collectors in their respective communities:

Mr. Paul Comegys, Millington.
Mr. E. Thos. Massey, Massey.
Mr. R. C. Morgan, Galena.
Mr. Geo. Sutton, Blacks.
Mr. J. H. Clendaniel, Kennedyville.
Mr. J. W. Howard, Still Pond.
Mr. Wroth Stavely, Lynch.
Mr. J. M. Sutton, Betterton.
Mr. Ben Rash, Worton.
Mr. Romie C. Skirven, Hanesville.
Mrs. Jessse H. Usilton, Melitota.
Mr. H. S. Startt, Fairlee.
Mr. Page Gale, Tolchester.
Mrs. W. O. Selby, Rock Hall.
Mr. Elwood Burgess, Edesville.
Mr. Teo. H. Wood, Pomona.

S. S. HEPBURN, Chairman.

Legislative Notes

A bill has been introduced in the House by Delegates Knotts and Shawn, of Queen Annes county, reducing the compensation of judges of the Orphans Court for that county.

Action on the Hall Anti-Racetrack Gambling Bill was deferred on Tuesday until February 28, following a meeting of the House Judiciary Committee. The measure was reported favorable on the floor of the House, but the anticipated fight over adoption of the committee's report did not develop.

Several petitions relating to prohibition enforcement, race track betting and soldiers' bonus introduced and referred to the proper committees.

When the House reconvened at 8.40 Thursday evening after a strenuous day of conflict over the Anti-Saloon League's prohibition enforcement bill, the early indications had become stronger that the "dry" law proponents were in the ascendency and that the "wets", from their point of view, would be lucky could they gain enough votes to pass their referendum amendment. The passing of this amendment seems, in fact, the height of the "wet" aspirations.

Senator Russell introduced a bill in the Senate on Wednesday amending wild fowl laws for Kent County.

Governor Ritchie has appointed C. Frank Crow, J. Hydie Thompson, Democrats, and Thomas W. Trew, Republican, Supervisors of Elections for Kent Co. Mr. Crow is a reappointment; Mr. Thompson succeeds Mr. Geo. P. Hendrickson, Democrat, and Trew succeeds Mr. John N. Bennett, Republican.

THE GOAL

What is the goal that each holds dear
"Surpassing wealth," says the financier;
"Love," sighs the maid, with eyes cast down,
"Fame," says the poet, "and great renown";
"Justice," we hear the stern judge say,
"Youth," from the man whose hair is gray;
"Honor," the knight's impassioned cry,
"Truth," says the sage, with kindling eye;
And then from the little boy at play
We get this answer: "A holiday";
"Home," yearns the exile overseas
"Learning is greater than all of these,"
The scholar hastens to make reply;
"Health," says the invalid, with a sigh.

I pondered the long list through the night,
Undecided which one was right;
Until through the hedge of an open lane
I caught the lilt of an old refrain.
The careless lilt of a rover's song.
From one unmindful of right or wrong;
And so I asked, as he wandered near,
"What is the goal that you hold dear?"
Looking over the hills beyond,
"An endless dream," said the vagabond.

NOTED AMERICAN SPEAKS HERE

Judge Alton B. Parker, Former Candidate For President Of The United States, Adresses Big Crowd At Washington College

Washington's Birthday was fittingly observed here on Wednesday by having Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, former candidate for president, make an address at Washington College at a well-arranged meeting, which began at 11 a. m.

The following program was rendered: 1, March from Tannhauser, R. Wagner, Miss Louise B. Russell; 2, prayer, Rev. L. E. Barrett; 3, "America," the audience; 4, anniversary poem, Lawrence C. Woodman; 5, "The Star Spangled Banner," the audience; 6, address, "Washington," Judge Alton B. Parker; 7, "Washington Forever," the audience.

A number of the members of the local lodge of Masons attended in a body in honor of the fact that Washington was a Mason.

The speech by Judge Parker was well received by the big crowd that attended. While not attempting to make oratorical flights, Judge Parker made many good points in his speech, which was interesting throughout.

In touching on the outcome of the World War he said:

"The outcome of that event found a leadership here into which entered all the states of the world except Russia, Mexico, Germany and the United States. I believed then and now that the United States should have entered the League of Nations. We cannot fail, however, to be proud of the part that our President is taking in calling great nations to confer on great questions nor fail to rejoice at the outcome and note the second step promoted by Presidents of this country looking toward that hoped-for day when the differences between nations shall be settled as simply as are those of individuals in civilized countries."

Appointed Receiver Of Elkton Bank

Mr. Thomas W. Perkins, of Chestertown, has been appointed permanent receiver of the Second National Bank of Elkton, Maryland, by Comptroller of the Currency Crissinger. He has assumed his new duties. This position will not, however, interfere with Mr. Perkins' business in Chestertown. After the appointment was made, Mr. Perkins went to Washington to get his credentials. Several local persons of Elkton were suggested for the appointment as permanent receiver.

Mr. Perkins will make an exceptionally good man to straighten out the affairs of the bank. He is a gentleman in the prime of life, is thoroughly familiar with financial affairs and the banking business, having spent many years in the Kent County Savings Bank and later opening an office in Chestertown, where the handling of financial affairs is one of his specialties. Mr .Perkins will have the assistance of some one in Elkton who knows the people of the community and is familiar with local affairs.

William T. Warburton, president of the Elkton Bank, remains in an unchanged, semi-conscious condition and his condition is said to be a precarious one.
